Edinburgh, July 3.—Sir Charles Henry Ross, of Balmagown Castle, whose suit for divorce against his wife, Lady Winifred Ross, on the ground of adultery, was decided in her favor on June 12, his countersuit being rejected, has been granted permission in the first division of the court of sessions here to appeal against the decision. His appeal will be heard on Thursday next.

WENT TO THE BOTTOM.
Calcutta, July 3.—The British bark Overdale (Capt. Roberts), bound for Southampton, came into collision with the steamer Paduan, off Hooghly Point, near the mouth of the westernmost branch of the Ganges, and sank almost immediately. All on board were drowned except the captain, the pilot and one seaman.

ROYALTY AT A SWIMMING CONTEST.
London, July 3.—The Duke and Duchess of York witnessed the amateur mile swimming championship contest in the West India docks on Saturday. The competitors included Hart, Soron, Tooper and Stratton, respectively the champions of America, Belgium, Germany and New Zealand, and a small number of Englishmen. Jarvis, the Midlands (England) champion, won by 20 yards. His time was 32 minutes, 23 seconds. Hart, the American champion, finished fifth.

TRIBUTE TO TURKEY.
London, July 3.—A dispatch from Athens says that the powers have agreed upon these conditions of Cretan autonomy: A Christian governor is to be appointed, and the annual tribute to be paid to Turkey is fixed at £10,000, the balance of the revenue of the island, pending the formation of an indigenous national assembly, is to be composed of equal number of Christians and Mohammedans, and there is to be a gradual withdrawal of the Turkish troops.

KILLED AT SEA.
London, July 3.—Thomas Smith, aged 74 years, a passenger on the Cunard Line steamer Umbria, from New York, returning to Ireland to erect a monument over the grave of his parents, fell down the companionway of the steamer on June 28 and was killed. He was buried at sea the same night, with appropriate ceremonies, and a solemn procession on deck.

FLOODS IN FRANCE.
Paris, July 3.—Fourteen bodies have been recovered from the floods caused by the rising of the River Garonne, in France. It is feared that others have been drowned, as many houses have been swept away. The River Save has overflowed at Isle-en-Dodon, destroying 40 houses and drowning 13 people. At St. Laurent three houses have been drowned and 30 houses have been swept away.

MUTINY.
London, July 3.—A mutiny occurred on board the British steamer City of Lisbon at Malaga, which, but for the intervention of the crew of the Spanish gunboat Cuervo, might have had serious consequences. The sailors of the City of Lisbon made an attack upon their captain, who signalled for assistance. The officers of the gunboat quickly sent a boat's crew aboard the steamer, and the mutiny was suppressed and the mutineers put under arrest.

THE ROSS DIVORCE CASE RE-VIVED.
