CRONIN MYSTERY.

Further Proofs that Dr. Cronin Was Deliberately Assassinated.

CHICAGO, May 26th .- A free examination of the Carlson cottage was permitted yester-day. It presented a fearful sight, with blood bespattered floor and walls, and every indication of a terrible struggle. Arrangements for the Orenin tragedy were apparently begun as early as February 1st. At that date a person corresponding to the description of the man who rented the Carlson cottage hired rooms seress the street from Cronin's office. In one room was placed furniture similar to that found in the cottage. The furniture was removed about the date when the furniture was first brought to the cottage. The furniture included the trunk which has figured in the case. The purchaser had an extra heavy strap made for the trunk.

A DETECTIVE IMPLICATED.

A morning paper publishes a story which implicates a member of the Chicago police force in the taking off of Cronin. The officer in ling further investigation. The police claim question is Detective Daniel Coughlin. The paper says that on the morning of the day on tending to show that McGeehau was conwhich Oronin disappeared Coughlinengaged at corned in the assassination of Dr. Cronin is which crown disappeared by the man where common lived, a horse and buggy which he said a friend of his would call for that evening; that the man who rented it. Force is added to these revelations by the fact that Coughlin was a member of one or more societies to which Oronin be longed, and that they were enemies. The matter was finally brought to the attention of Chief of Police Hubbard, who seems inclined to take a serious view of it, and promises to probe it to the bottom.

Detective Coughlin has explained to before May 4th a stranger introduced himof the dead doctor. Coughlin is charged They act from the highest and noblest moself to Coughlin as Thos. Smith, of Hancook, Coughlin has not been arrested, but Chief of Police Hubbard says, pending further investigation, he will keep Coughlin under surveillance.

UNRAVELLING THE MYSTERY.

NEW YORK, May 27 .- A Chloago despatch to the Sun says :- The police have been put in possession of startling facts concerning Dr. Cronin's murder. It has been clearly shown by the dead man's friends that his removal was ordered by a committee represent ing the Cian-na-Gael society. Charges of traitorous conduct were preferred against him at a meeting of the Clan-na-Gael camp. He was found guilty and his death was or-the public has almost forgotten him. But he dered. These men are determined that the murderous censpiracy shall be fully exposed and that the man that hatched the plot as well as those who committed the actual murder shall be brought to justice. It is asserted that the murderous conspiracy would not have ended with Dr. Oronin's death had not his mutilated body been found. There were other Irishmen on the condemned list, and they would all have shared Cronin's fate had the chance to dispose of them safely arisen. It is asserted that W. J. Hynes, the well-known attorney, Father Gleason, Capt. P. O'Connor, John Devoy and two others had been tried convicted and their death sentence signed.

KING ARRESTED.

EXPECTED TO BE MURDERED.

Pullabelphia, May 27 .-- Michael J. Ryan lest night, at the Irish American Club, exbiblied a remarkable circular which Dr. Oronia sent to a prominent member of the Clan-na-Gael in this city eight months ago, in which he prophesied that he might be killed. The circular was intended as a defence that his friend could use. In it Cronin mentions the names of nearly all those who have become prominent recently in connection with his murder. The circular closes with a sketch of his life.

A SUSPECT ARBESTED.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 27 .- The Record says Peter McGeehan, who mysteriously disappeared from this city three weeks ago, and was next heard of in Chicago, where, it is alleged, he threatened the life of Dr. Croniu, was arrested there yesterday. The arrest of McGeehan is thought to foreshadow other arrests.

COUGHLIN CHARGED WITH THE MURDER.

CHICAGO, May 27 .- Detective Whales, who scoompanied Detective Coughlin in his search for the man Smith from Houghton, Mich., for whom Coughlin bired a white horse on May 4, has been suspended from duty pendthat the chain of circumstantial evidence he was arrested. T. T. Conklin informed the people he was going to remove Cronin. Harry Jordan, a man who came from Philadelphia some time ago and who is said to have been an intimate friend of McGeehan's, has been arrested to be held as a witness.

To night an examination by a justice was held at the police station where Detective Daniel Coughlin was confined. Later the magistrate ordered a commitment and Coughhe has received a telegram saying the Clanna-Gael of Philadelphia have sent him the man who hired the horse at Dinan's livery stable and drove Cronin to his door are so uncertain in their descriptions that his identification is very doubtful. Extraordinary efforts have been made it is said to extort s statement from Coughlin. It is asserted that Coughlin has not been allowed to see his ruffs story, was released to-day. It is announced that the police believe King is all Geehan, who has been arrested, was not the man. Capt. Schaack and Lieut. Wing confered for several hours this afternoon, Capt. Schaack afterwards announced that the nolice had P. O'Sullivan, the iceman, under arrest, O'Sullivan was at the conference for a few minutes. Detectives and Justice Mahoney, who introduced O'Sullivan to Cronin, were examined at the conference,

THE FORGERIES COMMISSION.

This action of the Parnellites resulted in creating a feeling of columness in public opinion. The Prince of Wales was allowed to pass throughout Ireland untroubled until the Times published articles declaring that his visit had crushed the power of Mr. Parnell. It was then thought desperately necessary to show Englishmen that this was a mistake and that the Prince's visit was being used
