

AN HOSPITAL ON FIRE.

TERRIBLE SCENES OF SUFFERING AMONGST THE SICK AND MIMED.

Heroic Coolness of the Mother Superior—No Lives Lost.

Detroit, Dec 21.—A fire was discovered at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning in the chapel of the Mercy hospital in the northern part of Big Rapids. So rapidly did it spread that the sisters could do nothing towards extinguishing it. The building, a large frame structure, in twenty minutes was one complete mass of flames. There were many exciting scenes. It was a long time before any assistance reached the sisters and the occupants told of their danger. Those who were able to help themselves escaped by the windows and doors, while those unable to move by reason of broken limbs or sickness were assisted from the burning building, and thus every life was saved. The sufferings of many were terrible. The doors of the various houses were opened and the patients readily provided with temporary shelter. Later on an old building was secured and thirty or forty patients removed to it. It is a large building, and at this time of the year it cannot be made good except by greatly increased expenditure. Among the contents destroyed having no insurance was the contents of a library of over 2,000 volumes, collected by his life-time by Father Cusick, also a few rare books. The mother superior is endeavoring to have the building repaired and the contents repainted. The mother superior is endeavoring to have the building repaired and the contents repainted. ANNUAL SLEIGHING PARTY of the Toronto Brewing Company—A Large Gathering and a Grand Sleighing. Wednesday evening a grand sleighing party was given by the Toronto Brewing & Malting Co. to West-End people and was attended by about 300 people. At 7:45 the procession comprising twenty-five sleighs headed by a brass band, started from the brewery on Simcoe street down Elm and Yonge to the market; thence up King and Simcoe on to the Eagle hotel at West. In the different sleighs were carried lanterns bearing the following: "Christ- mas is but once a year, and when it comes it brings good cheer." "The Toronto Brewing and Malting Co. That's where you get it." "Good again," etc. The sleigh in the rear of the procession was beautifully decorated with evergreens and Chinese lanterns, and was preceded by a band of bagpipes, making in the procession a very attractive and novel feature. The streets were literally crowded with eager observers who seemed to be attracted to the sleighs by the many colored lights suspended from the sleighs, and the many colored lights suspended from the sleighs, and the many colored lights suspended from the sleighs.
