will answer but that the investment is a good one. Dressing well does not mean that one must wear broadcloth. Deeks & Munson, for instance, have upon their tables many fine samples of cloth that look well, wear well, and are put together on the best looms from only first-class material. They are goods intended for business suits, some of them; others are for "best." But any of them are fit for any occasion, if necessary, and they do not come high in price. They meet the demands of the times to a nicety. They cost no more than poorer stuff made up by inferior tailors, and that gives no satisfaction from the first week of its existence to its speedy end. Dress well. It saves your self-respect, saves your pocket, and extends your life by keeping out discontent.

The Associated Press learns that Lady Hart, wife of Sir Robert Hart, director of the Chinese imperial maritime customs, on July 5 received the following telegram from her husband: "Our people, including the women, are in the legations. Prepare to hear the worst."

The European governments have received from their representatives at Shanghai a dispatch from the governor of Shan Tung, dated July 3, reporting that the European troops made a sortie from Pekin and killed 200 of Gen Tung Fuh Sian's forces, and that the Boxers were mounting guns to make a breach in the defenses.

APPEAL TO AMERICANS. The following is the text of an appeal of Americans in China, assembled in mass meeting in Shanghai, to their fellow-citizens at home: "Urge the government to send adequate forces to act effectively in concert with the other powers. At present the American forces are quite disproportionate to the interests involved. Our commercial interests in the northern provinces are paramount, and we consider it a humiliating policy to intrust to other powers the chief task, that of protecting Americans. Antiforeign outrages are multiplying daily, Officials and missionaries are massacred. "The fate of the ministers and their families in Pekin is not known, but a general massacre is apprehended. Wholesale massacres of native Christians continue. The whole country is terrorized. Trade is paralyzed. The speedy restoration of order are duties pressing upon all civilized powers. The consequences of delay will be dis-astrous. Not only are foreign lives and property placed in jeopardy, but the loss of influence will be incalculable. Give no credence to statements of the situation sent by the Chinese Government to its ministers abroad. The present outrages are the result of the weak and vascillating policy of the powers in the past. We urge immediate, energetic and concerted action.'

All Killed.

SAYS THE GOVERNOR OF SHAN TUNG.

Shanghai, July 15 .- An official telegram was received tonight from the governor of Shan Tung, stating that a breach was made in the wall, after a gallant defense, and all the ammunition had given out. All foreigners were killed.

KNEW IT A WEEK AGO. The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "I can assert posi-tively that the Chinese authorities had the dreadful news from Pekin a week ago, and that Sheng knew all the foreigners in Pekin were dead when he

of the legations made daily sorties, and so successfuly as to compel the Chinese to retreat from the immediate vicinity. These reverses had a disheartening effect upon the Chinese, and there soon began to be open signs of disaffection. Ultimately Prince Tuan decided to make a night attack in FOREIGNERS FROM WEN CHOW

Wang Wen Shao with their troops, who were going to the aid of the foreigners. A desperate battle ensued between the Chinese and Manchus. Unfortunately many of Prince Ching's troops deserted to Prince Tuan. Prince Ching fell, and was supposed to have been killed, but it is now believed he was only wounded and carried off. Gen. Wang Wen Shao, 70 years old, valiantly led his troops in person. He was killed and his force, which was completely outnumbered, was routed.

The small band that was left took refuge in the wrecked buildings, which they endeavored hastily to fortify. Upon these the fire of the Chinese artillery was directed. Towards sunrise it was evident that the ammunition of the Finally came the news from Shanghai allies was running out, and at 7 standing together, the little remaining band, all Europeans, met death stubbornly. There was a desperate hand-to-hand encounter. The Chinese lost heavily, but as one man fell others advanced, and finally, overcome by overwhelming odds, every one of Europeans remaining was put to the sword in the most atrocious manner.

THE SORTIE.

Daily Express, on the alleged authority of couriers, who brought the story, says: Maddened with hunger, after having been without food for many days, the members of the legation and the guards made a sortie on the night of June 30, and killed 200 Chinese in an unexpected attack. Gen. Tung Fuh Siah, enraged over the loss of so many men, brought up heavy guns, and Prince Tuan gave orders that every foreigners must be destroyed. "In the final attempt to cut their way through, the legations formed a square, with the women and children in the center. When the Boxers realized that they were being attacked, they became like wild beasts, and shot each other in the darkness. The foreigners went mad and killed all their women and children with revolvers. Heavy guns bombarded all night until the buildings were demolished and in flames. Many foreigners were roasted in the ruins. The Boxers rushed upon them, and hacked and stabbed both dead wounded, cutting off their heads and carrying them through the streets on their rifles.
