LONDON MAY NOT PROTEST PETROLEA'S

PETROLEA WINS DISTRICT HONORS

Take Deciding Game From London at Strathroy By Score 7 to 0.

FIELD NOT SUITABLE

Puzzled Locals-All Tallying Done in Last Five Minutes of Play.

It now appears that London will not protest the win of Petrolea at Strathroy Saturday, when the locals lost in the play-off for the western district championship of the O. R. F. U. by 7 to 0, although the officials of the team notified Referee Livingstone, of Toronto, that they would object to Dawson, who they claim played on Queen's Intermediates.

The teams were too evenly matched to make the game more than ordinarily interesting, and a peculiar feature of the contest was that no scoring was done until the last five minutes, when two rouges and a try, not converted, put the Oil Towners into the champion class.

Game Was Rough.

The game was rough in spots, and the action of a Petrolea man in deliberately kicking Sage in the abdomen could scarcely be more unsportsman-like. Had the offender been mobbed few spectators would have cared what the outcome would be.

London had a small following, while the green and white was in evidence everywhere. A large number of boys were brought down by the Petrolea backers for the purpose of making all possible noise.

The losers played a slower game than that of a week ago at Tecumseh "Oily Lemons," as Park, while the they chose to call themselves, were in much better form. The following up Sage was one of the features of the play, while Jack McCall was in it every minute. Field Was Not Suitable.

It cannot be said that the O. R. F. U. displayed good judgment in ordering the play-off to take place in under fifteen hands two inches. Nala, Strathroy, as the grounds were far of the Avondale farms, was adjudged from satisfactory. There were no dead the best single harness horse over 15 lines, and the crowd swarmed in onto hands two. the field for yards. There was no po-lice protection, and as the play changed from one side of the gridiror to the other dozens of spectators would chase across the field and interfere with the combatants. The officials, Referee Livingstone and Umpire DeGruchy, of Toronto, handled the game to the entire satisfaction of both teams. Play was confined to the centre of the field in the first part of the opening period, but at the finish London worked up to the ten-yard line, where Hurley was given the ball to kick. He sent it into his own scrimmage, however, and the whistle blew as the men lower and the whistle blew as the men worked up to the ten-yard line, where ever, and the whistle blew as the men a sudden death match. lined up on the fifteen-yard line, The Final Quarter.

There was nothing doing till final quarter in the scoring line. Petrolea was urged on by the rooters, who swarmed onto the field, and made it impossible for the locals to hear own signals. A futile effort was made by the officials to put them back to the touch line, and play continued. Petrolea secured the ball on an offside, 25 yards from London's goal, and Dawson tried a drop kick. The pigskin struck the bar and fell back into the field, where the winners again took possession. They kicked over to Sneath, who was compelled to rouge. A minute later Petrolea kicked behind London's line, and Hurley in returning it struck a spectator. Referee Living-stone allowed one point. Petrolea Secured Try. The teams scrimmage at midfield, and as the whistle blew, Deacon started off for and end run, after London had stopped play. The distance was allowed by the officials, and shortly after Petrolea bucked over for a try. which Dawson failed to convert,

There was but three-quarters of a minute left to play, but London went onto the field again, and was within a few yards of the winners' goal at the final whistle. Score 7 to 0 The Teams, Following was the lineup:
