CONFIRMS FRIENDS' WORST FEARS
THAT "EMERALD" IS LOST

Theory is Advanced, That, With Sails Frozen, Sudden Gale Caused Her to Capsize.

Port Hope, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Capt. Woodcock of Toronto and two lifelong friends of Capt. McEwen, the missing schooner Emerald, came here today from Toronto and searched the shore near this town. About one mile east of Gull Light they found wreckage that they declare is part of the schooner. The shutter of a cabin window and the top of a provision box were positively identified as portions of the missing vessel. The two captains fear she has been lost with all on board.

ROSE FROM DRUNKEN SLEEP FOUND WIFE DEAD ON FLOOR

In Home of Squalor, Woman Died as She Lived, Neglectful and Neglected.

Coroner Powell says there is no necessity for an inquest. The woman died from natural causes. The dead woman is Mrs. Lawrence Vale, the wife of a shoemaker, who resides at 70 St. David-street. Had it not been for the charity, the kindly feeling towards his fellow men and benevolence of the Rev. Father Hand, of St. Paul's, the body would have been taken to the morgue. The Rev. Father generally, when he heard of the case, became responsible for the funeral expenses. The Vale, man and wife, have been living at 70 St. David-street, for some time. They have no family. Vale is 52 years of age, his wife was 30 years older. Both have been addicted to drink. The wife was found dead Sunday morning. Vale was very drunk Saturday night, so drunk that he did not remember what time he retired. He woke up some time during the night, but does not know the hour, went downstairs, and saw his wife lying under the table. He did not touch her nor move her, but went to bed again. When he awoke again, it was 9 o'clock. His wife was sitting in the same position. He did not touch her, but called in a neighbor. The woman was dead. She was partially dressed, no fire in the house, a pail of water near her. The water was cold. There was nothing in the house to eat. The woman had been ill for a week. She had no grippe, but a medical attendant said she was suffering from influenza. When the police took charge of the premises, they found a bottle for Vale, who was shivering and shaking like a man with the acute effects of his debauch. The woman is dead, and will be buried at the expense of the Rev. Father Hand. There were some empty whiskey flasks lying around, and some tracts, neither of which keep a house warm nor provide food.

LOSS OF THE MONTEREY.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 30.—The judgment of the Board of Trade enquiry into the loss of the Monterey finds that the master made no attempt to verify his position by the use of the log, and continued at full speed in a dense fog, although he knew he was outside of the track. His certificate has been suspended for six months.

WON'T BE RUSHED OUT.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 30.—The Daily Mail prints the Toronto Telegram's remarks regarding an English retail duty on Canada's bounty-free iron with the heading, "CANADIAN SARCASM."

NEW CANADIAN EXPLOSIVE.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 30.—The African Review says the Ripponite, the new explosive called after the Canadian inventor, is eight times more powerful than dynamite.

SHE'S WINSTON'S MOTHER.

PROGRAM OF LABOR PARTY.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 30.—The new Imperial Labor Federation party, which includes adult suffrage, payment of members of parliament, the abolition of the House of Lords, and a national working day, the municipalization of the drink traffic, of hospitals and industrial and the nationalization of lands, mines and railways.

TIBER VERY HIGH.

London, Nov. 30.—Violent storm and bad weather prevail all over Italy, and in some places great damage has been done. Naples is under water. The Tiber is very high and Turin and Milan are covered with snow.

"BARNACLES."

Frank T. Bullen, F.R.G.S., writes in The December Strand a captivating description of a big whale as it appeared when taken from the sea, and gives a lurid description of the "barnacles," which at this time, after The Globe's editorial, is particularly apropos. Bullen's references to the barnacles follow:

Another thing more noticeable about this gigantic whale than any other that I have ever seen was the number and mass of parasites with which he was laden. Hanging down from the lower jaw was a fringe of barnacles quite two feet in length, many of which had their bases actually planted between the teeth, as if they grew upon an inmate's mouth during his staying—for no time did he appear capable of making any vigorous exertion—this quaint beard of barnacles waving to and fro long and slender stems and the glistening white shells at their ends glittering in the water like jewels. And, hanging from the belly of the monster were barnacles, which, tho they were shorter, grew in large numbers, while in between them clung limpets, hummocky shells as large as a horse's hoof, and adhering so firmly that they appeared to be part of the creature himself. Here and there a remora, or sucker-fish, clung tenaciously to the universal host, and in other places these weakly growths such as you find upon the bottom of slowly-crawling ships, after a long passage. Among these things crabs darted busily to and fro and small white, many-legged things—like exasperated woodlice in shape—wandered. All this attendant world of life attached to one living animal, who, was, let it be remembered, fat with an abounding richness of blubber, but who looked like some Rip Van Winkle of the whale tribe that had thus been taken possession of and overgrown while sleeping away a generation or so in some cozy ocean cave.

Canada Against Joseph

Writes Edward Farrer

French-Canadians Want No New Imperialism and Others Balk on Armaments.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 29.—Edward Farrer, writing in the Contemporary Review, says the French Canadians are dead against the new imperialism, and 75 per cent. of the English-speaking Canadians will refuse to carry the burden of imperial armaments. He quotes Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Borden in support of the view that both political parties in Canada are not satisfied with the preference to Canadian wheat, but in almost every line affected by the international preference Canada does a bigger trade with the city of Buffalo than with South Africa and Australia combined. The theory of new imperialism is an unsafe doctrine, for once a colony always a colony. Canada is American now, and after the coming elections in the United States, New England and Minnesota will force the Republic to give better commercial terms to Canada. He says: "Canada's destiny is indecisive. We are satisfied with the present existing British connection, but we are not going to let the new imperialism to degrade us nor break the faith and traditions of the New World to serve us as mercenaries in the Old."

GIVEN TILL TUESDAY.

Dominion Coal and Steel Workers Demand an Ultimatum.

Sydney, N.S., Nov. 29.—J. H. Plummer, manager of the Dominion Coal and Steel Co., has rejected the proposals of the Provincial Workers' Association, and the rejection of the men have been notified to that effect. The men accepted the general reduction of wages but the offer was refused to agree to any proposal. The men have given till Tuesday to reconsider his manager, unless he does not come to the table, an strike will probably be called. The 5,000 coal miners in the Dominion are also out in sympathy with the steel men.

THE ONLY REMEDY.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 30.—The Times publishes a letter at the request of Mr. Chamberlain from the Canadian Iron and Steel Co. regarding the dumping of German steel into England. He says the British industry is right up to date, but that the fault lies in one-sided free trade, and the only remedy is preferential trade with the colonies.

CANADA FAVORS CHAMBERLAIN.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.) London, Nov. 30.—The Daily Express says the strong feeling throughout the Dominion in favor of Mr. Chamberlain is reflected in a striking manner by the principal organs of the Canadian press, and quotes The Mail, Toronto News, Globe, The Montreal Star and Witness and the Ottawa Citizen.

PALMERSTON PAINTED.

Angus MacGregor, of Palmerston, Ont., painted the name of the late Lord Palmerston on his house, which he did so in honor of the late Premier, who he regarded as the greatest statesman of the British Empire.

HAVEN'T AGREED YET.

The long drawn-out conference between the Grand Trunk officials and their telegraph operators over the Detroit River, numbering about 700, who are asking for an increase in their wages of about 25 per cent, and a rearrangement of their working time, has resulted in a feeble agreement along the line. The committee who are in conference with the railway officials has not yet reached a decision on the matter.

DELIBERATELY CRIMINAL.

South Norwalk, Conn., Nov. 29.—Antonio Giorgi, aged 30 years, today went into an outhouse at the rear of his home, and after pouring a quantity of kerosene oil over his body, set fire to it. He was burned frightfully and died but a few minutes.

EXHAUSTED PATIENCE.

London, Nov. 29.—Mr. Balfour has exhausted the patience of the public by his evasive speech at the United Service Club respecting the war committee's report. He has exaggerated Lord Lansdowne and the War Office at the expense of generals and soldiers. "We exaggerate the fighting services," said an expert, "and the War Office of the military responsible for the conduct of the war."

J. M. McEwen SUES GAMEY WANTS $10,000 FOR LIBEL

Alex. Wright and London Free Press Also Have Actions on Their Hands.

London, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—Three actions for damages for alleged libel, arising indirectly out of the Gamey investigation, may be heard at an early date in the courts of the land. The plaintiff in each of these cases is John M. McEwen, barrister of this city, who was one of the counsel of the government in the investigation, and the amount claimed in each instance is $10,000. The London Free Press Printing Co. is named as the defendant in one of the actions, notice of which has already been served. It is alleged that The Free Press of a recent date contained a telegraphic report, showing suspicion on Mr. McEwen, in connection with the disappearance of the leaves of the Grosvenor cash book at the time of the investigation. R. R. Gamey, M.L.A., is the defendant in another of the cases, and Alex. Wright, the organizer for the Conservative party in the province, is the defendant in the other. The actions against these papers are based on statements made in speeches by them, also implicating Mr. McEwen in the mutilation of the cash book. Chicago, Ill., Nov. 29. (Staff Special.)—"Canada has been getting all the prize money in sight for sheep and swine, and now from the looks of the International Live Stock Exposition exhibits some capital prizes in draft horses and other lines, will go to the Dominion pure bred stock." This was the significant manner in which General Manager W. E. Skinner sized up for The World the situation here, with reference to Canada's chance to carry away some of the hundreds of big cash prizes offered for the best product of the live stock industry. More than a million and a half of dollars are represented by the fine display of the thirteen thousand separate animals on exhibition here.

Bicycle Dealer Gets Verdict of $1250 Against Jewett.

London, Nov. 29.—Seldon does man when jilted take his wounded heart to court in the hope of getting damages for breach of promise. On rare occasions when he does so a contemptuous jury of his fellow men generally award him a farthing, but this week a faithful juror, Constance then wrote a Christian bicycle dealer.

STURGEON LAKE GOLD MINES.

Consolidation of Mine Properties Expected by $1,000,000 Company.

Port Arthur, Nov. 29.—(Special.)—A consolidation of the gold mining properties of Sturgeon Lake has been made, and a company, to be known as the Northern Light Mining and Development Company, with a capitalization of $1,000,000, organized to develop the mines and mine the properties. The consolidation consists of nine properties, comprising 507 acres, which are all the principal gold discoveries in the Sturgeon Lake country. Local and Duluth and West Superior people are interested in the scheme. John H. Hill of Duluth has organized the company. The mines will be developed and it is intended to put in machinery at an early date.
