

In case an animal is impounded, notices for the sale thereof shall be given by the Poundkeeper or person who impounded the animal within fortyeight hours afterwards, but no swine or pig shall be sold till after four clear days, nor any horse, or other cattle till after eight clear days from the time of impounding the same.

The notices of sale may be written or printed, and shall be affixed and continued for three clear successive days, in three public places in the Municipality, and shall specify the time and place at which the animal shall be sold, if not sooner replevied or redeemed by the owner, or some one in his behalf, paying the penalty (if any) claimed for damage decided to have been committed by the animal to the property of the person who made the distraint, together with the lawful fees and charges of the pound-keeper, and also of the fence-viewers, (if any) and the expenses of the animals keeping.

Every Pound-keeper, and every person who impounds, or confines, or causes to be impounded or confined, any animal in the common pound, or in any open or close pound, or in any enclosed place, shall duly furnish the animal with good and sufficient food, water and shelter. during the time that such animal continues impounded or confined.

Every such person who furnishes the animal with food, water and shelter, may recover the value thereof from the owner of the animal, and also a reasonable allowance for his time, trouble and attendance in the premises.

The value or allowance as aforesaid may be recovered with costs by summary proceedings before any Justice of the Peace within whose jurisdiction the animal was impounded, in like manner as fines, penalties or forfeitures for the breach of any by-law of the Municipality may be recovered, and enforced by a single Justice of the Peace; and the Justice shall ascertain and determine the amount of such value and allowance when not otherwise fixed by law, adhering as far as possible to the tariff of pound-keeper's fees and charges established by the by-laws of the Municipality.