AMERICAN LEAGUE PROBLEMS UNSOLVED

Will Not Buy Yankees-The Business Left Over.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.-The American Leaguers, in winding up their annual convention today, left unsolved the two most aportant problems supposed to be on-important problems supposed to be an the program. The question of peace with the Federal League appeared no nearer solved, and no change in ownership or in the list of stockholders in the New York club was announced.

Regarding the latter point it was given out that no formal discussion of it had taken place. But it was noted that while most of the magnates caught early trains for their homes tonight, Frank Farrell of the New York club and James Lennin of the Boston club, Farrell's leading supporter, stayed over, saying they would start back east tomorrow. A shake-up in the membership of the New York club was considered advisable by some of the magnates as a preliminary to an attempt to strengthen the team in the metropolis. Only a pretty definite statement that the Wards, owners of the Brooklyn Federals, would not buy into the New York Americans was announced on the Federal situation. Everybody admitted that terms on which peace could be reached would not be possible until after long negotiations.

The club owners decided to erect a College on which peace could be reached would not be possible until after long negotiations.

The club owners decided to erect a monument over the grave of Umpire Jack Sheridan, whose death occurred this week at San Jose, Cal.

Charles Somers of the Cleveland club was re-elected vice-president of the league without opposition, and the board of directors for the ensuing year will include representatives of the Chicago, Cleveland. New York and Boston clubs.

Most of the owners declared themselves in favor of a reduction in the number of players carried. They agreed that twenty was a more convenient number than twenty-five, but definite action was deferred until the spring meeting, and meantime, the National League will be consulted on the plan.

Reduction in the price of seats at world's series games also found unanimous support and the magnates agreed that the prices charged should exceed the price of general by only a small margin, if at all.

Roger Bresnahan this afternoon con-at all.

Roger Bresnahan this afternoon conferred for a long time with Charles Thomas, president of the Chicago Nationals, and it was reported, the neither would confirm it, that the catcher had agreed to stay with the Cubs. Whether he would succeed O'Day as manager could only be guessed at.

A number of minor league leaders stayed over to leave for Omaha Sunday night to attend National Minor League meeting. It was announced that President Comiskey of the Chicago Americans probably would attend the meeting.
