

S.O. 43

“essential to the national interest”; and whereas the production of chemical and biological weapons is abhorrent to mankind and, furthermore, banned by international treaty in 1925; I move, seconded by the hon. member for Saskatoon East (Mr. Ogle):

That this House direct the Government of Canada to protest to President Reagan this latest destabilizing move in the arms race and call upon both the U.S. and the Soviet Union to cease immediately production of and destroy all stockpiles of any such weapons.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

SOUTH AFRICA—COMMENTS MADE BY MEMBER FOR WINNIPEG
ASSINIBOINE—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Roland de Corneille (Eglinton-Lawrence): Madam Speaker, I rise under the provisions of Standing Order 43. Because members of this House cannot allow remarks by one of its members to go unchallenged when to do so could in any way appear to ignore or condone the evils of racism and discrimination, I therefore move, seconded by the hon. member for Scarborough Centre (Mr. Kelly):

That this House expresses its shock, dismay and condemnation of the views stated and reiterated by the hon. member for Winnipeg-Assiniboine to the effect that blacks in South Africa lack morals, breed at an irresponsible rate, can't keep up with whites intellectually and are still too primitive for self-rule, and that this House reaffirms our commitment to call for the abolition of racist laws and censorship in South Africa, and our determination to combat the dangers of prejudice and racism at home and abroad.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

TRADE

SALE OF CANDU REACTORS TO SOUTH KOREA—MOTION UNDER
S.O. 43

Mr. Bob Corbett (Fundy-Royal): Madam Speaker, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Athabasca (Mr. Shields):

That a major effort be mounted to negotiate in a serious way with our ally, South Korea, to establish a mutually satisfactory route for two-way trade which will ultimately lead to an agreement for the South Koreans to purchase additional Candu reactors, greatly boosting our ailing nuclear sector, and further pave the way for Canada's promotion as a leader in the field of exportable high technology.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE

MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Doug Lewis (Simcoe North): Madam Speaker, the performance of federal cabinet ministers on national television is important to the credibility of all hon. members of this House. Therefore I move, seconded by the hon. member for Prince Edward-Hastings (Mr. Ellis):

That if he ever appears on “Canada AM” again to debate the Ontario minister of education, the Secretary of State be better prepared, better rested, and have better figures in order to avoid the complete annihilation he suffered this morning.

Some hon. Members: Oh, oh!

Mr. Wilson: Stick to hockey!

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for the motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.

ROYAL CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE

RELEASE OF DOCUMENTS REQUESTED FOR DEFENCE OF MEMBERS—MOTION UNDER S.O. 43

Mr. Peter Elzinga (Pembina): Madam Speaker, in view of the fact that the Prime Minister (Mr. Trudeau) and his Liberal colleagues pressured the RCMP to get involved in probing separatism in Quebec by either legal or illegal means, even though the RCMP wanted nothing to do with it, and whereas it is becoming apparent that the Solicitor General (Mr. Kaplan) is refusing to release documentation, simply to cover up this Liberal government's illegal activities, I move, seconded by the hon. member for Athabasca (Mr. Shields):

That this House instruct the Solicitor General to release immediately the 33 documents the RCMP defence counsel has requested, which are essential for a fair trial of the 17 officers charged.

Madam Speaker: Is there unanimous consent for this motion?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

Some hon. Members: No.
