

BABY FOUND DEAD IN HIS FATHER'S ARMS

Infant Victim of Diphtheria
When Parents Were Returning to Russia.

(Montreal Gazette.)
The return to his country of a Russian and his family was saddened yesterday by the death from diphtheria of the two-year-old son of Boris Schwenlowich in his arms as he was taking him to the Children's Memorial Hospital. The child, who was slightly ill when the family left Detroit en route to Halifax to sail for Europe, became so ill on the way to Montreal that on advice of a doctor at a station near Montreal it was decided to take him to a hospital. The child died in the ambulance. The body was buried yesterday afternoon after an inquest had been held by Coroner McMahon, and the father and mother of the child were referred to the health authorities, who saw that they were properly disinfected before continuing on their trip. According to the evidence given to Coroner McMahon by the father yesterday, he was returning to Russia from Detroit with his family. When Schwenlowich, with his wife and child, left Detroit, the baby was slightly ill, but a doctor said the child was suffering from a cold and the trip could be undertaken. On the way, however, the boy became worse and at a station near Montreal, which he could not remember, the agent in charge of the party summoned a doctor, who advised the removal of the child to the hospital on arrival at Montreal. It was arranged to have an ambulance at the station and the father and child started for the hospital. On arrival there the baby was found dead in the father's arms. It was discovered that he had died from diphtheria and the health authorities were notified. The health authorities were communicated with and took the father and mother in charge. After all precautions had been

RECENT DEATHS

Many friends will be sorry to learn of the death of Charles Landers, which occurred yesterday in the Mater Misericordiae Home. Mr. Landers was formerly in the wholesale meat trade in the market but retired from active business life some time ago. He is survived by two sisters, both of whom are living in Ireland. A brother, Michael, died only a few days ago.

The death of Miss Sadie Brayden occurred early on Sunday morning at her residence, 5 Dorchester street, after an illness of two months. Miss Brayden was well known, and her bright, cheery disposition and many kindly acts endeared her to all those who knew her. She was a daughter of William and Ann Brayden, well known some years ago as proprietors of a very popular summer resort at Upper Loch Lomond. Miss Brayden is survived by four sisters—Mrs. William Crowley and Mrs. William Glynn, of St. John; Mrs. William Cameron, of Brockton (Mass.); and Mrs. Fred Harvey, of Yarmouth (N. S.); and one brother, Alexander Brayden, of Maine.

Alexander McIntosh, formerly of Newcastle, died in Duluth, Minn., on Tuesday. He leaves two brothers, residents of this province.

John E. Dean passed away in Montreal yesterday. He was born in Lomeville and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean. For a number of years he taught school in Millidgeville, Milford, Salmon River and other places in the province. After retiring from the teaching profession he engaged in the insurance business. His wife, formerly Miss Buchanan of Fairville, two sons and one daughter survive; also three brothers and two sisters. The body is to be brought to St. John for interment and there will be service in the Central Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

H. Priestly Chapman died at his home at Mount Middleton on Saturday at the age of seventy-eight years. He leaves his wife, two daughters, one son, two brothers and two sisters.

Rev. Robert Campbell, M. A., D. D., a well known Presbyterian minister of Montreal, died at his home yesterday morning at the age of eighty-six years. His death was caused by pneumonia, following injuries sustained in a fall from a street car in February. He is survived by three sons and two daughters.

The death of James Frederick Allison, postmaster at Sackville for twenty-four years, occurred at his home on Saturday evening. About two years ago Mr. Allison was stricken with paralysis and never recovered. He was a nephew of the late Charles Allison, founder of Mount Allison University, and a cousin of Joseph Allison of the firm of Manchester, Robertson & Allison. J. Walter Allison of Dartmouth, N. S., is a cousin. He leaves to mourn his wife, a daughter of the late Major William Beverly Robinson of this city, and one daughter, Gretchen.
