Light, trim, neat and invisible, easy to put on and never loosening or coming off till taken off, the "Everstick" is perfect.

ITALIAN LABORERS SCARCE.

Employment Agency Can Find Places for Many.

For the first time in many years there is a scarcity of Italian laborers in Ontario. In spite of the countless numbers which the citizens notice around the streets of the city, few of them are without work. So few, indeed, that not two score of unemployed Italian workmen can be found in the vicinity of the city.

"I have orders here for three hundred men and cannot fill them," said Peter Dini yesterday. He is one of the Dini Bros., member of the Italian Knights of Labor Society. It is practically a government institution, and one which is all powerful in the countries to which the sons of Italy immigrate, and the charges made by these employment bureaus, for that is the style of work done by the Knights of Labor, are purely nominal. The Italian government sees that the members of the society do not go behind on the year. Further than that it is not a government institution.

Mr. Dini explains the scarcity in the following manner. During the past few years large numbers of Italians have gone home and reported that this is not the land of promise, but merely a good field for laborers. This notice has had its due effect on the immigrants. The season, too, is very far advanced for any great number to start from Italy to come to this country, which is reported to be the land of ice and snow.

"I have not a batch of men in sight," said Mr. Dini yesterday. "There is so much railway building going on at the present time that it has taken all the men at my disposal. The G.T.R. want fifty men for Mimico and another fifty to shovel coal at York. These orders I cannot fill, and there is practically nothing for it but to wait for the men to come in. The railway construction gangs I understand will work all winter, especially on the lines near Toronto."

U. S. DISTANCED IN RACE FOR SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE

New York, Oct. 27.—"The United States is facing a critical epoch. The next five years will determine whether this country or Europe is to be the dominant force in South America. Germany, England, France, Spain, even Holland, and Belgium, are making tremendous efforts to capture the Latin-American market. Unless we change our attitude quickly we shall wake up to find that we have been distanced in the race."

John Barrett, U. S. minister to Colombia, who is now in this city, spoke thus at a reception given in his honor by the Ibero-American Club last night.

Chileans Seize Vessel.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—The Kosmos steamer Neko, which arrived yesterday from the south, brought the report that the German ship Steinbeck had been appropriated by the Chileans, after she had been abandoned by her crew.

PATRICK'S HOPES BLASTED.

State Court of Appeals Denies Motion for Re-Argument.

Albany, N.Y., Oct. 27.—The court of appeals this afternoon denied the motion for a re-argument of the appeal of Albert T. Patrick from conviction of murder in the first degree, and sentence of death for the killing in 1900 of William M. Rice, an aged millionaire of New York City.

The motion now denied was made Oct. 2 by former United States Senator David B. Hill, when he raised the point of the propriety of Judge Gray of the court of appeals sitting in the case, in view of the fact that Judge Gray's son had participated as assistant district attorney in the prosecution of Patrick.

This decision apparently deprives Patrick of his last hope of interference, as far as the courts of this state are concerned, with the execution of the death sentence first passed upon him in March, 1902. The court of appeals, within a few days, will assign a new date for the execution of the original sentence.

Whether Senator Hill will attempt to, or can, carry the case to the United States courts on appeal remains to be seen. Failing that, Patrick's only hope would lie with executive clemency at the hands of Governor Higgins.

ROWDYISM AT LITTLE YORK.

Editor World: Can the vaunted civilization of the Anglo-Saxons be but a veneer and does the same spirit which we execrate in Bashi Bazooks, Cossacks, and Turks, permeate our boasted citizen soldiery? Certainly the exhibition made by companies C and D of the Highlanders in our village to-day fell little short of what we might expect of the former, and the officers could only hang their heads in shameful impotence. For wanton cruelty to animals, raiding of bar-rooms, and private property hereafter commend me to our "kilted rowdies," and may we ask what their officers are made of? Pardon the shattered pride of a veteran, and give this the publicity the occasion calls for, or send out your own representative. The Gows are not all out of jail.

CHILDREN IN FACTORIES.

Editor World: Two news items on the front page of Thanksgiving Day's issue of The World suggest a field which you ought to turn your searchlight upon: (1) Boy of 15 killed in knitting factory, where he was "employed." Why wasn't he at school? (2) Hamilton "girl's" scalp torn off in factory. Doctor says skin for grafting should be taken from "children" of same age. Why was this "child" allowed to work in a factory? Don't you think there are thousands of little lives being ground down to early graves by the system that allows this? This is a bigger issue than even round robins, third parties, insurance scandals, civic investigations, etc.

ROOSEVELT IN COLLISION.

Steamer Conveying President to Warship Was Beached.

United States flagship West Virginia, via New Orleans, Oct. 27.—(By wireless.)—At 11 o'clock last evening, thru confusion of signals, the fruit steamer Esparta collided with the lighthouse tender Magnolia, which was conveying the president, Secretary Loeb and Dr. Rixy to the cruiser West Virginia. The rail and port bow of the Magnolia were damages and two or three holes made in the hull below the water line. No one was hurt. The Magnolia, immediately on being struck, was beached, her bow being high and dry. After a careful examination of the damage to the vessel it was evident that there was no danger and the president and his party went to bed.

Major Craighill of the United States Engineers was aboard the Magnolia. His ship, the Ivy, a sister ship of the Magnolia, had preceded the Magnolia, and was some distance ahead. A boat was immediately put off for the nearest telephone, about a mile and a half away, and the order given to head the Ivy off at Pilot station and have her return for the president and his party. The transfer was made at 3 o'clock this morning. The vessel got under way immediately and the West Virginia was boarded on schedule time.

THE ROCKWOOD VERDICT.

Editor World: It was with feelings of disgust and contempt that I read the remarks of R. J. Fleming respecting the verdict given by the jury in the Rockwood case by thirteen men sworn to do their duty, i.e., "a play to the galleries." Verily, when this man speaketh, the winds must cease and the asses' ears be still. Are you aware sir, that by his own evidence the rails are too light? They should be 90 pounds instead of what they are. Are you also aware, sir, that one of his witnesses swore that Rockwood was struck 50 feet north of Queen-street on McCaul-street? Needless to say, this man's evidence was thrown out as utterly worthless. Are you also aware that another of his prominent witnesses swore that the tracks improved with age and wear and tear, and that they were better after ten, twelve, and, in some cases, tewnty-five years' wear, altho the traffic is increasing all the time? The one irredeemable feature stands out bold and clear, that poor Rockwood was struck and run down at a point between the two south rails on Queen-street, where he should have been absolutely safe, and it was shown clearly that the motorman was doing all he could to stop the car, but it continued on its course until stopped by the stone curb at the south side of Queen-street. Are you aware, sir, that the street car service has never been in a more unsatisfactory state, the cars never run at so great and dangerous a speed, never so many accidents occurring, and never have there been so many cars leaving the rails, and the convenience of the public treated with more contempt and less consideration?

Overloading Lake Craft.

Detroit, Oct. 27.—The Seamen's Union will take up the question of overloading, and will bring it before government officials. "Overloading this season has been the cause of a number of our members drowning like rats," says Local Agent Scanlon of the Seamen's Union. "The union will take up the matter and get up a large petition to the government, asking that the matter be taken up. The government ought to establish a load water-line."

Local Council of Women.

NO PRINCE OF ROYAL HOUSE FOR THE THRONE OF NORWAY

King Oscar Declines Offer to Prince of the House of Bernadotte.

Stockholm, Oct. 27.—King Oscar has definitely and formally declined the offer of the Norwegian throne to a prince of the house of Bernadotte, and in a letter to the president of the Storthing finally severs his connection with Norway. The letter follows:

"After having in the name of Sweden recognized Norway as a state completely separated from Sweden, I inform you of my decision to relinquish the crown of Norway which, notwithstanding all my good intentions, has given me in the course of years so many bitter cares. Moreover, I could no longer wear it to the benefit of the country now that the illegal decision of the Storthing has rendered illusory even the suspensive veto of the king. But I desire only the welfare of the country, and the nation towards which I have entained a sincere affection eversince my youth, and to the happiness of which it has always been my heart's desire to contribute so long as the means to that end could be reconciled with the duties entailed by my position as king of both countries of the Scandinavian peninsula. In view of the turn the mutual relations between the two countries have taken I cannot think it would be conducive to the happiness of either Sweden or Norway that a prince of my house should accept an election to be King of Norway. Assuredly there would not fail to arise in both countries a feeling of distrust which would operate as much against him as against me. This distrust might only too easily become an obstacle to the improvement of the mutual sentiments of the two nations, unfortunately separated henceforth, whereby I hope to see pacific relations assured between them, in a not too distant future. I cannot, therefore, accept the Storthing's offer. I thank with all my heart those who, during my reign of 33 years, have faithfully served me and Norway, and who may even now entertain affection for their former king. In now bidding them farewell I cherish sincere good wishes for them."

PRINCE CHARLES WILL ACCEPT.

Paris, Oct. 27.—Information reaching the highest quarters here shows that definite arrangements have been made whereby Prince Charles of Denmark will accept the throne of Norway, following a plebiscite occurring Nov. 12. Prince Charles will leave Denmark to assume the royal functions immediately after the official notification of his election is conveyed to him.

MAYOR'S BRIDGE PROPOSAL.

To Advance One-Third of Cost and Then Go to Court.

Mayor Urquhart corrects the statement published in all the papers that he offered, on behalf of the city, to pay one-third of the cost of the Yonge-street bridge. The suggestion was made by Christopher Robinson, K.C., that the city advance one-third the cost of the bridge, and if subsequent litigation terminate in favor of the city the money will be returned. This action, he explains, was proposed in order to facilitate the work. The York-street bridge was constructed by the city and the C.P.R., and these parties subsequently inaugurated court proceedings against the Grand Trunk for its share of the cost. The matter has been in the courts for some years.

PRAISES OUR TROOPS.

Viscount Maitland Pleased With Thursday's Military Display.

Viscount Maitland, an official of the war office in London, and assistant director of auxiliary forces, and also colonel of the City of London Imperial Yeomanry, expressed his opinions of Thursday's review, when seen at the King Edward yesterday.

He declared that the Highlanders were a fine lot of men. But they are a little older than the regiments at home. The viscount also expressed his approval of the cavalry. If one had not known he was in Canada he would easily have taken the soldiers for British troops.

He suggested that an arrangement should be made between home and colonial governments by which a guaranteed number of horses could be supplied for British troops.

LIFE INSURANCE AND THE STATE.

Catholic Register: The trustees of the big insurance companies in the United States are completely on the defensive. Indeed unless they are keeping their side of the case in strict reserve, the indications are that they will be convicted of looting the estates of their policyholders. Investigation into the condition of life insurance must now become as widespread and thoro as possible. The further it is carried the more certain will the result of governmental protection for the future become. It is to be hoped that nothing will prevent this consummation.

Governments are slow to act in any radical direction without extraordinary cause that has aroused public feeling to a high pitch. Civil and criminal proceedings against the trustees and managers of the big New York companies are under consideration; and once steps of that kind have been taken government interference will be assured. Our Canadian companies are not placed under the fierce light of criticism possible in the United States today; but whether their management has or has not been infected by American methods the government of Canada cannot stand idly by and see the insurance business of this country conducted in the old ways whilst reforms are effected in the United States. Unless Canadian companies are kept abreast of modern public demands for full state guarantee, the American companies, after the present storm subsides, will have a new era both of activity and confidence opened out before them and will appeal to the Canadian people with the advantage that un-to-date legislation will bestow upon them.

FREE TO MEN

Until Robust Health, Strength and Vigor Is Regained.

Perfect Manhood. The man of courage, of strong heart, iron nerves, good health, self-confidence and undaunted energy. The embodiment of success, popular in every walk of life, respected and esteemed by all. Such is the manly man.

For forty years I have been making strong, vigorous men out of the puniest weaklings. A man comes to me weak, nervous, despondent and discouraged; with Drains, Losses, Impotency, Varicocele, Rheumatism, Lame Back, Kidney or Stomach Troubles. I give him my world-famed Dr. Sanden Electric Belt, with suspensory, absolutely free, to use for two months. Mind you, not one penny in advance or on deposit. A few nights' use convinces him that he has found the right remedy. It fills him with new life, joy, vigor, and strength, and at the end of the time he is only too glad to pay me for the Belt and to recommend it to his friends.

This is the way I cure men. This is the way thousands every year regain their lost strength, without the slightest risk to themselves, for if I fail it costs you nothing whatever. You pay me only when cured, and in many cases the cost is only $5.00; or, if you want to pay cash, full wholesale discount.

My great success has brought forth many imitations of my Belt, but my great knowledge, gained by forty years' experience, to guide and advise my patients, is mine alone, and is given freely with the Belt. Be sure you get the genuine.

Call to-day and take a Belt along. Or send for one and my two books on Electricity and its medical uses, which I send free, sealed, by mail.
