Let full particulars of the outrage of 1882 be given. Let the carving up of the constituencies, the hiving of Reformers, and the practical disfranchisement of thousands of voters be fully shown, then let their disgraceful measure now before Parliament be explained.

Let it be stated that justice cannot be obtained in a House of Commons of which the majority owe the seats to the gerrymander, the Franchise Act, and the red parlor bribery funds. Let us ask for a governor-general who will be instructed to require his Canadian Ministers to introduce a redistribution bill for the whole Dominion, referring the rearrangement of the constituencies to a non-partisan commission of superior court judges, whose report shall be final.

William Lyon Mackenzie could not versuade the English Government of the tyranny of the Family Compact until he went to England with a petition signed by 27,000 electors. Let us follow his example. Let us set out our wrongs in a petition signed by 100,000 electors, and I believe that her Majesty and her Ministers will heed our prayer and see that, at least, no further gerrymandering be permitted in her Majesty's name. Edward Lloyd, Friday Night.

Every music-loving citizen should hear Edward Lloyd, the world-famed tenor, at the Grand Opera House to-morrow (Friday) night. It is just one chance in a lifetime. In Toronto the best seats sold at $3 each, and the Pavilion Music Hall was packed to the doors. The programme will be of a popular order, and Mr. Lloyd will sing by special request Handel's famous recit and aria, "Deeper and Deeper Still" and "Waft Her Angeis" (Jeptha), his other numbers will include Blumenthal's "Message," Goundo's "Lend Me Your Aid" and probably Balfe's "Then You'll Remember Me." Mr. Birks assures everyone a grand treat in Edward Lloyd. Nobody in the world can approach him at all as a ballad singer. Gallery seats (75 cents) are still on sale at the Bell piano store, and we advise

Last evening the English Church clergymen of the city gathered at the residence of Canon Newman on Talbot street to say good-bye to the reverend gentleman, who is removing with his family to Toronto. Dean Innes, on behalf of his brethren, presented Canon Newman with a handsome gold-headed cane, and in a few well-chosen words spoke of the high esteem in which he is held by his fellow-ministers, and expressing the hope that he would soon recover his health in his new home. Canon Newman made a feeling roply and the presentation was closed with prayer.

Epworth Leaguers Elect Officers.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Epworth League of the Colborne Street Methodist Church the following officers were selected. Honorary president, Rev. C. Methodist Church the following officers were elected: Honorary president, Rev. C. Smith; president, W. R. Manning; first vice-president (Christian Endeavor deputation), H. Pratt; second vice-president (religious work), E. Fortner; third vice-president (literary department), Miss E. Lynam; fourth vice-president (social department), Miss P. Murray; treasurer, W. Ross; secretary, T. Tapp. The winter term of the league has been a very pleasant and profitable one. Several addresses were given on Bible study and religious work. Two very interesting scientific lectures were delivered, a number of "at homes" were given, and monthly prayer and consecration services held. The society endeavors to develop the mental, social, moral and religious natures, and is in a most prosperous condition. A large number of new members were added at the last meeting.

On a Grand Scale.

The Young Liberal Minstrels are busy every night. A performance on such a grand scale needs an immense amount of preparation. From 8 to 9 o'clock the Hyman Guards and the Old Guards are instructed by Capt. Somerville in the Duffield block. The members are rapidly approaching perfection in the movements. These drills will be among the most attractive features of the varied programme. The Hyman Guards will be handsomely attired and will go through graceful and intricate exercises, while the Old Guards will be a production absolutely original and funny beyond description. The solosits and the exercises, while the Old Guards will be a production absolutely original and funny beyond description. The soloists and the quintet practiced at the Richmond street rooms until 9 o'clock, after which the entire company assembled to rehearse the choruses. They made the building ring with the melody that will delight hundreds at the Grand Opera House on Tuesday evening next. Arrangements have been made with Mr. Frank McKenna, of the well-known New York Costume Parlors, Toronto, to costume the performance throughout, so that the curtain will ring up on the most gorgeous and imposing spectacular "first part" ever presented in the city of London. The cost of this scene will be very heavy, but the Young Liberals will spare no expense in pleasing their patrons. The plan of seats opens on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Somebody will be on hand an hour earlier to give numbered cards to first-comers who will have preference in passing the wicket. No one will be allowed to reserve more than ten seats at the time.

A BRANCH DRUG STORE.

Messrs. Cairneress & Lawrence Purchase Frank Holman's Store en Richmond Street.

Negotiations were completed a few days ago whereby the drug store kept by Mr. Frank Holman, at the corner of Richmond and Piccadilly streets, was purchased by Messrs. Cairneress & Lawrence. This firm's business has increased so largely that the securing of a store in the northern portion of the city, to better accomedate customers in that district, was a necessity. The place is nicely situated and besides being a handsome store, is shocked with the best of druggists' goods. Every attention will be given to the supplying of first-class medicines and remedies, and the prescription department will be under the supervision of one of the firm. Mr. Holman is retiring from business on account of his health. He will likely travel for a year and then enter into the Y. M. C. A. work. This venture of Messrs. Cairneress & Lawrence is a capital one and speaks well for their enterprise. me, Sale is a sure a series of the control of the theater going public all right.
