

the plate face each other, making the study of each plate easy. This work will prove a great help to its possessor in the making of a diagnosis of most of the forms of skin diseases. We can speak in very high praise of Morgan Dockrell's new atlas of skin diseases.

SAUNDERS' AMERICAN YEAR-BOOK OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY FOR 1905.

A yearly digest of Scientific Progress and Authoritative Opinion in all branches of Medicine and Surgery, drawn from journals, monographs, and textbooks of the leading American and foreign authors and investigators. Arranged, with critical editorial comments, by eminent American specialists, under the editorial charge of George M. Gould, A.M., M.D., in two volumes. Volume I, including General Medicine; Volume II, General Surgery. Two octavos of about 700 pages each, fully illustrated. Philadelphia and London: W. B. Saunders & Co., 1905. Per volume: Cloth, $3.00 net; half morocco, $3.75 net. J. A. Carveth & Co., Limited, 434 Yonge St., Toronto.

The 1905 issue of Saunders' American Year-Book of Medicine and Surgery fully maintains the pre-eminent position which it long ago established. Dr. Gould, the editor, has associated with him a staff of men of greatest ability, shown in the conscientious thoroughness with which each article is prepared. Here the practitioner has placed before him, and at a very moderate price, the cream of all the medical literature published during the past year, and in such a form that it is readily digestible. As a compendium of medical and surgical progress, it will prove invaluable; for the practitioner anxious to keep abreast of the advances in the subjects treated, it will be of the utmost assistance. The text, as usual contains a number of illustrations of practical value; there are also nine insert plates of much excellence.

ESSENTIALS OF THE PRACTICE OF MEDICINE.

Prepared especially for students of medicine. By William R. Williams, M.D., formerly Instructor in Medicine and Lecturer in Hygiene, Cornell University; Tutor in Therapeutics, Columbia University (College of Physicians and Surgeons), New York. 12mo of 461 pages. Philadelphia and London: W. B. Saunders & Co., 1905. Double number. Cloth, $1.75 net. J. A. Carveth & Co., Limited, 434 Yonge St., Toronto.

In this new volume in Saunders' Question-Compend Series the student is provided with a book of the utmost practical value. Throughout the work special stress has been laid on the more common aspects of the various diseases, emphasizing the contrasting points in similar conditions, so as to render differential diagnosis as easy as possible. Symptomatology and treatment have likewise been adequately, although concisely, considered. In fact, this little work is the best we have seen, and for students preparing for examination it will be a most welcome
