

DESIGNATED FOR MISSIONARY WORK IN DISTANT HONAN

Impressive Service in St. Andrew's Church Last Evening - Miss Eleanor Galbraith Goes as Missionary Nurse.

Miss Eleanor Galbraith, who is to sail in August for China, where she will take up her new work as medical missionary in North Honan, under the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board, was solemnly designated as missionary in a brief but deeply impressive service conducted in St. Andrew's church last night. Miss Galbraith was born in Lorneville and for a considerable time made her home in St. John. She trained for a nurse in a United States hospital and after graduating became the head of one of the departments of the hospital.

Hearing of the need of missionary nurses in China, she felt the call to give her life to the work there, where the need was greatest, and after negotiations with the Presbyterian Foreign Mission Board she took a three months' course of despatch training in Toronto and was accepted as a missionary and designated for medical work in North Honan.

Rev. P. S. Dowling presided at the service last night, conducting the opening devotions, assisted by Rev. Mr. Beris. During the service appropriate hymns were sung and Finlay Campbell was heard with splendid effect in the solo, "Send Thon, O Lord, to Every Place."

Rev. Mr. Dowling, in telling of Miss Galbraith's offering of herself for missionary work, said that the district to which she was going was that in which the former minister of St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. MacVicar, was doing such excellent work.

The order of service for the designation of missionaries was read by Rev. Moorhead Legate. When Mr. Legate had repeated the prayer of designation and extended to Miss Galbraith the right hand of fellowship, Mrs. James McTavish, in the absence of Mrs. John Thoms, and on behalf of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's church, presented to her a copy of the Bible in English. Mrs. McTavish in making the presentation spoke very feelingly.

A Bible printed in Chinese was then presented to Miss Galbraith by J. N. Rogers, on behalf of the British and Foreign Bible Society, as it is the custom of the society to give to each missionary a Bible printed in the language of the country to which the missionary is designated. Mr. Rogers also made an appropriate speech.

Speaking of those who would be associated with her in Honan, Mr. MacKegan said that all the men from that mission who had been eligible for military service had volunteered and gone overseas in the Great War and one had made the supreme sacrifice. He said that Miss Galbraith would be associated with devoted workers of the type of Doctor Menzies, who recently gave up his life in defence of women missionaries.

Before the closing hymn and the pronouncing of the benediction, Rev. Mr. Dowling extended to Miss Galbraith the best wishes of the St. Andrew's congregation which she was a member and assured her that it would support her loyally and would follow her work with keenest sympathy and interest.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET. Sackville, N.B., July 28.—The exercises which are being held here in connection with the summer school of methods for the Sunday school workers in the maritime provinces were continued this morning when devotional exercises were led by Rev. P. M. Milligan of Sydney (N.S.), after which Mr. Milligan conducted a study of New Testament setting forth the values of New Testament studies. This is Mr. Milligan's first appearance at the summer school and made a most excellent impression upon his hearers. This lecture was followed by a most instructive talk on "How to Understand Children" by Rev. Dr. King, professor of religious education at Mount Allison University.

An excellent lecture was delivered by Rev. Walter MacLennan of South Devon (N.B.), maritime Baptist secretary, on "The Sunday School, Its Purposes, Constituency and Relationships." All the lectures were exceedingly helpful and much appreciated by students.

The school was then divided into groups for specialized work. Miss Jean Borden of Canard (N.S.) led a class for teachers of primary children. Rev. Dr. King held a conference with the junior workers; Miss Mabel McKay of Halifax (N.S.) had a conference with the angel workers of the C. G. I. T.

A. M. Gregg of St. John, Maritime Boys' Work Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., led a conference on the programme of teenage boys, known as "Trail Rangers" or "Tuis Boys." These studies will be continued throughout the school sessions.

This evening a very interesting devotional and twilight talk was given by Rev. W. A. Ross of Moncton. This was followed by an instructive lecture on "The Art of Teaching," by Rev. Dr. King. The special lecture for the evening was delivered by Rev. A. F. Baker of Musquodoboit, who gave a forceful discourse on "The Rural Sunday School."

The summer school students are favored with beautiful weather and their stay here will be "all work and no play." A sports committee has been appointed and a leading feature in this direction will be organized play life designed to teach those in attendance how to play and how they may organize the play life of their own communities when they return. There will be what is known as "stunt night," also a concert by school students.

Among those in attendance from St. John are Misses Alva and Roberta Bissett, Miss Harri A. Clark, Miss Bessie E. Holder, Miss Nellie Hudson, Miss Florence E. Johnson, Miss Mabel Lewis, Miss Nellie G. Rogers, Miss Ruth E. Shaw, LeBaron Stubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wasson and A. M. Gregg.

ST. JOHN'S GREATEST MERCANTILE EVENT ENDS SATURDAY

Saturday noon marks the closing hour of St. John's Greatest Mercantile Event which is Oak Hall's Annual Mid-Summer sale. Oak Hall will be open on Friday evening until 10 o'clock, and as the store-wide reductions now in force will end Saturday, it is to the best interests of those who have not already taken advantage of this opportunity to do so without further delay.

Oak Hall are strongly emphasizing the fact that the economic opportunities this year are unusually attractive because the prices are marked down from original prices that represent the narrowest margin of profit on which this business ever attempted to operate, so of course this accrues to the benefit of the customers.
