Notes and Comments

Church Union has been carried in the Presbyterian Church. The majority for union with the Methodist and Congregational churches was 53,088. The minority, however, is so large that it is considered doubtful if the General Assembly, which meets in Winnipeg next June, will force union on the 93,156 members who voted against it.

By reference to another column it will be seen that Mrs. Mary R. Fowler, the mother of a young man who is serving in the Nfld. Regiment, died at the Poor Asylum. We do not know the facts of the case, but it does appear strange that a woman, the mother of one of our boys in the Regiment, should die in the Poor Asylum.

The country will be pleased to learn that the Government intends issuing a Proclamation prohibiting the importation, manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors into this Colony after January 1st, 1917.

Miss Craig's Visit

Miss Craig visited all the schools in Bay Roberts and gave lectures on the following Health Topics: "Our Little White Soldiers," "Means of Resistance to Disease," "The Body a Perfect Machine," "Every Day Heroism," and "Our Invisible Enemies."

In the talk to the Women's Patriotic Society Miss Craig discussed "Services" under these divisions: Women's Responsibility for the finances of the home; her mission to provide for the health, comfort and happiness of her family; the education of her children, and her duty to the community and the nation.

Men Wanted

While Patriotic Associations in Harbor Grace and other towns in the country are actively engaged in recruiting and other work, the Bay Roberts Association is doing nothing. It's a pity this should be. When the meetings were held here at the beginning of the war there was not the general interest taken in them that there should have been. Today, we believe, this would be different. Our citizens now realize just what this struggle really is and what it means to them and humanity, and we feel sure that if the opportunity was again given they would register their names as members of the Association and become actively identified with its work.

The roll is again strong for volunteers. The Empire wants to get through quick with this war. And men and more men are necessary in order that this may be accomplished. We all want to see this terrible carnage brought to an end, but we want peace with honor, and we want it to be a lasting peace. We want to see the war-lord's wings clipped so much that he will never again be able to fly over one of the boundary fences of another nation.

Latest War News

The Germans before the fortress of Verdun has apparently paused for breath or to bring up reinforcements. They have made very little progress in their attempt to take Verdun. What they have gained has been gained at the price of tremendous cost, thousands of lives having been sacrificed. The Russians continue to make great progress in Persia. They expect to be in touch shortly with the British troops at Kut-el Amara, who are hemmed in by the Turks. The Russians are also nearing Trebizond. The Italians are very active on the Austrian front, while British troops have captured Solomina in Western Egypt. In East Africa General Smuts is actively pressing the Germans, and no doubt the last remaining bit of German territory outside of Germany will soon be captured.

Naval Casualties

News has been received at Port de Grave from the British Admiralty, that Alfred Andrews and John Charles Tucker, Royal Naval Reservists, of that town, both of them married men, are wounded, through the blowing up of the Auxiliary Cruiser Albatross.

Two men, Edmund Murgford and William Lewis, married, both Reservists from Port de Grave, are reported missing. These were at least five other Newfoundlanders on the Albatross, but the Admiralty not permitting any information to be given to the public, we can only hope that the missing men are not more extensively scattered.

All four of the missing men were experienced seamen, and had with them the first contingent of Newfoundland. The missing men have been rescued and that the remaining men are safely home, will be a relief to the wives of all. The wives of Murgford and Lewis ones in the old C. O. P. May town will have a pleasant surprise in their period of grief.
