TORONTO. From Rev. D. Curry, Pea River, to Mrs. Banks.

"I received the bale and was much delighted with its contents. The quilts were so useful and also the Communion Set. My surplice was just perfection and fits well, and the stole was beautiful. I do not know who made it. Will you be kind enough to express my thanks for it. I found everything all right at the mission. The Roman Catholics tried very hard to steal my flock while I was away, they got none of our members, but one woman who does not belong to any had her child baptized over again, and now she thinks she belongs to both of us; it is very strange the notion they have of some things. Rev. Murdoch Johnston is here, at present, helping me, we have had about twelve admitted and expect fourteen more, this is enough to start a school with and I hardly know what the Bishop's ideas about it will be, but he will be back soon."
