Of course the Hamilton spectators were not disappointed that the victory should be with their tavorities, still the big score was a surprise even to them, and a much greater to Toronto sports, who could scarcely be persuaded into their favorites had received such a tremendous licking. Possibly the defeat would have been somewint lighter had the Torontos played in the same positions as they did in their two previous mixthes. But instead of that Stemmeyer was put in centre-field, where he fedily was a good, and Smith, the box and did his work so efficiently that the home men made it base hits. Moore, the new catcher for the Clippers, did some splendid work and proved to the astisfaction of the spectators that he was just the man for behind the bat.

MONTREAL, June 27 .- The lacrosse mate to-day between the Torontos and the Montrealers for the championship resulted in a big crowd being present. The day was fine and everything predicted an ex-cellent exposition of the game. Predictions were verified, but all the games were rather too sharp for the staying ma of the opposing twelves to be hout. Comparatively little wagering one and that was at slight odds on the realers. The following are the teams:

It might be well for the Terontos if they adopted some more suitable attitude than the present towards their young men.

A well-known Teronto broker made a bet before the departure of the lagrosse team for Toronto desact to the that the Toronto would still win the championship pennant. The amount of money that changed hands over the Montreal-Toronto match is said to be greater than for any match in which the Shamrocks were not interested, bets of over $100 being common.

American Athletes in England. BUFFALO, June 28.—A Liverpool corres hampionship meeting at Southport, a water, agplace on the Lancashire coast of the Irish ea, twenty miles northward, where New York city and its famous Manhattan athleti club in the persons of L. E. Myers, A. A. Jor dub in the persons of L. E. Myers, A. A. Jor dan and L. P. Smith met in a challenge to decide the championships of the English, Scotch and Irish picked athletes Saturday afternoon under the aubpices of the Amateur Athletic association. The sport was greeted by beautiful sunshine and light breezes. The track was sin capital condition. The proceedings began with a hundred yard race which Cowie, of the London Athletic club and gressat holder of the cup, wen easily. Smith of the Manhattan club was second, for which he receives a silver medal. Smith explained his defeat by saying that having enjoyed himself to much in Paris he was not in condition, but that under the circumstances he felt satisfied at getting second, place. The next event was a 120 yand hurdle race in which Jordan came second, a Cambridge university man winning. In the 440 yards race it looked at first as if Cowie, the helder of the cup of last year, would win, but Myers, looking and feeling remarkably well, ran as he liked and soon got ahead, when the crowds not relishing their favorite's defeat, cried themselves hoarse, "Come on, Cowie," but Myers laughing at the fin passed the post as the winner. The crowds magnanimously broke into hearty oheers at Myers taking the challenge cup, value 45 guineas, to keep until 1885. In addition he received a gold medal. This race was followed by a seven-mile walking match, but Meek, the holder of last year, having become a professional was absent. In the half-mile centest Myers ran against an only competitor — Wathen of this city. Myers, urrod by the crowd, ran strongly for exhibition, and won in 2 miss. I see. He received another challenge cup, value 45 guineas, with an additional gold medal. George, although entered for and holding the championships, falled to appear, he being lately entirely out of condition. lan and L. P. Smith met in a challenge to

A lacrosse match was played on Saturday afterneon on the exhibition grounds between the Eastern Stars and the Centennials. The match, which was a well contested one, fine play being shown on both sides, was won by the former club by three straight games in 2, 15 and 20 minutes respectively.

The bicycle race between Asa Dolph, champion of Ohio, H. M. Woodside, champion of Penasylvania, at Cleveland on Saturday resulted as follows: 1 mile—Dolph 1st. Brooks 2d. Woodside 3d; time 4.62 25. 5 miles—Dolph 1st. Brooks 2d. Woodside 3d; time 1.702. It was a very exciting contest.

Hanlan received a telegram from Teemer Saturday consenting to a postponement of two weeks. The first race of the five should now take place Aug. 22, but as new articles have to be signed, there is a possibility of the number being cut down to two or three for $1000 a side each instead of $500. The reduction would be a decidedly wise move, notwithstanding the fact that there is tremendous competition for the races from Lachine, Watkins' Glen, Pittsburg, Boston, Harlem (New York), Point of Pines, Saratogs, Buffalo, Detroit, and Charlotte (Rochester), with some talk even of Barrie and Toronto.

Charlotte (Rochester), with some talk even of Barrie and Toronto.

Well, it was a cold day, Saturday, at least everybody said so The World botook itself to the Rosedale grounds to see that its banker behaved himself, being afraid to face the issue at Jarvisstreet, and thoughtivery warm, while the games were in progress. When, however, it came to survey the results it found that it was kind of frigid even on the classic northern heights, for out of the fifteen events on the program Toronto only wan four. Bowmanville getting two, Orangeville two, Montreal three, St. Catharines two, Galt one, and Napanee one. Yes, it was a cold day.

Talk about doing things up to the nines, why the Australians absolutely forget nobody and nothing. Not only did they raise subscriptions after the Hanlan-Beach race for the principals, but the trainers were not forgotten. Within a week of the race 21/81 had been raised for Beach and £43 for Chas, Messenger, his trainer, while for Hanlan £551 15s 16d had been gathered in and £47 for his attendant. Eties C. the lake having been closed up by the action of the spring freshets during the past two or three years. Pike, silver bass and perch have almost disappeared from these waters and the lovers of squatic sports now resort to the Humber for recreation, much to the disadvantage of the residents in the eastern suburbs.

It is in contemplation to petition the city ceuncil with the view to having channels out through the eastern island in order to admit of a proper circulation of the water. The residents apprehend an epidemic of sickness in the fall unless some remedial measures are adopted, and they would thank the medical health officer to pay a visit of inspection at his earliest convenience.
