

tion of his faithfulness as a physician. "Well, suppose they are those of a lover—what then?" he demanded, think-ing that he might as well bring matters crisis first as last. 'I should not approve of any such ar-she said.

disparity in your ages."

"For one thing," he repeated. "What other objection have you?"

"I do not believe that she would be happy as your wife; I do not believe you would make her a good husband."

"Indeed! Why not, pray?" the man object with a great and the proposition of the pray of the pray of the pray is the pray who saved us all from that terrible fire last August. Have you forgotten?" re-lor, your habits are confirmed, and would not yield to her. You have always lived chiefly and solely for yourself. John. You perceive that I am very blunt."

"I should think so," he interposed, with cannot help it. I feel it to be my duty, even though I offend you," Mrs. Sherman pursued, gravely. "Alice has no father, no own mother to shield her the snares and evils of life, and I that I should be sadly neglectful of obligations if I did not do everything in my power to secure her happiness; and I am afraid, John, that you are more interested for yourself in this matter than you are for her good."

"In other words, you mean to imply,
I suppose, that I am after her money?"

Ashton retorted, with considerable show of temper.
"Tell me one thing," said his sister. "Anything you like."
"Is it really your intention to marry

Yes, if she will have me."

Mrs. Sherman lost her color.
"I shall object to such a union," she said, decidedly.
"That may not make any difference with my intentions, you know," he cool-Then let me entreat you, John, not to in this project; it may ruin her pleaded Mrs. Sherman, looking deeply distressed.

"Really, Sadle, I must say you are complimentary to your own flesh and blood," he sarcastically returned.

blood," he sarcastically returned.
"I do not believe, you would ever have contemplated such a thing if Alice were penniless," said the lady, excitedly.
"Weli, perhaps not," Dr. John answered, smiling disagreeably. "And now that I think of it, maybe you are not so entirely disinterested as you would have tirely disinterested as you would have me believe it would make quite a dif-ference with your income if Alice should

John Ashton, you ought to be ashamed to mention such a thing," cried his sister, indignantly. "If Alice Sherman loved you, and I was convinced that he happiness depended upon her marrying you, I would not lay a straw in her wa Of course, I expect that she will mar some day, and I have never given single thought to any pecuniary loss th I might experience on account of it. I only wish to be sure that the dear child will be happy. She has a peculiar disposition—I never realized how peculiar until recently—and she ought to have a kind, considerate and unseifish husband." "Thank you again, Sadle, for all that your objections to me and your kind wishes for Alice imply; but allow me to say that I shall give Miss Sherman an ed himself for interrupting, and solicit-opportunity to accept or reject me just ed the pleasure of Alice's hand for a as soon as I think it will do to put my fate to the test."

A moment later Laurence Fane excussion as the pleasure of Alice's hand for a quadrille.

She politely refused his request, and and Egbert Reynolds among the guests. Mr. Stark, the publisher, who was a relative of the hostess, came later, with two pretty daughters and Kenneth

Alice espied Kenneth the moment he man entered the room, and no one would have recognized in the blooming, sparkling and animated creature, which she suddenly became, the cold, pale and stent girl who pears

John Ashton winced as she made men- cover any acquaintance among the numerous guests.
He saw Mrs. Sherman and her party almost immediately, and at once made his way to her side.

Then Dr. Ashton understood the secret of the sudden change in Alice, for the color flooded her cheeks and a light gleamed in her eyes, such as he had never seen there before, as she greeted the young man with a cordiality such as "Why not?"
"For one thing, because of the great lisparity in your ages."
"For one thing," he repeated. "What you met him before?" the doctor de-you would make her a good husband."

"Indeed! Why not, pray?" the man asked, with some bitterness.
"Because, having lived go long a bache"Because, having lived go lo last August. Have you forgotten?" returned Mrs. Sherman, surprised that he should not have remembered the name.

"Humph! I should think he was some prince of royal blood by the enthusiasm with which you all greeted him!" with which you all greeted him!" grumbled her brother, with his suspicious glance still fixed upon Alice, who was chatting with the object of these remarks with a vivacity which betrayed that she found him a most congenial companion.
"He has a princely nature and the station of Queens, L. I., just outside the limits of Greater New York. The property covers 666 acres, on the construction and equipment of which it is intended to grand $1,500,000 to make the new course > like him."

> "Perhaps you would not object to him as a husband for your charming ward," sneered her brother.

> "John, you can be very disagreeable when you choose," replied the lady with a shrug of her shoulders; "but, to be frank with you, I should not object to him, if he wished to marry her, neither would she herself, if I am not mistaken, she concluded, with a significant giance at Alice and her handsome companion. She heaved a little regretful sigh as she watched the young couple, for she could see that though Kenneth was trying to be politely entertaining, his eager glance kept wandering to Queen Bess, who, after she had given him one smiling look and cordial handclasp, had stepped back a pace or two, and was now standing by herself, with downcast eyes, but very happy face, for his tone and manner while greeting her had told her more strongly than words could have done how glad he was to meet her again Mrs. Sherman had begun to suspect when they were at the beach in the summer, that both the girls had become deeply interested in the young man, and that this was the secret of Alice's strange

> She was forced to believe that the girl possessed an intensely jealous nature, which, however, had never been stirred till now, and she feared that she would even turn against her best friends, if, through them, she was thwarted in the dearest object of her life—if they should come between her and the man whom she

> She could not help fearing that she would have to bear a lifelong disappointment, for she could read the signs of the times very readily as she stood there watched the different faces. Just now Egbert Reynolds approached Queen Bess, made some request of her, then of ring his hand led her away to another portion of the room. Mrs. Sherman saw the quick flush that mounted to know the same than the same th to Kenneth's brow as he, too, witnessed the act, and a pained, anxious expression was in his fine eyes as he watched the two move away.

A moment later Laurence Fane excus-

The man arose as he concluded this defiant speech, and leaving Mrs. Sherdefiant speech, and leaving Mrs. Sherpointed, while she resumed her converdefiant speech. e man arose and leaving Mrs. Sherin tears, abruptly left the house.

f. Ashton's antagonism was aroused the highest pitch by this interview, includent occurred within this, and his white teeth gleamed bethis, and his mustache in a bitter smile. to the highest pitch by this interview, and as another incident occurred within a few days which added fuel to the flame, he carried his threat into execution much earlier than perhaps he would otherwise They were all invited to a reception to be given in honor of one of the school friends of Alice and Queen Bers, who was about to make her debut in society, and upon their arrival at the scene of festivities they found their arrival at the scene of festivities they found their arrival at the scene of festivities they found their arrival at the scene of festivities they found their arrival at the scene of festivities they found their scene of the princely nature; it is just as the is very much smitten with our young man of the 'princely nature'; it is just as ob-vious, however, that he does not reciprocate, his affections unquestionably having been bestowed upon my charming "You shall have my blessing, young man, and a snug dowry besides, if you t, and a snug dowry besides, if you take her and leave the heiress to field, it seems. Mr. Laurence Fane appears to be quite fond of the wealthy became, the cold, pale and slicit girl who had entered the room a half-hour before. Dr. Ashton was quick to mark the instantaneous change in her, and wondered at its cause. He watched her, and it was not long before he was enlightened.

After Kenneth had made his bow to his hostess, and been presented to Miss Florence Ames, the debuntante, he began to look about him to see if he could disconnected to the search of the wealthy ward of my estimable sister—his face was a study as she sent him about his business a few moments ago. But it wouldn't be fair at all, Sir Laurence, for you are a millionafre in prospect yourself. I think I must try to checkmate you in this little game at my earliest opportunity."

[To be Continued.]

NEW ORLEANS WINTER MEET WILL BE OPENED TOMORROW

and Wonderly Rides.

A Cup Defender on New Lines-Those Burnside Rules.

THE TURF.

NOW ORLEANS TOMORROW. New Orleans, Nov. 25. - The winter meeting of the Coscent City Jockey Club, which will open Thursday, pro-mises to be the greatest race meeting ever held in New Orleans. The raising of overnight races to $400 for selling purses and $500 for handicaps, has had the effect of securing for New Orleans the attendance of the best horses in training. There will be about 1,200 horses at the track. The first issue of stakes, 21 in number, closed with the unprecedented average of 107 to a race.

GONE TO NEW ORLEANS. Washington, Nov. 25.-Winnie O'Connor left Washington yesterday for New Orleans. Redfern, Lyne, Martin, Odom, Minder, Wonderly, Robertson and Rice will also ride at that track.

WONDERLY RIDING AT BENNINGS. Washington, Nov. 25.-The steady rain of last night and today made the track at Bennings very muddy. Only two actual favorites, Red Damsel and Benclart, secured first money. Circus, the equal-choice favorite in the last race, won. Jockey J. Johnson, on Walter Cleary, the favorite in the steroplobes a received a favorite in the steeplechase, received a bad fall, but was fortunate enough to escape with a bad shaking up. Redfern rode three winners. Summary:

First race, 3-year-olds, 7 furlongs—Red Damsel, 103 (Redfern), 14 to 5 and even, 1. Tribes, 111, 124 (Wonderly), 5 to 2 and 1; Tribes' Hill, 104 (Wonderly), 5 to 2 and even, 2; Carroll D., 102 (Creamer), 5 to 1, 3. Time, 1:31. Second race, 2-year-olds, 6½ furlongs—Sun Gold, 110 (Redfern), 13 to 5 and 40 to 5, 1; Gloriosa, 107 (Wonderly), 6 to 5 and to 2, 2; Saccharometer, 110 (Rice), 5 to 3. Time, 1:24%.

1 to 2, 2; Saccharometer, 110 (Rice), 5 to 1, 3. Time, 1:24½.

Third race, steeplechase, about 2½ miles—Arius, 144 (Mara), 7 to 2 and even, 1; Marylander, 151 (Donahue), 5 to 1 and 8 to 5, 2; Draughtsman, 148 (Mr. Harris), 10 to 1, 3. Time, 5:39½.

Fourth race, 3-year-olds and up, 11-16 miles—Benclart, 105 (Cochran), 8 to 5 and 7 to 10, 1; Rough Rider, 107 (Wonderly), 3 to 1 and even, 2; Courtenay, 98 (Gannon), 7 to 2, 3. Time, 1:54.

Fifth race, 2-year-olds, 6 furlongs—Right and True, 100 (McCafferty), 7 to 1 and 5 to 2, 1; Earl of Warwick, 103 (Pollack), 8 to 1 and 2 to 1, 2; Never More, 110 (Wonderly), even, 3. Time, 1:14%.

Sixth race, the high-weight handicap, 1½ miles—Circus, 110 (Redfern), 7 to 5 and 3 to 5, 1; Carbuncle, 134 (Wonderly), 7 to 5 and 2 to 5, 2; Arrah Go Wan, 107 (Michaels), 10 to 1, 3. Time, 2:01.

THE DAY AT INGLESIDE. San Francisco, Nov. 25 .- Weather clear, good. Results: track good. Results:
First race, 7 furlongs, selling—Loyal S., 4 to 1, 1; Ignacio, 30 to 1, 2; Mike Rice,
25 to 1, 3. Time, 1:23½.
Second race, 5 furlongs, purse—Imp.
Puss in Boots, 15 to 1, 1; Esherin, 2 to 5,
2; Pensance, 8 to 1, 3. Time, 1:03½.
Third race, 1 mile, selling—Sugden, 10 to 1, 1; Diomedad, 30 to 1, 2; Bangor, 7 to 1, 3. Time, 1:44.

o 1, 3. Time, 1:44.

Fourth race, 11-16 miles, all ages, purse Hamber and Art K-Artvis, 2 to 1, 1; Beau Ormonde, 10 to 1, nauts, will compete.

of Gold, 6 to 1, 3. Time, 1:14%. A NEW RACE TRACK. New York, Nov. 25.-The Westchester the opposition. "He has a princely nature, and the courage of a lion!" Mrs. Sherman hear-tily responded. "He is my ideal of a noble young man; I wish I had a son chute of seven furlongs, a circular track of 1½ miles, and a circular training track of the same length, to be used in connection with the main track when neces sary. The plans have the full approval of the State Racing Commission and the board of stewards of the Jockey Club.

FOOTBALL.

PLAYED AT DUNDAS. Dundas, Ont., Nov. 25.-The semifinal match, junior series, O. R. F. U., between Galt and Hamilton III. teams, which was unfinished at Galt on Saturday owing to darkness, was played off here today by order of the executive of the union. Hamilton won by a score of 22 to 12.

ALL-AMERICAN COLLEGE TEAM. Center-Holt, of Yale. Left guard-Glass, of Yale Right guard-De Witt, of Princeton.

Right tackle-Hogan, of Yale. Left tackle-Bunker, of West Point. Left end-Davis, of Princeton. Right end-McAndrew, of Quarter-back-Rockwell, of Yale. Left half-back-Weekes, of Columbia. Right half-back-Metcalf, of Yale. Full-back-Bowman, of Yale. DID NOT PLAY.

Toronto, Nov. 25 .- The Association match arranged for yesterday between Galt and the University of Toronto eleven was not played, as the W. F. A. champions have asked for a postponement until next week. Galt's unexpected action means that the 'Varsity club will be greatly out of pocket, Absolutely clean. Put up in dainty "brick" packages. Enough for two large or three medium pies. Ready to add vinegar, cider, wine or brandy. Ask for WETHEY's and take NO OTHER. Sold by grocers

"One try satisfies"

WETHERS

MINCE MEAT

Wethey's Mince Meat

What does a good cook gain if she makes a beautiful pie crust and fills it with poor mince meat? A cook who knows how to make a good crust wants good mince meat made of fresh meats and fruits and the best spices for a filler. Wethey's Delicious Condensed

Mince Meat is everything your best judgment says a good mince

"Good Crust-Good Filler."

Chris Fitzgerald / C's as Starter as the game had been freely advertised. SOME BIG RECEIPTS.

The total receipts of the Yale-Princeton game last Saturday were about $33,000. There are new seating ac-commodations to be paid for out of this, and it is understood Yale shares the expense for the additional seats; but out of the $33,000 it is estimated that the two football associations will have at least $25,000 to split up evenly. This game was, of course, Princeton's biggest source of revenue in an athletic way for the year. Financially all the big colleges will probably do ex-ceedingly well. Princeton had good crowds for the games with Columbia of mose profitable size. Harvard in particular, the Pennsylvania, Brown, Indian and Dartmouth and Cornell. Harvard and Pennsyl-Indian and Dartmouth games, each drawing 10,000 or more persons. BETRAYED BY THE COACH. Assistant Coach Mason has been barred from the secret practices of the Harvard football team by Head Coach Farley. It was understood that Farley and Capt. Kernan, of the Harvard eleven, had received information that Mason had used his knowledge of Harvard tactics to help Dartmouth in last Sat-urday's game. At any rate, when Mason appeared on Soldiers' field for practice Coach Farley objected to his presence, and after some talk Mason was acompanied off the field by another coach. Coach Farley says that he had good reason for acting as he did, but beyond that he will not discuss the case. Mason is a former football player and star member of the Harvard baseball team.

WOULDN'T THIS PANE YOU? Yale's great guard, Glass, has a clear rec d .- New York World. There is no flaw in Glass' record .-

Baitimore Sun. Harvard men are much cut up because Glass is to play in the Yale game.-Boston Herald. Glass is a player with a lot of sand, and comes by it naturally.-Philadelphia Record.

Glass is certainly a smooth proposition when it comes to a football game. -New York Telegram. Princeton broke its plate trying to gain through Glass .- New York Telegraph.

He (Glass) is a polished player.Pittsburg Dispatch. Glass was all broken up when he heard that charges had been made against him.-New Haven Register. Harvard is doing a lot of quiet blowing about Glass.-Baltimore Sun.

TOUCHDOWNS. The Argonauts, despite the fact that they played only three games at home during the season, came out well ahead financially

An effort will be made in Toronto to pull off the kicking competition for the gold medal donated by Manager Thompson some time this week. It is thought that Beatty, Paterson and Baldwin, of 'Varsity, and Hardisty, Hamber and Art Kent, of the Argo-

-Artvis, 2 to 1, 1; Beau Ormonde, 10 to 1, 2; Kenilworth, 40 to 5, 3. Time, 1:07%.
Fifth race, 1½ miles, selling—Lodestar, even, 1; Rio Shannon, 40 t 1, 2; Grafter, 12 to 1, 3. Time, 1:56.
Sixth race, 6 furlongs, handicap—Vesuvian, 8 to 1, 1; Money Muss, even, 2; Flush vian, 8 to 1, 1; The Burnside rules mean an open running and kicking game, where ronto team next year. know that this will put some of their heavy punchers out of business, hence

A general meeting of the football contingent of the Argonaut Club will be called this week for the purpose of discussing the proposed adoption of west looking for members to form a the Burnside rules. The stand that the syndicate to build a centerboard club will take at the annual meeting , just outside the of the Ontario Union will then be de-

HOCKEY.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SCHEDULE. The schedule of games for the senior teams in the Intercollegiate Hockey

Union is as follows: Jan. 16-Varsity at Queen's, Jan. 23-Queen's at McGill. Jan. 30-McGill at Varsity.

Feb. 6-Queen's at Varsity. Feb. 13-McGill at Queen's Feb. 20-Varsity at McGill. THE SOO IN THE O. H. A.

At Monday night's meeting of the O. H. A. executive committee, application for admission were received and accepted from Sault Ste. Marie, Ux-bridge, and Smith's Falls. Several others were laid on the table, and wilf be taken up at a meeting which will be held next week.

UNPROTESTED NOTES. The Berlin News-Record suggests Mr. Ed Wetlaufer for the presidency of the W. O. H. A. At a meeting last week the Mimico Asylum Hockey Club reorganized for the coming season. Canadian hockeyists got $20 per week in Pittsburg for playing the game. That's more than the majority of them could earn in any other line of business.-Toronto Star. Varsity hockeyists will tour Ontario during the Christmas holidays. Young, the Kingston all-round athlete, and an ex-member of the Frontenacs, will go to Pittsburg this week to play in the P. A. C. hockey team. ALLOWED AND DISALLOWED.

Referring to the applications of London layers for reinstatement in the O. H. A., he Toroto Telegram says: "Percy Ashplant, professionalized along with the London team in 1901 for having played Frank Winn, of Montreal. Rein-stated. Ashplant was a London boy of played Frank Winn, of Montreal. Reinstated. Ashplant was a London boy of excellent reputation, and in his affidavit declared that Winn had been introduced to him as Lindsay, a man whom the O. H. A. had given London permission to play. He was totally ignerant that he was then that he was constant. was other than Lindsay until the dis-closures were made by the O. H. A. Ash-plant is now a dental student in Philadelphia.

"Harry Peel, professionalized with the London team in 1901. Application rejected. Peel was on similar footing as Ashplant, as far as London was concerned; but last winter he played in Pittsburg, and admitted receiving $20 a week for his services. This he indicated was the prevailing salary in the Smoky City. Peel valling salary in the Smoky City. Peel did not have any employment in Pittsburg apart from his position as player on the Keystone team.

"Ernest Lang, of Winnipeg, professionalized with the London team in 1901. Application rejected."

THE RESULT WILL BE -One of the proposed amendments to the O. H. A. rules is to allow teams of six men on small rinks. If the teams are whittled to fit the rinks, it is pretty sure whittled to lit the rinks, it is precised to that the rinks will never be enlarged to that the teams-and the people will never

PUSHBALL.

DATE FIXED FOR DETROIT GAME The Argonauts definitely arranged yesterday to play the game of pushball with the Detroit Athletic Club team in the Light Guard Armory, De-troit, on Saturday, Dec. 13, at 3:30 o'clock. Eight men a side will play, and Joe Wright, Phil Boyd, E. W. Hamber, Pud Kent, Billy Grant and other big fellows will be on the team.

BASEBALL.

EASTERN LEAGUE TEAM Rumors regarding an Eastern League eam in Baltimore have some little foundation, in fact, for several men, prominent in the baseball world, have been discussing for some time the pos-sibilities of an Eastern League team in that city. They will not make any move until the receiver's sale of the American League grounds. And they will not be bidders for that property. They are by no means certain that an Eastern League team would even pay expenses, and their friends are rather opposed to the move. The prospects are, in fact, that Baltimore will go without baseball next year.

FLYS. Charley Dooley announces that he has no intention of taking the Eastern League franchise away from Mon-There is a rumor that the Montreal franchise may be disposed of to Baltimore parties, and Arthur Irwin put in as manager. Montreal, Rochhis services.

ester and Worcester are all bidding for Frank Sheibeck, of Detroit, is wanted to play short or second for Rochester, and to captain the team. The Eastern League blacklisted the Detroiter when he quit Montreal for Cleveland in the spring of 1901, but it is believed that his reinstatement can be secured. Charlie Carr, of the Jersey City team, ill spend the winter in Toronto. It is said that Carr has matrimonial inclinations, and he may decide to make Toronto his permanent residence. Since accepting the management of the Toronto Eastern League team for 1903. Ed Barrow has received a tempting offer from the San Francisco team of the California League.

Crystal, the left-hander, once with Woodstock, who has been pitching in the California League, has asked Manager Barrow for a place on the To-

YACHTING. HANLEY'S CUP DEFENDER.

Boston, Mass., Nov.25.-Charles Hanley, well known designer and builder of yachts, the man who designed the Cadillac for the Canada's cup now at work hereabouts and in the west looking for members to form a America's cup defender candidate of radical ideas in design and construction. Mr. Hanley, at this stage of his labors, has something more than a design and a model in the open market awaiting clients. In Rowland Nickermember of the New York Yacht Club, he has a yachtsman who is willing to contribute $10,000 with nine other n who will give a like amount.

Hanley last week called on some prominent Boston yachtsmen, and, although he did not meet the success he counted on, his efforts were by no means in vain. He interested several of them in his plan, and it is most probable that the necessary money will be forthcoming.

Thomas W. Lawson, remembering his disastrous experience with the Independence, positively declined to be a party to the building. Hanley then began correspondence with the Detroit eople who built the Cadillac. have promised $15,000; accordingly $25, 000 is assured, and much more is confidently expected. In design the proposed boat is a clean, easy skimming dish of great power, and well able to carry a very large sail plan. She is 40 feet beam, with an over-all length of 165 feet, of shoal depth and light displacement.

WHEEL.

C. W. A. RESPONSIBLE FOR CUS-TOMS.

Toronto, Nov. 25 .- The department of customs at Ottawa has notified the Canadian Wheelmen's Association that they will be held good for some $280 on wheels coming into Canada, under the American Association's guarantee. It has been the custom for the customs authorities to allow wheelmen to cross the line on producing their as-sociation badges. Records are kept and every tourist is obliged to report on his return. Although all the men returned some few Americans did not report when going home, and the duty on their wheels is collectable. The American Association is liable, but the could be made as to can communicate with the American Association. The Canadian Associa-tion will be able to clear off an indebtedness of $1,000 this year.

WRESTLING.

JENKINS DEFEATS CARROLL. New York, Nov. 25 .- In a clever wrestling bout, catch-as-catch-can style, "Tom" Jenkins, of Cleveland, defeated "Joe" Carroll, of Ireland, tonight in Madison Square Garden concert hall. Jenkins had a decided advantage in weight, as he scaled 192 pounds, while Carroll weighed but 170 pounds. The match was best two out of three falls. Jenkins scored the first fall with a crotch hold in 28 minutes and 15 seconds. He also got the second and the match on a body hold, with which he lifted Carroll high up and then pressed him, head down, until his shoulders were securely pinned to the mat. The time of the second fall was 14 minutes and 27 seconds. proved to be an extremely clever man and was remarkably quick in breaking holds in defense. His aggressive work, too, was full of strong points, but he was handicapped by the greater strength of his opponent. James Bay-

MALTA-VITA is the perfect food: perfect in taste, perfectly cooked and malted; perfect because MALTA-VITA contains all of the elements necessary to sustain life and invigorate mind and body. Perfect health, sound, restful sleep, clear complexion, bright eyes, clean, white teeth, sweet breath are the blessings that follow a regular diet of MALTA-

A week's trial of MALTA-VITA as a diet for breakfast and supper will convince the most skeptical of the superior merits of MALTA-VITA. Beware of imitations. Insist on getting MALTA-VITA, "The Perfect Food." Requires no cooking, always ready to eat.

For sale by grocers.

MALTA-VITA PURE FOOD CO. Toronto, Canada

ley, of this city, was referee. betting was 2 to 1 in favor of Jenkins. REINECKE VS. SCHOENLEIN. Baltimore, Md., Nov. 29.—Charles where the steamship Sicilian struck is Reinecke, of Pittsburg, and August the same one where the steamship Lake Schoenlein, of Baltimore, welter- Huron sustained considerable damage weights, wrestled catch-as-catch-can some years ago. It is also claimed style tonight for one hour to a draw. that no survey of the location has been Reinecke formerly held the amateur made since. hampionship of the world. He now holds the professional championship of Pennsylvania and Ohio at his weight.

THE RING.

HARRY NICHOLSON QUITS DAY. Harry Nicholson, who defeated Mike Ward at the last Delray show, has years, but as a means of eradicating fallen out with his manager, Al Day, cancer, it signally fails. This is adand has placed himself under the mitted by surgeons themselves. A wings of Tom McCune. Nicholson has leading physician of Cincinnati, Ohio, received some offers to bex out of in a paper read before the Ohio State town, and it is likely that these Medical Society, May, 1895, said: "I matches will be clinched by McCune. McGOVERN MAY BOX McCLEL- ber of cases of cancer recently, and LAND.

New York, Nov. 25 .- Terry McGovern has practically been matched to box Jack McClelland, of Pittsburg, before the West End A. C., St. Louis. Harris, McGovern's manager, received word from Matchmaker Haughton, the club on Saturday, asking him Terry would fight McClelland. Harris replied that McGovern would go VILLE, ONT.

Opposed to Sky-Scrapers

purse was suitable.

against the Pittsburg man provided the Toronto, Ont., Nov. 26. - City Commissioner Coatsworth is recommending that no building be permitted in the city more than fourteen stories high. He considers anything higher danger-

Pond, of Burke, and John T. Leach, of East Constable, Franklin County, N. Y., on the charge of having smuggled butter from Canada to the United States. A vehicle loaded with tubs of butter was seized last urday night, as it was crossing the Canadian line near Trout River, and the driver, Edward Pond, was arrested. Leach is the butter-maker for a creamery in Constable. Pond was held in $1,000 bail and Leach in $700 bail, to appear before the United States commissioner at Halone

The Sicilian Aground.

Quebec, Nov. 26 .- Divers are still at work examining the bottom of the steamer Sicilian, which was damaged by coming into contact with some object in the river at Bellechasse, but so far no definite estimate Canadian backs their guarantee and tent the vessel is really disabled. The vice versa. Meanwhile the Canadian discharging of the cargo from the Association has placed its case before fore compartment is now completed, the authorities at Ottawa, and has and it is expected that today asked for an extension of time until it the exact condition will be known. It is stated that it is probable that the Allan officials will not make any vestigation, but that the harbor master will himself take the matter in hand. It is stated that the place

SURGEONS FAIL TO CURE CANCER

The science of surgery has advanced have operated in a considerable numwith one exception all have died within fourteen months after the operation.

The New Constitutional remedy for cancers and tumors cures the disease by eliminating the cancer poison from the system. It has effected many cures after operations have failed. Send two STOTT & JURY, BOWMAN-

The Allan liner Sicilian struck ground in the St. Lawrence below Quebec, and had to return to port for repairs.

A Few Users Smith Premier Plattsburg, N. Y., Nov. 26. — Customs officials have arrested Edward Pond. of Burke, and John T. Leach, Franklin County,

Figures Cannot

IMPERIAL BANK ... YORK COUNTY LOAN AND SAVINGS CO. MASSEY, HARRIS & CO. ..... BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA..... AEMILIUS JARVIS & CO. .... A. E. AMES & CO. M. J. HENEY NORWICH UNION FIRE IN-ANGLO-AMERICAN INSUR-MANUFACTURERS' LIFE ..... McLAUGHLIN ELECTRIC BELT CO. ..... 3 JOHN KAY, SON & CO. .... 3 McKENZIE & MANN ...... 4 AND HUNDREDS OF OTHERS USING FROM 1 TO 3.

NEWSOME & GILBERT 68-72 Victoria Street.

Lee Hing Laundry

Sole Dealers. TORONTO.

Telephone 1344. 487 Richmond Street. SHIRT COLLARS IRONED STRAIGHT so as not to hurt the neck. Stand-up collars ironed without being broken in the wing. Ties done to look like new. Give me a call. If you are not suited, no pay. Washing returned in 24 hours. All hand work. Best in the city. Parcels called for and delivered.