

MARKET REPORTS

CANADA LUMBERMAN OFFICE,
TORONTO, 15th Nov., 1880.

There is no change to note in reference to stocks of lumber on hand in this city. Local trade is good. Building continues brisk. Carpenters' wages may be quoted at $1.50 per day. The Northern Railway made great efforts to bring in outstanding sawn stuff from Gravenhurst, &c., and has succeeded in clearing the yards there. The storm of the past week, which proved so disastrous on Lake Ontario, has disorganized shipping to the United States, for the time being, but as soon as vessels can come up, to the balance of the season's trade will be completed. Vessels for Oswego are still in demand at $1.50. Prices are keeping up in New York and Boston for hardwood. In the former city the supply of walnut is limited, and the better grades of wood are arriving slowly. The Lumberman's Gazette, Nov. 8, states unsettled weather has had a damaging effect on the lumber trade. Prices firm. Freights on lumber rising. Recent sales shipped by rail.
