A TORONTO MERCHANT'S WILL.

ander Mortimer Smith's Estate of Two Hundred Thousand Bollars. Late Mr. A. M. Smith, who died Jan. 19, left an estate the total value of which is $211,780. This consists of: Realty, $101,200; household furniture, goods and chattels, $3000; cash in bank, $429; stocks in various companies, $91;-227; business interest in the firm of Smith & Keighley, merchants, $15,500; smaler sums. $375.

smith & Reignley, merchants, $15,000; smaler sums, $375.

The will is dated April 7, 1894, and the trustees of the esstate are Jamess A. Proctor, barrister; Robert Davy Perry and Charles Peter (Toronto Biscuit Co.), all of this city.

Bequests to Toronto Charities.

The testator leaves $1000 each to the Girls' Home, the Boys' Home and the Home for Incurables. To the Sick Children's Hospital he bequeaths $2000.

To his wife the testator bequeathed all his household furniture, chattels, horses and carriages- and pesonal effects at his late residence, Pembroke and Gerrard-streets, absolutely. He also gives her the right to reside in and occupy the residence.

her the right to reside in and occupy the residence.

In addition she is to receive an annuity of $4000 a year, chargeable in the first instance on his stores and warehouses, 7, 9, 11 Front-street east:

These bequests are expressed to be in lieu of dower or "one-thirds."

The testator bequeaths $5000 to his sister, Elizabeth Barnes of Enniskillen, Ont. Also $4000 to be invested for the benefit of Elizabeth Sutherland, who was no relative of the deceased, but who had been befriended by Mr. and Mrs. Smith, with whom she had for long resided.

Further, $2000 are bequeathed to Ann Marshall, wife of George Marshall of London, Ont. Mrs. Marshall is sister of Elizabeth Sutherland.

Other Bequests.

Other Bequests.
will provides that 100 shares Car The will provides that 100 shares Canada Permanent stock, 50 shares Ontario Bank stock, 100 shares Western Assurace stock, be given to tastator's niece, Minnie Barnes; to his nephew, William Barnes, 50 shares Canada Permanent stock; to George Barnes, nephew, 100 shares of 20 per cent. paid-up Canada Permanent stock; and the same amount to his third nephew, Robert Smith of Notawasaga.

William Smith, no relative, but an old friend, of Aberdeen, Sciotland, is to receive $5000, and in case of his death before the legacy be paid it is to go to his wife and children in equal parts.

After making provision for all these charges and the payment of all debts, the residue of the estate is to be divided into six equal portions and paid to Mary Perry, sister of Robert D. Perry, Toronto; Minnie Barnes and the four children of his late niece, Barbara Perry.

On the decease of Mrs. A. M. Smith, the balance of the estate which had been set apart for her benefit is to be disposed of equally for the benefit of the six persons last mentioned.

The executors have full power to deal with the estate and to wind it up in the interests of all concerned.

Lawyer Nesbitt Answers Ex-Ald. Gowan-lock. With regard to Ald. Gowanlock's request that the boodling investigation should be reopened, Mr. Nesbitt says he does not intend to put the citizens to any further expense unless he receives some definite information that will warrant the expenditure. If Mr. Gowanlock knows anything that it would be in the public interest to have brought in the public interest to have brought out and will give his facts, Mr. Nesbitt will be prepared to act on that if in the lawyer's judgment it is wise to do

It is Mr. Nesbitt's intention to leave

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST-SUPPER. BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a therough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well solected Cocca, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately that orce beverage which may save us many heavy doctors bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be geadually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly neur ished frame.—Civil Service Gazette.
