

YANKEES WIN; BROWNS BEATEN

New York Team Two and a Half Games Ahead

Babe Ruth Scores His 34th Home Run and Ken Williams His 39th—Other Features Yesterday in the Big League Contests.

(Canadian Press)
New York, Sept. 20.—The New York Yankees were a notch nearer their second consecutive American League championship today as a result of defeating the Boston Red Sox, 7 to 4, in the first game of the series while the St. Louis Browns, again without the services of George Sisler and showing a reaction from the effects of their losing streak with the Yankees, succumbed to Washington by the same score.

The Yankees increased their lead in the race to two and a half games. They can clinch the pennant by taking seven of their remaining nine games, even if St. Louis wins all eight of its contests.

Sam Jones of the Yankees, and Herman Pilleto, Cobb's ace, both got off to a wobbly start, but Jones was alright after the second inning, while his rival weakened in the seventh and eighth, when New York pushed over the tying and winning run. Babe Ruth's thirty-fourth homer, a double steal by Schang and Jones and extra wallop by Pipp and Meusel, were scoring factors for the Yankees.

Ken Williams of the Browns, matched Ruth's circuit clout with his 39th, putting him two ahead of Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Cardinals, and increased the probability that he will displace the Babe as this year's home run king.

The New York Giants, holding the seemingly impregnable lead of five and a half games, were ready to battle the second place Pittsburgh outfit in the first of a three game series today.

The Pirates gained a half game in the race by trimming Philadelphia, 6 to 1, while the champions were idle. The Giants, to clinch their eighth National League title since 1900, need win but seven of their thirteen games, even if the Pirates capture all ten contests.

Two recruit twirlers, Metevier and Winn, pitched Cleveland to a double victory over the Boston Red Sox, 7 to 4, and 8 to 2. Neither issued a base on balls.

Hornsby hit safely in his thirty-third consecutive game, while St. Louis downed the Boston Braves, 8 to 4, in the only other game played in either major league.

FORESTERS QUIT POSTS FOR CHANCE TO GO TO WAR

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 20.—Foresters working in remote districts of British Columbia have been deserting their posts in the last few days to reach telegraph communications with sources of the war news. Many of the provincial foresters are returned soldiers and they wanted to get back to mobilising centres when they heard rumors of another war. The forestry department is wiring in every direction telling their foresters to stick to their jobs until they are sure there will be a war.

AUTO GAS IN SEWER, IGNITED, HURTS BOY

Match Dropped Into Pool Causes Blast to Break and Hurl Grating—Scars Residents.

New York, Sept. 16.—Dominick Scanzano, ten years old, of 276 Floyd street, Brooklyn, was injured in a peculiar accident last night. An automobile had been standing at the curb at Throop avenue and Bartlett street, and gasoline leaking from the tank had dripped into the sewer.

After the car moved away, a boy dropped a lighted match into the sewer, and there was an explosion. Pieces of the sewer grating were hurled in all directions and the Scanzano boy was struck on the arm.

An ambulance was called from Beth Moses Hospital and the surgeon bandaged the boy's arm and sent him home. Residents of the neighborhood at first thought a bomb had been exploded, and remained in a state of excitement for some time.

SEIZURE IS LAWFUL BEYOND THREE MILE LIMIT, JUDGE SAYS

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Boston, Sept. 19.—In a decision today sustaining the seizure of the British schooner Grace and Ruby, six miles off shore, Federal Judge James M. Morton ruled that ram-running ships were not immune from seizure by the mere fact that they were beyond the three-mile limit.

INTERNATIONAL POLICE CHIEF LEAGUE MOOTED

(Toronto Mail and Empire.)

Police chiefs from many parts of the world are in New York this week trying to establish an international organization to aid them in the warfare against criminals. They realize that they are not properly organized, that means of communication between one city and another and particularly between one country and another are too slow and complicated. They know things about criminals which might be of the utmost importance to each other, but the means of communicating them are not adequate. They are working toward the idea of being able to throw a single word from the wireless which will be carried to all the great centres of the world. This will be a word in code which when translated will give the name, and the finger print classification of the criminal wanted and the crime of which he is suspected. The result might be that the day the criminal, having escaped from New York, landed at Berlin or London he would be arrested, and on his way back to the United States within twenty-four hours. The police chiefs, too, will try to bring about greater uniformity in extradition laws, although Commissioner Enright of New York, to whom the international conference is due, says that there is more trouble about extradition with various states of the Union than with many foreign countries.

The "Modus Operandi" System.

It is expected that what is called the "Modus Operandi" System, invented by Major General Atcherley, Inspector general of the constabulary of Great Britain, and which has been used in New York for the past five years, will be adopted for international use. This system is founded on the belief of the police that most expert criminals have a method of work peculiar to them, so that it is possible for the well-informed detective to say after looking over the scene of a safe blowing, for instance, what safe blower of his acquaintance is most likely to have committed the crime. The thickness of the bits used by the criminal, their thinness or fineness, the manner of the entrance and exit, the location of the holes bored in the safe, and sort of explosive used—all these vary somewhat according to the person who commits the crime. The expert notes the minute differences, and having access to a library in which all the little nuances of the criminal operator are set down, he finds the identification as quickly as though finger prints had been left behind. It is proposed that the mass of such information which is now scattered throughout the world shall be brought to certain national centres where it may be quickly available.

Finger Prints by Wire.

Hakon Jorgensen, the director of the police department at Copenhagen, has a system whereby he believes that a fingerprint code can be flashed to any part of the world by telegraph, and the police expect also make use of the invention whereby photographs may be sent by wire. Not only a national but an international rogues gallery will be established, which will contain all the information to be gathered about criminals. No such rogues gallery exists in the United States, each large city having its own available. It is true to all other cities that when a criminal is caught in one city, it is necessary for the demands to be made upon some hundreds of other cities for particulars of him. The new idea is to have all these records filed at Washington, and to this centre all requests for information could be sent, not only from other American cities but from cities all over the world. Similarly each other country entering the International Police League will have a national centre where all criminal data will be stored. Indeed most of them have this system already.

Foreign Born Criminals.

But the United States, we presume, has a far greater criminal immigration than all other countries put together. The English, the Italian and the Russian criminal finds himself at home in the United States, the first because he speaks the language and the others because have so many compatriots to prey upon. The country swarms with foreign-born criminals and anarchists. It is a matter of the greatest difficulty to keep track of them all, but when the police chiefs of the United States are organized the way the police chiefs of Great Britain and most of the European countries are organized the work will become comparatively easy.

Most of the foreign-born criminals who operate in the United States had criminal records in their own countries. If these were in the service of the American police they would be in a better position to cope with the most dangerous element in the country.

Political Police Heads.

One thing which has hitherto stood in the way of the proper organization of the police chiefs of the United States is the fact that most of the forces are headed by politicians, who are called commissioners, and who never arrested a man in their lives. Being politicians they come and go with the municipal organizations which appoint them. In the hands of these ephemeral commissioners resides the authority to speak for the forces of which they are the feeble heads. Mr. Enright himself is just such a chief, but he realizes the weakness from a police point of view of the system and the new scheme he is sponsor for may materially modify it.

FIRST SOLVE THE ECONOMIC SITUATION

Mandates Question Depends on That in View of Assembly of League of Nations.

Geneva, Sept. 20.—The assembly of the League of Nations today resumed discussion of the mandates question in an air of general listlessness. The entire interest of the delegates is absorbed in a special report by Lord Robert Cecil which declared that disarmament is dependent upon solution of the economic situation, although its claims upon the European countries are not specifically mentioned.

The fact that Lord Robert refers to "inter-governmental" and not "inter-Allied" war debts is taken to mean that he has the United States claims in view as well as those between the European countries.

This question remains the only one of interest, since Lord Robert and the other leaders have frankly admitted they can accomplish nothing else until it is settled.

A proposal by Dr. Fridtjof Nansen that the league intervene in Asia Minor was referred today by the league assembly to its political committee.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT PROMINENT BAPTISTS

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. Dr. A. T. Kempton of Cambridge Mass., who with Mrs. Kempton and Mrs. S. B. Kempton, are visiting Wolfville, addressed the Acadia Academy Y. M. C. A. on last Wednesday evening.

Rev. M. C. Higgins, pastor of the Clyde avenue Baptist church, Sydney Mines, C. B., has resigned. The church will be without a pastor at the latter part of September.

Our missionaries, Miss Martha and Dr. Zella Clark, sailed from Quebec on the S. S. Empress of Scotland on September 19 on their return to their work in India. They expect to sail from London per S. S. Morea on October 13 and arrive at Bombay about November 1.

One of the pleasing incidents connected with the recent convention at Wolfville was a recital of sacred music given in the chapel of Acadia's Ladies' Seminary on Sunday evening after the convention had closed, when a well-filled room listened to Miss Marie Wilson, assisted by Miss Rockwell at the piano, as they rendered a programme of rich sacred music. Miss Wilson is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Wilson, and is a very gifted singer. Her rich natural gift has been highly trained so that nature and art blend in her work. The recital closed with singing two hymns in which the congregation joined.

A sentiment in a letter recently received from our veteran missionary in India, Rev. Rufus Sanford, D.D., is of such worth that we pass it along. Dr. Sanford writes: "It is a mighty fine thing to have a big and useful job on hand. Blessed be the Lord for hard work, that means much in the Kingdom of Righteousness." Such a sentiment from a man past eighty years goes far to show why God chose him to labor for fifty years among the Telugus in India and has made him such a blessing.

POLAND'S POTATO CROP.

Country Will Have 225,000 Carloads For Export This Year.

Reports from Poland indicate that the nation will have a surplus of 225,000 carloads of potatoes for export this year. Poland is the second largest potato producing country in Europe, and this year a very large crop will be harvested.

The figure is put at approximately 5,400,000 acres of potatoes, or 83 per cent. of the pre-war area devoted to potatoes, and more than 10 per cent. in excess of last year's planting. The greatest improvement is noted in the eastern provinces, where the area devoted to potato planting this year is 133 per cent. greater than last year.

It is estimated that this year the Polish potato crop will be 230,000 carloads in excess of last year's production, when 1,680,000 carloads were grown.

A decided falling off in the consumption of potatoes in Poland is noted, the amount last year being only about 75 per cent. of pre-war consumption. Improvement of the population must not be constructed from this fact, as it has been established that other foods—meat, eggs and dairy products—have been consumed in larger quantities than before the war.

Last year only 3,000 carloads of potatoes were exported, largely due to government restrictions placed on exportations so as to insure an ample quantity for food and for seed.

Miss Ruth L. Cain, of the Canadian National city ticket office staff, King street, left on a vacation for Chicago and Hopeston, Illinois, to visit relatives.

C. P. R. TO CO-OPERATE

Saskatoon, Sask., Sept. 20.—The C. P. R. will co-operate through its own colonization department and work in close harmony with the western Canada colonization association, according to a statement here yesterday by President E. W. Beatty. He expressed his approval of the project as outlined by the association and said that, outside of a big governmental scheme paid for by taxpayers, this, with the aid of other existing immigration agencies was the most feasible way of obtaining settlers and helping them to succeed.

ENGLISH BISHOP TO RESIGN

London, Sept. 20.—Right Rev. Edgar Charles Sumner Gibson, D.D., Bishop of Gloucester, is to resign at the end of this year because of poor health. He is a governor of the Charterhouse, the ancient home for aged gentlemen in this city, which was founded by Thomas Sutton in 1611. He was honorary chaplain to Queen Victoria in 1901, and was chaplain-in-ordinary to King Edward VII.

Strengthen Your Business "Morale"

Soldiers know what it means when an army's "morale" is shattered.

The fighting spirit is gone, the men invite defeat.

What is true of military forces is true of some industrial armies.

At the first serious jolt their morale weakens—hope flies, courage disappears—their fighting spirit is lost.

There is no place in business today for the "calamity howler." He is drawing salary or wages under false pretences. More distressing still, he is weakening the "morale" of other workers, and of the business itself.

Strengthen your business morale.

Take stock of your men as well as your goods. Retain enthusiastic, profitable workers even at a temporary loss.
