HOUSE APPLAUDS

Hon. Geo. P. Graham Presents Railway Reports to the Commons.

Ottawa, Nov. 29.-With the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne held over until Monday the session of the House today was more or less a formal affair, a few minutes sufficing for the transaction of business, which comprised the presentation of several petitions and the laying on the table of a few blue oks. An interesting incident was the maiden speech of Hon. G. P. Graham, Minister of Railways and Canals. It was a modest effort, consisting of only two or three sentences in laying the reports of the Transcontinental Railway and railway commission on the table, and in answering a question by Mr. Borden, but it was not allowed to pass without recognition by the Liberal members, who pounded their lister sat down.
