SALMON SCARCE

Reports from down river say that the salmon are very scarce and the shipments to Chatham and up river points have been very slack lately. Lobsters on the other hand are very plentiful, on account of the heavy wind that was blowing at the beginning of last week the lobster fishermen were unable to attend their traps, but when they visited them on Tuesday they were full, many of the fishermen taking over thirty lobsters to a trap, one man getting over 3000 to a boat load.—Gazette.

FIRST PRIZE

Mr. Havelock McNeil of Dalhousie, who took five salmon on Saturday to the freezer of Messrs. Montgomery and O'Leary, received the five dollar bounty for the first salmon taken to the freezer this season.
