

Adjournments.

2. At all such meetings of this Council as soon after the hour appointed for the meeting as there shall be a quorum present, the Warden shall take the chair and call the Council to order; should there not be a quorum present at the expiration of half an hour after the time appointed for meeting, the Warden may adjourn and name the next time of meeting, entering at the time the names of all members present.

Adjournments in all other cases shall be by motion, naming the time for next meeting.

Roll call.

3. At every Meeting immediately after the chair is taken, the roll of members shall be called and the Clerk shall read over the Minutes of the next previous meeting, when errors, if any exist, shall be corrected, and the Warden shall then sign the Minutes.

Who to preside.

4. It shall be the duty of the Warden to preside at all the meetings of the Council, to preserve order and decorum and to decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Council, stating the rule or practice on which his decision is founded.

Warden not to debate.

5. The Warden shall not take part in debate except in Committee, but in case of a tie he may state facts and give his reasons for voting.

6. The Warden shall be ex officio a member of all committees of the Council.

Chairman in absence of Warden.

7. In the absence of the Warden, the Clerk shall call the Council to order until a chairman be chosen, who shall preside, subject to the same rules as are applicable to the Warden.

Debates.

8. Every member before beginning to speak shall rise from his seat and address himself to the question or motion under discussion, shall avoid all personalities and improper language and shall sit down as soon as he has done speaking.
