

Australia and New Zealand

Every effort is being put forth to foster and increase trade between Canada and Australasia. The correspondents of this Bank include the principal banks of both Australia and New Zealand, and on the Pacific coast of both Canada and the United States it has branches in all the principal sea-ports. With many years' experience gained in transacting a foreign business, its services are at the disposal of Canadian exporters and importers.

LONDON

LONDON, the heart of the Empire, is the centre of the financial world. All roads, all sea-lanes lead to that mighty city of distribution, of import and export, of bankers and financiers.

It is inevitable that Canadians having commercial relations overseas, require banking facilities linked up with Canadian finance. The Union Bank of Canada has two branches in London—at 6 Princes St., E.C., and at 26 Haymarket St., W.

Officers at all our 400 branches will gladly advise on the transaction of overseas business.
