Ladies' Stylish Coats and Costumes FOR SPRING At Reduced Prices

We have decided to mark the prices of all Spring Coats and Costumes down to a figure that is bound to clear them quickly. There is a tempting choice in colors and styles. Some of the Coats show elaborate trimming, and some are trimmed very little. The same may be said of the Costumes, but there is an air of elegance about them, all that will appeal to all good dressers.

TRUE BILLS BROUGHT ON FOUR COUNTS

No Bill Against Coombs for Misappropriation But Will be Tried on Conspiracy With Isaacs and Atering Book Entries

The case of the King vs. H. Leslie Coombs was presented to the grand jury when the county court resumed its session this morning at ten o'clock. In charging the jury the judge said the five counts contained in the indictment. The first count charges the accused with appropriating $5,700, the property of the D'Isereli Asbestos Company. The second count contains a charge of conspiracy with R. D. Isaacs. The third is similar to the second, but is more extended. The fourth charges Coombs acting as a director or public officer, with altering or changing entries in the books of the company. The last count is similar to the fourth, only is more extended. The trial of the case will be commenced tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Yesterday afternoon Walter Shonoman and Michael Harley were fined $25 each on a charge of assaulting Patrick J. Rogers. Both men were allowed to go on condition that they pay the fines today, and Shonoman as soon as convenient. E. S. Ritchie appeared for the defendants, and Hon. J. D. Hazen for the crown.

At 10.30 the grand jury retired and after being out for two hours and a half returned no bill on the first count and a true bill on the remaining four counts. His honor then discharged the jury from further attendance.

WEDDINGS

Leighton-Robinson There was a pretty wedding at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Alexander Robinson, 49 Spring street, when her daughter, Miss Beatie Cornack, was united in marriage to Lewis T. Leighton, of Providence, R. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Graham, pastor of St. David's Presbyterian church, in the presence of only the immediate friends.

The bride wore a dress of white silk organza and carried a shower bouquet of roses and carnations. After a dainty luncheon was served, the happy couple left on the Boston express for a short wedding trip. They will reside in Taunton, (Mass.) Wilson-Campbell.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. R. Campbell, 35 High street, last evening, when their oldest daughter, Adeline Christina, was united in marriage to Robert Wilson. Rev. B. H. Nobles performed the ceremony. The bride was dressed in pale blue silk mulle, with lace trimmings. Her sister, Miss Nellie M. Campbell, was bridesmaid and wore a white princess dress. The groom was supported by Wm. Gordon Dunham, cousin of the bride. The little Misses May and Vera Brooks acted as flower girls and were dressed in pink silk. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson received many handsome and costly presents, among which were a dinner and tea set combined, from the employees of T. Rankine & Sons, where the bride was employed. The groom's present to the bride was a brooch set with an amethyst.
