Ald. Yates said that it might be well for the association to knew that a committee was dealing with the subject, and their eyes were not closed to its importance. They had taken the question up with Manager Goward, and the committer would shortly make their report.

A. R. Milne, C. M. G., wrote stating Carried. that there was nothing in the custom regulations whereby he could exempt the bell from China, recently presented to the city, from duty. But he had laid the matter before the department at Ottawa, and he was awaiting a reply. Recived and filled, Mr. Milne to be thanked for his fromble.

A report from the special committee on the library was next taken up clause by clause, and the council then adjourned.
