

ality, shall be liable for any damage done by such animal, although the fence enclosing the premises was not of the height required by such regulations.

8. If not previously replevied, the Pound-keeper shall impound any horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig or other cattle, geese or any other poultry, distrained for unlawfully running at large, or for trespassing and doing damage, delivered to him for that purpose by any person resident within the Township who has distrained the same; or if the owner of any geese or other poultry refuses or neglects to prevent the same from trespassing on his neighbours' premises after a notice in writing has been served upon him of their trespass, then the owner of such poultry may be brought before any Justice of the Peace, and fined such sum as the Justice may direct.

9. The owner of any animal impounded shall at any time be entitled to his animal, on demand made therefor, without payment of any poundage fees, on giving satisfactory security to the Pound-keeper for all costs, damages and poundage fees that may be established against him, but the person distraining and impounding the animal shall, at the time of such impounding, deposit poundage fees, if such be demanded, and within twenty-four hours thereafter, deliver to the Pound-keeper, duplicate statements in writing of his demands against the owner for damages, if any, not exceeding twenty dollars, done by such animal, exclusive of poundage fees; and shall also give his written agreement (with a surety if required by the Pound-keeper) in the form following, or in words to the same effect:

"I (or we, as the case may be) do hereby agree that I (or we) will pay to the owner of the (describing the animal) by me A. B. this day impounded, all costs to which the said owner may be put in case the distress by me the said A. B. proves to be illegal, or in case the claim for damages now put in by me the said A. B. fails to be established."

10. In case the animal distrained is a horse, bull, ox, cow, sheep, goat, pig or other cattle, and if the same is distrained by a resident of the Township for straying within his premises, such person, instead of delivering the animal to a Pound-keeper, may retain the animal in his own possession, provided he makes no claim for damages done by the animal, and duly gives the notices hereinafter in that case required of him.
