Valuable Information.

MR. H. R. Stevens:—

Boston, Mass.

Bear Sir,—My only object in giving you this testimonial is to apread valuable information. Having been badly affilted with Sait Rheum, and the whole surface of my skin being covered with pimples and eruptions, many of which caused me great pain and annoyance, and knowing it to be a blood disease, I took many of the advertised blood preparations, among which was any quantity of Sarsparilla, without obtaining any benefit until I commenced taking the Veswrine, and before I had completed, the first bottle I saw that I had got the right medicine. Consequently I followed on with it until I had taken seven bottles, when I was pronunced a well man, and my skin is smooth and entirely free from pimples and eruptions. I have never enjoyed so good bealth before, and I attribute it all to the use of Vestries. To benefit those afficted with Rheumatism, I will make mention also of the Vestries's wonderful power of curing me of this acute complaint, of which I have suffered so intensely.

CHATHAM, - - - JANUARY 28, 1879.

An old-time ingle, warm and wide,

An old-time ingle, warm and wide,
Shaming our modern manners,
Where back wood monarchs, side by side,
Fing up their rival banners,
And send their gleaming cohorts fast
The flying shadows after,
Till warmth and comfort glow at last
From shining floor to rafter;
Now glittering in the silver store
Of heirifoms with a story,
Now waving saintly halos for
The elder's crown of glory;
But tenderest the fire-light glows,
And merriest its glancing
Upon a boy with cheek of rose,
In baby frolic dancing
About a loving father's knee,
Whose brow of care unbending

Whose brow of care unben To join in all the baby glee
His father's fondness lending;
While, with her loving smile for all, white, with her bousehold mother
Moves queenly through her kingdom small,
Nor longs for any other,
But muses, in a happy way,
Whether on earth there may be

Another such papa to play
Bo-peep with such a baby.
Full well the picture I recall
My childish fancy greeted,
And which the scene that most of all I liked to have repeated:
How, when his father's hiding-place

The boy could not discover,

A while he stood with puzzled face Thinking the matter over,
Then stooped with sudden requery
And airs of mock confiding, And peeped beneath a chip to see
If there papa was hiding;

And how the trick brought papa out With sudden peal of lau And joyous was the baby's shout
And wild the frolic after... And still my fancy lingers in

The pretty, childish story, And thinks a deeper sense to win, As from an allegory; For what do we with childish wit More witless children rather— Seeking heneath our chips and bits Of truth to find the Father— 'Lo here, lo there"—when every where His walls of home do hold us,

The warmth and love-light of His care
By day and night infold us?
And when we lay us down to sleep, And scenes of earth forsake us,
And scenes of earth forsake us,
His presence still our souls shall keep,
His morning kiss shall wake us.
Does not the Father's pity yearn
To comfort them that fear Him,
Until within His arms they learn
That they are always near Him?
