Nationalists in Convention at Dublin-Necessary Amendments Are Left in Hands of Mr. John Redmond

DUBLIN, April 23 .- When the Nationalist convention assembled today under the presidency of John E. Red-mond, its first act was to adopt a resolution expressing sorrow at the disaster to the Titanic.

APPROVE HOME

Although the acceptance in principle of the Home Rule Bill was a foregone conclusion, there was plenty of en-thusiasm among the delegates and much cheering as Mr. Redmond described the third Home Rule Bill as the most satisfactory measure ever offered to Ireland.

Mr. Redmond said that under the bill Dublin Castle, with all its evil and and bloodstained traditions, would disappear. The Irish would be a nation of fools not to accept the bill, which gave Ireland immediate control of nina-tenths of the Irish service and eventually of the whole.

The finance provision of the bill, he said, was better than that of either of the two previous measures. Mr. Redmond concluded by moving a resolution accepting the bill, which was seconded by the Lord Mayor of Cork ard carried amid a scene of wild en-thusiasm and the unfurling of the green flag.

Another scene was witnessed when a Another scene was witnessed when a number of Catholic priests proposed that the necessary amendments to the Home Rule Bill be left in the hands of Mr. Redmond. The motion was sup-ported by the Protestant rector of Ken-more and carried by acclamation. W. G. C. Gladstone, a grandson of the set time rector of the set o the one-time premier, received a grand welcome. A telegram was read from Patrick Egan, formerly United States minister to Chile, saying the message signed by 46 Irish-Americans against Home Rule did not represent Irish-Am-erican opinion and adding that this ef-fort to stab Ireland in the back should be condemned

John O'Callaham, secretary of the United Irish League, addressed an overflow meeting, at which we said that the honest hand of friendship held out by the Home Rule Bill should be grasped by the Irish in the United

Gedfrey Rugg, powderman for J. S. Washtok, was brought in from Cisco Saturday might and taken to the Kamloops hos-pital where he died yesterday morn-ing a force of ninety pounds. Contractor Washtok, who was near Rugg, had his left eye badly injured, and several of the copper caps pene-trated his left arm. He went to Van-couver for treatment. The blacksmith helper was also wounded in the legs.

Just before quitting time he started open a box of dynamite detonators in the rock cut where Washtok's steam shovel is operating and in some unac-countable manner the caps exploded. There were one hundred caps, exerting force of ninety pounds.

Motor Car Murder Mystery

NEWBURYPORT. Mass., April 22.--Wm. E. Dorr of Stockton, Cal., was in-dicted today for the murder of George E. Marsh, a wealthy soap manufacturer of Lynn. Dorr is under arrest in Cal-ifornia. Marsh's body, containing five bullets, was found beside the state highway in Lynn, about two weeks ago. The authorities learned that a man said to be Dorr had been seen in the vicin-ity-of the Marsh residence prior to the tragedy. Search disclosed that he dis-appeared on the night of the murder.

Mr. Smithers also informed Mr. Chamberlin that he was leaving Lon-don for Canada this week and would go direct to Winnipeg where an important conference would be held with Mr. Chamberlin. The board of directors has directed that construction work on the G. T. P. be quickly pushed forward. It is understood that Mr. Smithers will be accompanied by several of the Eng-lish directors of the Grand Trunk on his trip to Winnipeg.

OPENING OF YUKON

Revigation Will Be Possible This Year Earlier Than Syer Within Memory

SEATTLE. Wh., April 22.-The Yuken river will be open for navigation from Lower LaBarge to the mouth soon after May 10. Lake LaBarge, which is a wide portion of the river between White Herse and the head of navigation, is always ice-bound for some time after the lower river is open. Warning has been given that the ice will not be safe for a crossing after May 1. The opening of the Yukon is the earliest in the memory of man, and follows the mightest winter of which there is any record

RECIPROCITY

OTTAWA, April 23.—Hon. George E. Foster stated today that negotiations looking to'a more satisfactory trade arrangement between Canada and Australia are progressing favorably. Mr. Foster does not know when its will be able to go Australis to com-plete the arrangements now being made.

made. It has been rumored here that part of the new trade scheme would in-volve the granting by Australia of a preference for Canadian lumber by the imposition of a duty against United States humber. Mr. Foster will not discuss this phase of the guestion. The date for the beginning of the inquiry by the British Trade commis-sion, headed by Lord Inchespe, has not been fixed but it will be announced shortly. shortly.

TRADER'S OFFICER WAS ALMOST DROWNED

The chief officer of the steame Frader, Mr. Edward F. Geogeson, had a narrow escape from drowning when he fell from the freighter lying along Evans Coleman & Evans wharf yester-day. The Trader was discharging cement , and the chief officer leaned over the rail to take a line, when he overbalanced and fell. He was hauled out by Chief Engineer John Parker and Second Engineer John McGeo. He was scious when taken from the water, but after the two others worked over him for some time with artificial respiration, he recovered.

TO TITANIC FUND Provincial Secretary Instructs

Agent-General in London to Make Donation From Charitable Fund

Immediately after the disastrous results of the wreek of the Titanic were confirmed a fund was instituted in London under the segis of the Mansion House, and it is cer-tributions will be very considerable. It should be gratifying news to British Columbians that, through the agent general for the province in London arrangements have been made whereby the province will be substantially represented on the list of contributors.

be substantially represented on the list of ontributors. Testerday word was received from the Hon J. H. Turner, the agent general, by Hon Dr. Young, provincial secretary, in-quiring if the latter would care on behalf to the province to authorize a contribution to the trund inguitude by the Mansion House, and the provincial secretary lim-mediately cabled back that it be don. In the appropriation for the agent gen-rad in Lohdon there is provision made for contributions to charities, and the offering of the province toward the relief of the survivors from the wreck will be made from that fund. The amount to be donated in that fund. The amount to be donated in that of the agent-general. Some such action has been contemplated by the provincial authorities since the Lord Mayor took the lead in the matter, and the surgestion of the agent-general was wel-comed heartily.

He is unable to read, and he believed them when they showed him the plotures and headlines of the Titanic stories. He said he came to Spokane yesterday "to make them take it back." He declared that he went to the Chronicle editorial rooms last night, and the men there told him to go away and write out what he wanted to say. So far as can be learned, there was no one in the Chronicle editorial rooms last night. He did not speak to Mr. Roinrock before he opened fire.

Bill Introduced in British House by Mr. Reginald McKenna -Reduction in the Endowments of $900,000 LONDON, April 23 .- The Welsh disbitter rain Breaks like an April sun the smile of day into the house of commons by Home Secretary McKenna. It provides that after July 1, following the passing of the act, the four Weish dioceses shall cease to form part of the pro-vince of Canterbury.
