

3. What did he think would be enough?

Seven times.

4. What did Jesus say?

Seventy times seven.

5. What did that mean?

That we are not to stop forgiving.

6. What did Jesus tell the disciples.

7. What did it teach?

That we must forgive as God forgives.

Jesus never turns away
From a child that seeks his face,
Leans to listen when we pray,
Meets us with his grace

Jesus calls each little child
To the shelter of his fold;
Keeps them nearest to his heart;
Loves with love untold.

LETTING JESUS KNOW.

Would you like to do something to show how dearly you love the Lord Jesus? I don't know what to tell you to do, for I do not know who there is near by whom you can help or love or be patient with for his sake. You see, I cannot tell either what daily task is apt to bring out the clouds on your face. I do not know of the something which may be making you very sorry; and which, little child that you are, you may bear bravely, trustingly, so honouring Jesus. If I did not know that there is some way for every child who reads this little message to show love for Jesus, I would not disappoint you by putting the thought into your heart. Jesus remembers the little things that we do for love of him.
