MY BROTHER ON THE CLYDE.

I've chucked away my bayonet, I'm flinging down my gun,
I'm fed up with the business, and I'm fairly done;
I've tried to work it out all right, so help my God I've tried,
But what put the "kibosh" on is my brother on the Clyde.

He's working in a factory, and he gets ten bob a day,
And now he's downed his tools and says he wants a bit more pay;
He writes and says these busy days is just the blooming chance,
So I've downed my tools, these busy times, somewhere out here in France.

Two pence more each bloomin' hour is what he says he'll get,

And me on one and two,
Oh! he's time to quit;
It's just his opportunity, so can't I be as wide

As he who wrote this letter here, my brother on the Clyde.

Busy times he talks about, so help my mate, it's funny,
He'd stop the guns from barking for a bit of lousy money;

It's busy times he'll get all right if once he lets us down,
A-digging out his family from the ruins of the town.

So I've chucked away my bayonet, and I'm flinging down my gun,
Two can play the blooming game, then in comes Mr. Hun.

And down'll go the factories and the workshops far and wide,
For twopence more a hour then, and not a rap for us.

I wonder if those chaps at home could ever dream
Of what things really are out here, and not just what they seem;

And when you read your papers and puff yourself with pride,
I'd like to send a line to you—My brother on the Clyde.

The guns are three miles back of us, we've got advance position,
But there's not a blessed bit of us, we've got no ammunition!

And then German fellows know it, and then they're four to one,
And the shells are piled up sky high aside of every gun millions and

Down they come in thousands, and down we go like hogs,

ARE YOU GOING TO MOVE; OR HAVE YOU A HOUSE OR FLAT TO RENT?

This page of the TIMES is the city directory for the home seeker; and for the landlord who wants a tenant.

WANTED
And then blessed guns behind us just Useless iron dogs.
But they let us down at home and if I guess he'd wake up then, he would,
My brother on the Clyde.

I've picked the old gun up again, my bit of iron, too,
I'm just a common soldier so I'll have to see it through,
But if they let us down at home and if he reads I did,
Well, he knows he helped to kill me,
My brother on the Clyde.

Deferred Payment.
A little girl of eight entered a store
in a small town and said:
"I want some cloth to make my dolly
a dress."

The merchant selected some and handed the child the package.
"How much is it?" she asked.
"Just one kiss," was the reply.
"All right," said the child, as she turned to go, "grandma said to tell you she would pay you when she came in tomorrow."—Harper's Magazine.

Four Good Lessons to Remember

First—Once your kidneys are affected, chronic complaints are sure to follow—if you don't remove the cause immediately.

Second—You can't neglect kidney or bladder derangements and stay healthy. Putting off will never cure.
You must assist Nature.

Third—The symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble—the commonest symptoms—are: Pains in the back and sides, swollen joints, painful urination, brick dust deposits, and constant headaches or dizziness.

Fourth—The sure and safe remedy for all afflictions caused by weak or deranged kidneys is Gin Pills.

Gin Pills have been the means of restoring thousands of chronic sufferers to health and strength again. If you suffer from kidney or bladder trouble—use Gin Pills. They seldom fail to bring relief.

Read what Gin Pills did for Mr.
James Stackhouse, of Toronto. Mr.
Stackhouse became convinced that he was in for an attack of kidney trouble.
Although subjected to X-ray treatment, the cause could not be located. Finally he was forced to leave his work and go to a hospital. His place was filled by another, as he never expected to go to work again.

Five boxes of Gin Pills put him on his feet again, and to-day he is physically fit again and ready for work.

Sold everywhere for 50c a box. A free sample on request by writing to:
The National Drug & Chemical Co.
of Canada, Limited, Toronto, Ontario.
U.S. residents should address McDrug-
Co., Inc., 302 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.
