TORYISM AND TEMPERANCE.

The Bill introduced by the Govern tent for restricting the sale of intoxicating liquor is all that any reasonable temerance man could desire. So stringen are its provisions that liquor cannot be tal purposes without an order from a dergyman, or for scientific or chemical purposes without a certificate from a nagistrate. The manner in which the Bill is to be submitted to the people is simple and not by any means expensive. The machinery for putting it in operation The machinery for putting it in operation is affective and provided by the measure is affective and provided by the measure tags, a patient from Watford was choked to death by a piece of pudding while at dinitself."
