THIN-BLOODED

MEN AND WOMEN Need the Rich, Red Blood Dr.

Williams' Pink Pills Actually

Thin blooded people do not remain so from choice, but from indifference; in from choice, but from indifference; in some cases from despair. People who are pale, languid, with palpitation of the heart, some difficulty in breathing and a tendency to be easily tired, are suffering from thin blood. They need only the resolution to take the right treatment and stick to it until cured. The remedy that can be relied upon is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. With every dose they make new blood, and new blood means health and strength. The red cheeks, good appetite, increasing weight and strength that follow the use of these Pills prove their great value to thin-blooded people. Here is an example. Mrs. R. Steele, Afton Road, P. E. I., says: "Following child-birth I took a pain in my head which grew so bad I had to call in a doctor. He told me that my blood had turned to water and that I was in a serious condition. He treated me four serious condition. He treated me four mouths, but still the pain remained, and my condition was growing pitiable. I lost my appetite, and was so weak and run-down that I could no more than walk across a room. I was as pale as a corpse, and the doctor told my friends he had but little hopes of mv getting better. A but little hopes of my getting better. A cousin who came to see me urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I sent and got a supply. In about a month after beginning their use I had much relief, and by the time I had taken six more boxes I was fully cured and felt as well as eyer I did in my life. I have never had a twinge of the pain since, and feel that I owe my life to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, as they cured me after the Pink Pills, as they cured me after the doctor had failed."

Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.,

The Late John Young Kincaid

The deceased, who was aged 64 years, 7 months and 19 days at the time of his death, which took place Wednesday, Feb. 11th, was one of the most highly esteemed citizens of Brooke township. His death was caused from an accident which occurred on Saturday, the 31st day of January, at his home.

It appears that he went to the barn to hitch up his horse and while in the act of opening his large barn door the wind caught it and threw him from the barn bridge to the ground below, a distance of about eight feet. He was so severely injured from the fall that he was unable to help himself and lay on the ground for a length of time before any person found him. The day was a very cold one and he was so benumbed with the cold that he contracted a severe cold. It was found that his injuries had caused paralysis which resulted in his death on Wednesday.

ing especially in the latter years of his life a beautiful faith and reliance on the goodness and love of God. His kindness of disposition, honorable and upright dealings won for him a most affectionate regard from friends and neighbors. He is survived by his wife, two sons, namely, Herbert, of Brooke, Frank of Fort William, and three daughters, Mrs. J. G. Burgess, of Petrolea, Mrs. Jacob Saunders, of Sutorville, and Mrs. R. H. Mason, of Burks Falls. Two brothers and two sisters also survive him: Thomas, of Croswell; John, of Brooke; Mrs. Wm. Watson, of Manitoba; and Mrs. James Ganey, of Fostoria, Mich. The funeral, which was very largely attended, took place at Mt. Carmel cemetery on Tuesday, February 10th, at 2 p. m., a short service being held at the house. The service was conducted by Rev. H. Currie, of Watford, assisted by Rev. S. V. R. Pentland, of Brooke. The pallbearers five nephews and a grändson.

Mrs. John Leacock Enters 100th Year

Wyoming, Feb. 16.—Mrs. John Leacock, of Watford, who is visiting with Mrs. M. Brooks, has just entered her 100th year and from present appearances is likely to celebrate many birthdays.

She is not only in excellent health but retains her mental shillies to a marked retains her mental abilities to a marked degree, recounting clearly and with evident enjoyment, happenings of long ago.

Born in Ireland of Scotch parents, her early years were spent in the old lands, living first in Scotland after her marriage and then in Ireland from where she sail-ed to America, landing in Quebec, Canaed to America, landing in Quebec, Canada, July 12, 1836.

The ocean voyage of 6½ weeks, followed by the stirring events of the Mackenzie rebellion, are fresh in her memory today, while the battle of Yonge street to her seems but of recent date.

Returning from Pittsburg, where her husband, in pursuit of his trade of shoemaker, had removed the family, they again came to Canada in 1852, settling in Brooke Townsnip, near Watford, on the farm owned by her youngest son at the present time.

Apart from a general feeling of weariness, Mrs. Leacock continues in excellent health, eating as heartily, she declares, as in her younger and more active days. Mrs. Leacock has for many years been a member of the Presbyterian church, Watford.

In addition to her large family of children, Mrs. Leacock has raised three

The High Cost of Living

At the present time possibly no other subject is receiving quire so much attention in Canada as this one. It will be a surprise to most readers to know that during the fiscal year which ended March 31st, 1913, Canada paid $11,500,000 in duty on food, and all of this large sum is virtually a direct ray on the consum is virtually a direct tax on the con sumer.

In glancing over the list it is easy to understand that the buying public are themselves largely to blame in many instances, for there are articles of food produced in Canada that are equal in produced in Canada that are equal in every respect to those made in any country in the world.

In the baking powder line alone there were 667,904 lbs, imported into Canada, and this means the consumer paid in duty the enormous sum of $67,000.

There are no better goods in the world in this line than magic baking powder, and it is made in a model sanitary up-to-date factory, and can be procured in any first-class store at one-half the price the imported article sells for.

Such articles as raisins, currants, and many other things, which do not grow in Canada, or are not produced here, have of necessity to be imported, and the duty paid.

Death of Mr. Edward Holbrook

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Edward Holbrook, which occurred at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. Jacob Saunders, of Sutoryille, at 4.15 a.m., Saturday, Feb. 7th, 1914, in his 77th year, and thereby removes one of Petrolea's highly respected citizens. Deceased was in his usual good health up to six days before he died. Mr. Holbrook's parents, who came from Ireland, settled near Ottawa, where their son Edward was born. When deceased was quite ship, Lambton County. In 1863 he was married to Miss Mary C. Kearney, of Brooke, and settled on the farm where his eldest son now resides. They set to work with great courage, resolution and industry to make for themselves a home in this new country, which, though sparsely settled, was in a primitive state. Their united efforts were crowned with success and their portion of the country was converted into one of the best equipped and most up-to-date farms in the township. In 1890 they moved to Petrolea where they have since resided. The deceased was a loyal and consistent member of the Methodist church, showing especially in the latter years of his life a beautiful faith and reliance on the goodness and love of God. His kindness of disposition, honorable and upright of the noted show bull Gainsford Marquis, champion over all comers, and probably the highest priced bull in Canada. I intend importing a number of Lincoln sheep this summer, and any parties having good long wooled Lincoln or Cotswold rams would do well to shear by April 1st and get in as good shear by April 1st, and get in as good condition as possible, as I am prepared to buy any number of good specimens, either registered or grade, but they must be shorn early and in good condition.
Any information cheerfully given. The motto at Chantry Farm "The best is none too good" is being lived up to. Yours truly, EDWARD H. de GEX.
