To Try for a 4-in-fland Record, Lawson S. Fuller of New York is pre paring to drive a team against the 4-inand record against time, 2.27, made by William H. Nobby, Mambrino Sparkle and Clemmie G at Cleveland, Sept. 17, 1886.
His leaders will be Dexter and Cricket and his wheelers Wilkes and Dexter V. All are by Fuller's Wilkes, a famous roadster, excepting Dexter V, who is by Dexter.

The Montrose Stud. Edmund Yates cables that Caroline Duchess of Montrose, has determined to break up her magnificent stud at Newmarket, and it is to be sold during the first week of May. The sale will be almost equal in interest to that of Lord Falmouth's stud ten years ago, seeing that the mares include such celebrities as Thebais, St. Marguerite, Pilgrimage, Jannette and Marie Stuart.

County. Mitchell also insisted on a change in the clause regarding the furnishing of gloves for the fight. The original articles provided for five ounce gloves to be furnished by Corbett. The Englishman insisted that the clause should be changed so as to read that the gloves should be furnished by "Corbett or Mitchell." Bowden yielded this point. Corbett objected to changing the clause relating to the gloves. Corbett claims that as champion he has the undoubted right to furnish the gloves and says that Bowden has been led into a trap by Mitchell by which the latter hopes to get out of fighting at the last moment by raising a dispute about the gloves.
