MEMPHIS MAULED OUR MAPLE LEAFS

Jimmy Mullen Cleaned Up Bases With a Double-Schwab Showed Nothing.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 9 .- The Leafs got a terrific walloping from the local Southern Leaguers here today. Merritt, a young southpaw, made the Internaa young southpaw, made the International League team look exceedingly cheap, only three hits being gained off his delivery, while the Finn outfit had no trouble finding Schwab in the first four innings. The youngster had nothing but his fingers on the ball at any stage, and was never effective. Gaw did better, but only on a couple of occasions did he extend himself. His side arm hooks were effective when he tried, but it was seldom that he cared to do so.

Schwab looked very poor while in the box, and it looks as if Kelley made a wise decision in consigning him to the Canadian League. Mullen played a big part in the defeat of his old team. He had three hits and cleaned up the bases with a double when he appeared in the first with three men on.

with a double when he appeared in the first with three men on.

The Southern League opens the season on Tuesday, and the local club looks almost like a pennant winner.

The Leafs with poor pitching and inability to hit, looked poor beside the locals Gaw has not extended himself since he reported, and is the mystery of the club. They are all wondering what he really has. He showed them on a couple of occasions today when he let lose a nasty looking side arm hook that had the Memphis crowd guessing.

From a hitting standpoint the Leafs look very weak. Schultz was up as a pinch hitter for Schwab, but was an easy out. Down here he is well thought of. In the Cotton States League he played a good third and hit well. With Toronto so far he has failed in both respects.

The score:

Shanley, ss. Mullen, 2b. Dunkel, 1b.

Memphis ... 5 1 0 3 2 0 0 0 1—12 Innings pitched—Schwab 4, Gaw 5. Runs—Off Schwab 9, off Gaw 3. Hits— Off Schwab 9. off Gaw 3. Stolen bases— Memphis 2. Struck out—By Schwab 1, by Gaw 3, by Merritt 6. HOT CONTEST FOR LACROSSE OFFICERS

O.A.L.A. Convention Meets This Morning in Victoria Hall—The Delegates.

It is many years since the lacrosse delegates have shown so much enthusiasm over the annual Good Friday convention and the great national game promises to come into its own again. Secretary Frank Doyle of the O.A.L.A. was a busy man at the Iroquois Hotel last night, extending the glad hand, receiving fees and giving out credentials. Over a hundred delegates were on the job, and fanning bees were found in every corner. It is expected that over two hundred delegates will attend the annual convention in Victoria Hall, which opens at 10 o'clock this morning, and when the entries are counted up over a hundred teams will make up the bill. Nine new clubs paid fees last night and at least three new districts are assured. The east will have two of these, made up of the following towns: Peterboro, Marmora. Tweed, Campbellford, Hastings and Havelock. The far north is taking the game in earnest and a new district of Copper Cliff, Sudbury, North Bay and Mattawa is assured.

Toronto will be represented in the association with at least fourteen clubs, as follows: Young Torontos in the senior; Maitlands, senior, junior and juvenile; Lansdownes, intermediate and junior; St. Simons, intermediate: Beaches, intermediate and junior; St. Helens, junior and juvenile: Eims, junior; C.G.E., junior; and it is expected that the Robert Simpson Co. will have an intermediate team.

New Clubs.

All of last year's teams will have delegates at the meeting, while several of those, present last night intimated that all the teams througt Ontario have the fever, and that lacrosse clubs are springing up like weeds.

The new clubs to date are: Peterboro, Campbellford, Hastings, Marmora, Gravenhurst, Tweed Copper Cliff, Beaches (Toronto) and Havelock. Several of the northern town delegates will arrive this morning and some surprises may be the order.

There promises to be a lively fight for the offices when the convention gets northern town detegates may be the order.

There promises to be a lively fight for the offices when the convention gets down to balloting, with the hottest argument for positions on the council. Ten councillors are to be elected and every candidate has backing in some quarters. Percy Lancaster of Havelock is sure to land a place. It was thru Lancaster's good work that the new clubs in the east were lined up, and he should be remembered. A. A. Smith of Orangeville is another popular candidate, while E. H. Johnston of London, the champion of school lacrosse, has considerable backing. Dr. McGibbon of Bracebridge and Jimmy Stevenson of Toronto will contest for the president's chair. Jimmy Stevenson is very popular locally and has plenty of support outside the city. It will be a great fight, with the Toronto man standing a good chance to land the chair. Woody Teggart of Toronto, W. H. Merklinger of Hanover and Joe Hewitt of Guelph will supply the fight for second vice-president.

Likely Amendments.

The big topic last night was the amendments and the delegates were of the opinion that Bert Brown's amendment to cut the players to ten men in the intermediate junior and juyenile series ments and the delegates were of the opinion that Bert Brown's amendment to cut the players to ten men in the intermediate, junior and juvenile series would carry hands down. Frank Doyle's little item to have two officials handle senior games looks like a winner, and is one of the best reforms before the convention. It will eliminate the rough stuff. J. M. Cameron of St. Kitts wants the convention to pass his amendment to allow players to be changed during the game as follows: Senior and intermediate, 3 during a game; junior and juvenile, 5 during the play. It will have strong support. These are three of the most popular reforms, and it looks as if they will get the vote.

It will be the liveliest convention of recent years, and will have all the men that have made the game famous present. A few of those expected to help make the proceedings savor of the good old days are: Dr. Rose, Toronto; John F. Lennox, Toronto, T. Herbert Lennox, M. L.A., Aurora; Col. J. J. Craig, M.P., Fergus; J. C. Miller, Orillia; Chas. McEwan, M.L.A., Orangeville; J. M. Kearns, Arthur; J. J. Kelly, Brantford, and Tom F. Doyle, Newmarket.
