

cil, to approve thereof, and of the rules and regulations set forth therein, in the words following, videlicet :—

I. That, any former usage or practice of her majesty's privy council notwithstanding, an appellant who shall succeed in obtaining a reversal or material alteration of any judgment, decree or order appealed from, shall be entitled to recover the costs of the appeal from the respondent, except in cases in which the lords of the judicial committee may think fit otherwise to direct.

II. That the registrar or other proper officer having the custody of records in any Court or special jurisdiction from which an appeal is brought to her majesty in council be directed to send by post, with all possible despatch, one certified copy of the transcript record in each cause to the registrar of her majesty's privy council, Whitehall ; and that all such transcripts be registered in the privy council office, with the date of their arrival, the names of the parties, and the date of the sentence appealed from ; and that such transcript be accompanied by a correct and complete index of all the papers, documents, and exhibits in the cause ; and that the registrar of the Court appealed from, or other proper officer of such Court, be directed to omit from such transcript all merely formal documents, provided such omission be stated and certified in the said index of papers ; and that especial care be taken not to allow any document to be set forth more than once in such transcript ; and that no other certified copies of the record be transmitted to agents in England by or on behalf of the parties in the suit ; and that the fees and expenses incurred and paid for the preparation of such transcript be stated and certified upon it by the registrar or other officer preparing the same.

III. That when the record of proceedings or evidence in the cause appealed has been printed or partly printed abroad, the registrar or other proper officer of the Court from which the appeal is brought shall be bound to send home the same in a printed form either wholly or so far as the same may have been printed, and that he do certify the same to be
