

- (12) For any years in which Canada's Entitlement to downstream power benefits is sold to Columbia Storage Power Exchange, the United States Entity may decide the amount of the downstream power benefits for purposes connected with the disposition thereof in the United States of America. This authorization, however, shall neither affect the rights or relieve the obligations of the Canadian and United States Entities relating to joint activities under the provisions of Article XIV and Annexes A and B of the Treaty, provided for in the Canadian Entitlement Purchase Agreement or pursuant to paragraph (9) hereof or to determination of the power benefits to which Canada is entitled.
- (13) Any power delivered by the Canadian Entity or by Canada in accordance with the Canadian Entitlement Purchase Agreement or this Note shall be delivered at points of interconnection on the Canadian-United States border mutually acceptable to/entities. Appropriate adjustments shall be made to reflect transmission costs and transmission losses in the United States of America.
- (14) Any dispute arising under the Canadian Entitlement Purchase Agreement, including, but without limitation, a dispute whether any event requiring compensation has occurred, the amount of compensation due or the amount of any over-delivery of power is agreed to be a difference under the Treaty to be settled in accordance with the provisions of Article XVI of the Treaty, and the parties to the Canadian Entitlement Purchase Agreement may avail themselves of the jurisdiction hereby conferred.

The Government of Canada therefore proposes that if agreeable to your Government this Note together with your reply thereto constitutes an agreement by our Governments relating to the Treaty with effect from the date of the exchange of instruments of ratification of the Treaty.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
