CATTLE MARKETS. Cables Unchanged—Hogs Steady at Chicago—Lower at Buffalo.

World Office. Thursday Evening, March 5. A much more buoyant condition was presented in the markets for Coblitz shares today. The local market was helped by strength in Nipissing stock on the New York curb, and the price to 7. At Toronto the interest of speculators, and investors was concentrated in Silver Queen, Foster-Cobalt, and other shares. Rumors are credited the property of this group with a depth of one or two discommodities during recent diamond drilling operations. The small amount of real estate in the price of 14 points and the demand for the shares was good at the close. The strength in these stocks, but the other issues were improved in tone by news received quite an impetus today and higher prices are expected.

Price of Oil. PITTSBURGH, March 5.—Oil closed at $1.75.

New York Cotton. MARSHALL SPADER & CO., wired to J. G. Best of close. Nervousness has been the chief characteristic in wheat. Trade has been light, and the balance wheel arising from a general trade has been very active.

Dominion Coal Annual. MONTREAL, March 5.—At the annual meeting of the Dominion Coal Company today, James Ross resigned as president, and was succeeded by Mr. David McKee.

C.P.R. Appointment. MONTREAL, March 5.—The announcement is made of the appointment of William T. Payne, superintendent of Canadian Pacific Railway Company's Trans-Pacific Steamship Service to be manager, with headquarters at Vancouver.

Lot Was Too Deep. Justice Anglin upheld Jesse Holmes' defence in the non-jury action for delay in purchasing a lot on Sherbourne street, which was reported to have a frontage of 50 feet and a depth of 150 feet. She learned subsequently that the true depth of the parcel was 230 feet, and refused to carry out the bargain, claiming misrepresentation on the part of Wm. Macdonald, real estate agent.

$100 FOR BROKEN HEART. Girl Sued for $20,000—No Proposal, But Hint.

One hundred dollars is all the court saw fit to award Miss Hannah Weiss, 20 Elizabeth-street, yesterday as a settlement for wounded affections. She sued for $10,000 in a breach of promise case against Samuel Jacobs.

The couple met at a party on Bloor-street, Sunday, Aug. 4, last year, when they were passing the Temple Building that they intended engaging the girl above when they were married. It would cost $75, but the girl's care for expense as they would only be married once, and might as well have a good time.

Friends of the girl told of his "courtship." Jacobs pleaded that it was a "platonically" friendship. Confession: The photo given to the girl, a brother was called to say he had one stolen. The case was tried before Chancellor Boyd in the jury assistant. W. Churry, K.C., prosecuted, and Elneson Coatsworth, K.C., defended.
