FLOCKING TO NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 12.—The crowd coming to see the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight Wednesday night is beginning to pour in, including a large gathering of pugilists, Jack McAuliffe, George LaBlanche, Tommy Warren, Bill Farrell, Billy Myer, Jimmie Carroll of Brooklyn and a number of others.

Nearly all the fighters are Dempsey men, and most of the many strangers who are arriving are also for Dempsey. The reason for this is plain. Dempsey is considered the American representative, and, beside that, most of them have seen Dempsey fight, and have great confidence in him to come out of hard and long sieges with glory. They quote for instance, the fight with La Blanche, when La Blanche hit Dempsey hard in his terrific rushes, but Dempsey came out of it all smiling and with strength enough to finish his man.

In New Orleans on the contrary, Fitzsimmons is the favorite. Dempsey has not fought here since 1883, when he defeated Bixamos, the French wrestler, a wonderfully strong man, but entirely untutored in pugilism. The rest of his career is newspaper report. Fitzsimmons and Carroll both won here recently, and confidence in the shrewdness of one and the ability of the other is unbounded. There is about $7000 bet upon each than at even money, and the Fitzsimmons end is nearly all New Orleans capital.

But the popular sentiment here is about equally divided. The betting, as expected, has varied round to odds of five to four in favor of Dempsey, with chances that these odds will increase rather than fall off.

A Cincinnatian sent down $2,500 to bet on Dempsey at odds of five to four, but the money was not taken up. An offer posted at the poolroom, offering $500 to $400 on Dempsey, found no takers.

One wealthy western man says that although he has several thousands to bet on Fitzsimmons, he did not expect to lay a dollar of it at shorter odds than 10 to 6.

A number of sporting men who have run over to see Dempsey, say that he is in splendid condition, and come back even more enthusiastic than ever over him.

Gossip of the Fighters.

The Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight is creating as much interest as the Sullivan-Kilrain fight in '89. Dempsey is the favorite—perhaps because he is the American, but big stories have been rehearsed of the prowess of the long-legged Antipedean.

Dixon has not begun training yet for his battle at New York with McCarthy on the 5th of next month.

The story which caused so much talk in this country, that Slavin had offered to stop Sullivan in six rounds, proves to be a canard. The Australian heavyweight, according to a recent edition of the London Sportsman, denies that he ever made such a statement, and knows nothing of its origin.

The Glendon Ashore.

The three-masted schooner Glendon, owned by Messrs. E. Lantalum & Co., was launched yesterday at Quaco. Soon after she came off, the heavy wind drove her on the beach where she now lies. Messrs. John Ewing and Edward Lantalum went up to Quaco last night. Mr. Ewing telephoned down today that the vessel lies in an easy position on the beach and as far as can be seen is not damaged. She will have to be relaunched and preparations are being made to take her off at the the next spring tides. The Glendon is insured for $3,000 with M. R. Edwards, $5,000 with R. G. Taylor and $1,000 with M. & T. B. Robinson. The vessel is the old steamer Glendon which Messrs. Lantalum & Co. have had re-built and converted into a three-masted schooner at Nugent's yard, Quaco.

Work in the Y. M. C. A.

The classes in the gymnasium have resumed work. The boy's class met today at 3.45 o'clock, and the business men's class at 5, the young men's class will meet at 8. The running track has been painted and is very much improved.

A meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlor, for the purpose of organizing the athletic club. (All members are invited.)

The vocal music class meets at 7.30 o'clock.

A song service will be held in the Y. M. C. A. parlor at 9 o'clock tonight. The service will be led by Mr. J. E. Irvine.

Wedding Presentations.

The ladies of the Congregational church have presented Miss Mary S. Elliott, with a handsome silver salver, in view of a happy event which will take place this evening. They have also presented Mr. J. T. Purdon with a handsome volume of etchings. Mr. Purdon is one of the principals in a pleasant affair to-morrow evening, at Centenary church.

Miss Isabel Humphrey, was last evening presented with a handsome plate glass mirror, set in oxydized silver, by the teachers of Centennial school. A prominent Sussex gentleman is the happy individual.

Of Personal Interest.

Captain Sam Elliott, has resigned his position on the tug Norman. He leaves for New York early in February to take a position there.

Hon. A. G. Blair came down from Fredericton this morning.

APPOINTED DAY WATCHMAN.—Mr. William Smith, of Carleton, who has been for a considerable time in the employ of the C. P. Railway, has been appointed day watchman of that company's warehouse on Sand Point, Carleton.

THE HIGHFIELD DOCKED.—The steamer Highfield was docked at Sand Point this afternoon. The gear was at once rigged up and the work of discharging will likely be commenced to-morrow. When the crew started to hoist the anchors this morning, it was found that they were fouled. It was nearly one o'clock before the anchors were cleared. About eleven o'clock one of the anchors was got up to the bow but it dropped into a small boat underneath. The boat was sunk and badly broken up.

ODDFELLOW'S ASSEMBLY.—Canton La Tour No. 1, I. O. O. F. intend holding a grand assembly in the Domville building on Monday evening 26th inst., open to members of the order only with their lady friends. Good music for dancing will be provided, games and amusements of various kinds will be arranged in the entertainment programme, and light refreshments will be served. The members of the canton will wear full dress uniforms. An efficient committee have the arrangements in charge and no doubt the Oddfellows who are fortunate enough to be present will have a very enjoyable time.

CLIMO'S RENOWNED PHOTOGRAPHS obtain their merit through untiring skill and earnest endeavor. 85 Germain street.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Evangelical Alliance Meeting—Horse Racing on the Marsh and Keeping Stores open Sunday Spoken of.

There was a special meeting of the Evangelical Alliance yesterday afternoon to consider the question of Sabbath Observance, and the advisability of bringing Rev. W. F. Crafts to St. John to speak on that subject. Secretary Gates read a letter from Mr. Crafts in which he stated that he thought it would be hardly worth while to come to New Brunswick to give a single address. He suggested that if it could be so arranged, his first Sabbath and the three following days might be spent in St. John, two days in Moncton, the next Sabbath and three days following at Halifax, two days at Fredericton and the last Sabbath of his stay either in Fredericton or St. John. His terms were $15 per day, and he paid his own expenses.

Rev. Mr. Gates moved that the corresponding secretary be requested to write to Rev. Messrs. W. B. Hewson, J. M. Robinson, and G. M. Campbell, of Moncton; Rev. Dr. Burns and Rev. Messrs. J. A. Rogers and F. D. Crawley and Job Shenton and Mr. L. W. Johnson, of Fredericton, laying before them the contents of Mr. Crafts' letter, and asking them their co-operation.

Rev. Dr. Macrae seconded the motion, and it was carried. On motion of the last speaker Secretary Gates was instructed to look up the letter written the alliance by Rev. Mr. Hastings, of Boston, and if, in his judgment, it was proper, to write that gentleman and endeavor to have him come to St. John after Mr. Crafts.

Rev. Dr. Wilson had been informed that the Sabbath in St. John was broken by any amount of horse racing and base ball and that many stores were kept open. Was there no way of dealing with these practices? If not there was surely need of legislation.

Secretary McLeod was inclined to think there could be little base ball playing at this season.

Rev. Dr. Macrae suggested that, if Mr. McLeod could get some of his young men to break the Sabbath by going about the streets and making notes of specific instances of the cases mentioned, some good might be done by having the information published.

Rev. Dr. Wilson said he believed there had been scores, if not hundreds, of teams on the Marsh road on Sunday and the fences had been lined with young lads who were watching something like a horse race.

Mr. McLeod had been at Little Rock, Arkansas, when Rev. Mr. Crafts came there. The latter went quietly around town and secured a list of the stores open on Sunday. He interviewed the druggists and arranged a plan by which only one of them kept open on the Sabbath.

The question of cigars and tobacco was discussed for a few moments and the alliance adjourned.

AFTER THE FLOOD.

The Work of Repairs Going on Around the Wharves—The Water Covers Sand Point at High Tide To-day.

After the havoc wrought by yesterday's gale, some of the wharves present a dilapidated appearance. Men are busily engaged today repairing damages, and to some wharves the repairs will necessarily be quite extensive.

Quinn's wharf has hardly a plank left in its original place. They are lying scattered about, while the foundation of the wharf is considerably shattered. All the wharves in the vicinity of Lower cove are being repaired this morning, as well as the sheds and buildings which are on them, and which were damaged by the waves.

A few years ago when St. John was visited by an exceptionally high tide and one which did considerable damage. Mr. James Lord marked its height in his fish store on Water street, Carleton. The water was found to be within a few inches of the mark which he made at the time of the great Saxby. Yesterday Mr. Lord again marked the highest point attained by the tide and found that the water had risen nine inches higher than it did during the Saxby gale.

Strewn along the top of Sand Point wharf are piles of deals and drift wood which were washed up by yesterday's wild waves. The inner portion of the wharf on the south side was torn up and the top washed off that part which extends furthest down the beacon bar. Men were engaged to-day in removing the material cast up on the wharf, and in repairing the damage done.

The tide covered Sand Point wharf today and had there been a wind from the south, doubtless as much damage would have been done as by yesterday's gale. The beach which stretches from Sand Point to the Negrotown breakwater is strewn with wreckage from the the different wharves which suffered during the gale.

No Truth in It.

The Montreal Gazette of a late date contains the following special despatch from its St. John correspondent:

The St. John Fire Department is just now about as badly demoralized as the police force. The driver of the Salvage Corps wagon, and the driver of the Chief engineer's cart have been suspended for drunkenness. When called out by a fire alarm yesterday they were unfit to handle the ribbons.

It is true that two of the fire department men were suspended but their places were filled by competent men. It is news to a great many in this city to hear that the fire department is in such a state of demoralization as the correspondent states, and this statement is moreover far from the truth. Such nasty little paragraphs against St. John, only serve to hurt its reputation and, as they are totally incorrect it becomes the duty of everyone to contradict who it is that is endeavoring to defame the city in such a contemtable manner.

This Evening.

Girls' Friendly Society will meet in the C. of E. Institute rooms.

St. George's Society will hold their annual meeting in the Salvage Corps rooms.

Scotch and Irish concert at St. Stephen's church.

Y. M. C. A. athletic club meet for organization about 8 o clock.

The Circuit Court.

The January term of the Supreme court of St. John opened this morning, His Honor Mr. Justice King presiding. There was a goodly attendance of grand jurors, who duly elected Mr. Joseph R. Stone their foreman.

His Honor's address was quite lengthy and eloquent during which he took occasion to express his great satisfaction in seeing so many business men of the city in attendence on the jury. He referred to the war cloud which shadows the business horizon, and pointed out how detrimental wars were to the business interests of the country and instanced the accumulation of England's debt caused by the Napoleonic and other wars. The Behring Sea question was also referred to and His Honor was pleased to note the issues would be settled in the court and all the equities of the question considered.

The following is the Docket:

SCHOONER CATHIE C. BERRY got her anchors fouled in the harbor yesterday and it took the crew all today to clear them.

A SALE OF SLEIGHS.—Mr. T. B. Hanington, sold a number of sleighs belonging to the Dr. Hamilton estate at auction on Market square this morning. One fine large double sleigh sold for only $40. The single seated sleighs brought from $20 up to $38. Samuel T. Myles got quite a bargain in a horse, harness, pung and two buffalo robes.

THE NEW WAREHOUSE WAS DRY.—The new warehouse built by the city on the Pettengill wharves, and leased to the New York steamship company, proves to be a safe store house for times of exceptionally high tides like that of yesterday. The floor being several inches higher than the highest point reached by the tidal flood, kept perfectly dry.

THE ICE SUBMERGED.—A little party which drove up river Sunday expecting to have a pleasant drive down the ice Monday were disagreeably disappointed yesterday. They drove three, five miles in water a foot or more deep. All along the ice as far as Wickham the water was deep, and the streams were rushing down the hill sides like torrents, reminding one of spring.

Hargrove and H. Holland on the Burpee mill stream. These parties will put in from one million down to one hundred thousand. All of them haul off crown land. If the snow, which is now about two feet increases for the rest of the winter in the proportion that it has so far, many parties will have to come out, as there will be no possibility of filling their contracts—Gleaner.

TRAINS DELAYED.—The heavy rainstorm of Sunday night and Monday, which spoiled the good sleighing here, did not reach very far north and west. In the northern counties of New Brunswick, and in Quebec along the line of the J. C. R., there was a considerable fall of snow, which partly accounts for the Quebec express being 5 hours behind time in arriving here today. At Montreal and aloug the western section of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., the snow fall was quite a heavy one; and nearly all trains to and from Montreal were delayed in consequence. The C. P. R. train from Montreal for St. John today was three hours late in arriving here. The Boston train was on time today.

He's a man without malice or guile
Who ne'er swore when he stepped on a tack,
And I've actually known him to smile
When his collar button slipped down his back.

Notice to Mariners.

Beaufort, S C, Jan 10—A bell buoy has been placed near Glenmah, or Lookout Light, bearing N by W¼W, distance 10 miles, in three fathoms of water.

Newport, RI, Jan 10—Capt Phillips of revenue cutter Samuel Dexter says that in entering Gardiner's Bay yesterday from Long Island Sound through Plum Gut he discovered that the west side of the granite beacon on the end of the long reef making off from Oyster Pond Point had fallen down, that the spindle was gone, and that the remaining portion of the beacon appeared to be in a very shaky condition.

Providence, Jan 11—(Special to the Post)—Lieutenant Thompson, navigation officer of United States revenue marine steamer Dexter, says that the beacon on Oyster Pond reef, Plum Gut, is badly damaged. The cap and spindle are gone and only about four layers of stone are above water at half tide. About half a mile of Gardiner's Point Long Island, has been washed away during the recent gales, badly injuring Gardiner's Bay as a harbor of refuge in an easterly or northeasterly gale.
