

it even in the power of the Chief Judge to compel him, or that the Chief Judge could interfere in the matter any more than himself without the authority he mentioned; although he must admit he said that the matter might come before the Court of Kings Bench by presentment of the Grand Jury.

In reply to the Attorney General he was told, that the complaint was a public grievance being an abuse of his Majesty's commission in contempt of the law which should preserve the tranquillity of all his Majesty's subjects; and that the said Judges should be proceeded against on indictment therefore.

Your Memorialist is still suffering under confinement in the common Jail as hath been already set forth for want of being allowed the benefit of his Majesty's remedial writ of Habeas Corpus as was prayed for in his said Memorials of the 16th and 23d ultimo on his giving bail for his appearance at the first ensuing Court of Kings Bench, in order to have strict justice in the premises according to law determined by his country; which prayer he humbly now again reiterates and by your Honors acquiescence your Memorialist will ever be in duty bound to pray, &c. &c.
