

PLEASE CIRCULATE.]

THE
"Canadian Methodist Magazine"
FOR 1881.

"The Canadian Methodist Magazine (Wm. Briggs, Toronto) is exceedingly well edited, and is an honour to our Canadian friends."—New York Christian Advocate, Nov. 4, 1880.

TURKISH LADY.

The volumes for 1881 will be the best yet published. Among the features of special interest will be the following :

"JOTTINGS IN THE EAST,"

BY THE

Rev. D. G. Sutherland, B.D., LL.B.,

being an account of his recent visit to

GREECE, TURKEY, EGYPT and PALESTINE, with sketches of ATHENS, CONSTANTINOPLE, CAIRO, DAMASCUS and JERUSALEM.

The cut in the margin is a specimen of the handsome engravings with which these articles will be illustrated. These sketches of Eastern and Bible Lands will be of great value.

"VALERIA, THE MARTYR OF THE CATACOMBS,"

By the Rev. W. H. Withrow, M.A.,

Author of "The Catacombs of Rome, and their Testimony Relative to Primitive Christianity."

This is a story of intense interest, and recounts the trials and triumphs and bitter persecutions of the heroic Church of the Catacombs, and throws much light on early Christian life and character in Rome. The author has made the subject a special study for many years. The cut on the following page is a specimen of the handsome engravings with which the story will be illustrated.

"SUNSHINE AND STORM IN THE EAST"

will give an account of Mrs. Brassey's visit to Spain, Italy, and the recently acquired British possession of Cyprus, illustrated, by the author's special permission, by TWENTY-THREE fine engravings from her magnificent volume, which sells in England for $10.

SKETCHES OF TRAVEL AT HOME AND ABROAD :

Visit to Fingal's Cave, Climbing Mount Washington, Picturesque Canada, Voyage of the Polaris, etc., etc., will also be handsomely illustrated