TERMS FOR ADVERTISING.—Quarter page, $5 gold, or £1 1s. stg. ; Half page, $8 gold, or £1 11s. 6d. stg. ; Three Quarters Page, $12 gold, or £2 7s. 6d. stg. ; Whole page, $15 gold, or £3 stg.

PUBLISHERS will note that this Serial is the only Bibliographical Journal and trade medium in the Dominion ; and as it not only widely circulates throughout the Book Trade of the country, but also among the prominent professional men and book collectors of Canada, its value as a medium for trade advertisements is of the highest importance.

EDITIONS of each issue of THE CANADA BOOKSELLER, with imprint, may be had for local distribution by the Trade, at an advantageous rate.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS which have not been sent us for 1870, may be remitted with that of 1871, now due—$1.00 for both years. It is hoped that those receiving THE BOOKSELLER will attend to this.

A., S. & Co. have the pleasure to advise the Book Trade that they are now giving their exclusive personal attention to their having disposed of their Retail Business ; and they are now prepared to give all orders entrusted to them undivided attention, and a most thorough, prompt, and careful execution.

They are now receiving their AMERICAN and ENGLISH STOCK, in EDUCATIONAL and GENERAL LITERATURE, for the FALL TRADE ; and they would be glad to receive early notice of the Text Books and the special lines of stock the Trade may require for the autumn sales.

In standard and current Book Stock, English and American, and in all the departments of the Book and Stationery Business, a full complement of stock will always be found.

Catalogues in all branches of the Book Trade, and every information respecting Books, Editions, Prices, &c., promptly furnished.
