

course of the year articles from most of the leading and representative men of Canada and the United States, such as St. Francis, Montreal; Rev. Hugh Johnston, M.A., Metropolitan Church, Toronto; Hon. S. D. Hastings, of Wisconsin; Hon. J. B. Finch, of Nebraska; Hon. Neal Dow, Maine; Dr. Daniel Clarke, Rev. Jos. Wild, D.D., of Mercer Adam, of Toronto; Col. J. J. Hickman, of Kentucky, as well as many others.

In addition to the Bible competitions which are from time to time offered, the publisher also gives every week the following valuable prizes:—$20 in gold for the best selected or original Tid-Bit; a lady or gentleman's solid gold watch for the best Short Story, original or selected; $5.00 for the best original or selected Poem. This extraordinary liberality on the part of the publisher of TRUTH stands unique and unparalleled in the history of journalism on this continent.

WHAT YOU ARE SURE OF.

You are sure to get TRUTH for four months for the dollar sent, and that alone is well worth the money. You also have a good opportunity of securing one of the above costly rewards, as everything will positively be given as offered, so in any case the investment is a good one. Hundreds of letters are being sent by present readers assuring the publisher that they would not be without TRUTH for many times the subscription price. Address, S. FRANK WILSON, 33 & 35 Adelaide Street, Toronto, Canada.

Can Deafness be Cured?

Mr. John Clark, of Millbridge, Ont., declares it can, and that Haggard's Yellow Oil is the remedy that cured him. It is also a specific for all inflammation and pain.

Some of the latest dressing gowns are simple robes of muslin, Surah, or veiling, with elbow sleeves trimmed with wide lace ruffles, and lace to match in the neck.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are suited to every age. Being sugar-coated they are easy to take, and though mild and pleasant in action, are thorough and searching in effect. Their efficacy in all disorders of the stomach and bowels is certified to by eminent physicians, prominent clergymen, and many of our best citizens.

Tucked skirts, the tucks overlapping on the other, sometimes in clusters, graduated, seem to be taking the place of flounces.

A Great Mistake.

It is a great mistake to suppose that dyspepsia can't be cured, but must be endured, and life made gloomy and miserable thereby. Alexander Burns, of Cobourg, was cured after suffering fifteen years. Burdock Blood Bitters cured him.

Velvet and moire combined make a very rich frock, especially when tinsel passementeries to match the color of the dress are used as trimmings.

Mrs. Barnhart, cor. Pratt and Broadway, has been a sufferer for twelve years through rheumatism, and has tried every remedy she could hear of, but received no benefit until she tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil; she says she cannot express the satisfaction she feels at having her pain entirely removed and her rheumatism cured. There are base imitations of this medicine for sale; so that you get Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

A small bow of bright-colored ribbon placed a little on one side of the high collar, sometimes directly on top, is the latest caprice for the hair.

Furred tongue and impure breath are two concomitants of biliousness remedied by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Heartburn, which harasses the dyspeptic after meals, and all the perplexing and changeable symptoms of established indigestion, are dispensed by this salutary corrective tonic and celebrated blood purifier.

OUR NEW STORY.

Lovers of a tale of which thrilling situations, a well worked out plot and admirable descriptive passages form a part, will be gratified by the perusal of the story commenced in this number of TRUTH, entitled "In an Evil Moment," by Mr. Harry Blyth, editor of the Glasgow Chief, and another of a large number of stories which have been most flatteringly received on the other side of the Atlantic. The scene of "In an Evil Moment" is laid in New Zealand, descriptions of which country abound in the work, and cannot fail to prove most interesting. Advance sheets of this story have received most flattering press notices in England and Scotland, and we have great pleasure in publishing it for the first time in the pages of TRUTH, feeling confident that it will meet with that appreciation from our readers to which it is entitled.

Who Wants to Swap?

Attention is called to the "Exchange Department" of this journal, which must prove a most valuable medium for those having articles they wish to exchange in which to make known their wishes. Large numbers of our subscribers and others have already availed themselves of this department as a means of announcing their wants, and it is evidently a very popular one. Subscribers have the privilege of making use of the Exchange Department free, whilst of others the small fee of twenty-five cents is required for inserting each announcement.

Have you tried Holloway's Corn Cure? It has no equal for removing those troublesome excrescences, as many have testified who have tried it.
