The "Hard Shell Baptists" are a well-known sect in the South and South-West. They are not related, that we know of, to the Hard Shell Democrats in New York, though their Christian name is the same.—They go dead against all Bible temperance, and education societies; hate missions to the heathen, and all modern schemes for converting the rest of mankind. Of course they are opposed to learning, and speak as they are moved. A Georgia correspondent relates the following of one of their preachers: "Two of them were in the same pulpit together. While one was preaching he happened to say, 'When Abraham built the Ark.' The one behind him strove to correct his blunder by saying out aloud, 'Abraham wan't there.' But the speaker pushed on, heedless of the interruption, and only took occasion shortly to repeat, still more decidedly, 'I say, when Abraham built the ark.' 'And I say,' cried out the other, 'Abraham warn't there.' The Hard Shell was too hard to be beaten down in this way, and addressing the people, exclaimed with indignation, 'I say Abraham was thar, or thar ABOUTS!'"
