

Fraser & Co.,

Water Street,
B.

THE CHIEF EVENTS OF THE Week in St. John,

Together With Country Items from Correspondents and Exchanges

When ordering the address of your WEEKLY SUN to be changed, send the NAME of the POST OFFICE to which the paper is going as well as that of the office to which you wish it sent.

Remember! The NAME of the Post Office must be sent in all cases to ensure prompt compliance with your request.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.
News correspondence must be mailed in time to reach this office not later than Saturday afternoon to ensure insertion in THE WEEKLY SUN of the following week.

The Fossil Flour works at Bass River, N. S., will resume work in a few days.

The well known horses Allie Clay and Ajaion were sold in Windsor last week for $400 and $145.50 respectively.
—Kentville Chronicle.

J. Morris Robinson has decided to accept the position, which was offered him, of assistant manager of the Bank of New Brunswick—Globe.

Archibald Tapley underwent a successful operation at the General Public Hospital on Saturday. Mr. Tapley was resting easy Sunday evening.

A plate glass front has been put in the new carpet warerooms of Manchester Robertson & Allison on Germain street. The glass was supplied by W. H. Thorne & Co.

Dr. de Bertram and Mr. Jaudon of New York and Mr. Garfield of Portland, Me., who have been up looking over the New Brunswick coal fields, returned to the city yesterday.

The death is announced at the parsonage Millstream, Kings county, of Charles Osmund, son of Rev. Thomas Pierce, after three days' illness of inflammation of the brain.

I. C. R. Conductor Jas. Card left Monro Tuesday, 11th, to attend the funeral of his stepfather, James E.
Nowlin of Berwick, N. S., who died on Monday night, aged 93 years.

The twentieth annual meeting of the Church of England Institute was held Thursday evening, Ven. Archdeacon Brigstocke presiding. The reports of the council were read and adopted and officers elected.

Rev. Alban Robichaud of St. John was in town Wednesday en route home from Buctouche, where yesterday he attended at the wedding of his cousin, Miss Marie Lege, and Francis Girouard—Moncton Transcript.

United church of New Glasgow, of which Rev. A. Rogers is pastor, has agreed to support a home missionary to the extent of $400, if necessary. The congregation has selected the Tobique region, New Brunswick, as the place where the missionary is to be placed.
—Truro News.

The causes of death reported at the board of health office for the week ending February 15, 1896, were: Tuberculosis meningitis, 3; bronchitis, 2; old age, 1; nephritis, 1; pneumonia, 1; consumption, 2; septicaemia, 1; heart disease, 1; diphtheritic croup, 1; progressive debility of nervous system, 1; total, 14.

S. T. Lamb of Perry's Point, Kings
Co., got three pounds of prize money from the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, which he sowed broadcast last May, and when threshed and cleaned had 238 pounds, or 7 bushels and 30 pounds. He also raised 60 bushels of rough buckwheat from 15 quarts.

At a meeting of the St. John County Board of Health, held at the Orange hall, Main street, the following officers were elected and in stated for the ensuing year: D. McArthur, W. C. in
C. Joseph Johnston, E. C. Robert
Wills, Chap. John Kenny, Jr., scriber
Robert Goodrich, Treas. Jos. Wolfe,
Sir H. A. G. A. Blair, I. H.

Everything points to an early opening of navigation. The Rockville Press says the river near Rockland station (Dorchester) is as clear as a bell, and the water is running as if in summer, only a few cakes of ice here and there on the banks. The ice is very thin in Summerside harbor and is covered with snow, so that it is unsafe for driving—Times.

News was received of the death at Ottawa Saturday of Mrs. S. J. Jenkins, wife of the private secretary of
Hon. G. E. Foster. Mrs. Jenkins was
Miss Mary Amanda McLeod, sister of
H. D. McLeod of this city. She had many friends, not only in this province, but in Ottawa, who will regret her death. Mrs. Jenkins was ill for some time with consumption. She leaves three children.

Rev. J. B. Fiewelling, writing from Centreville, says: I desire to thank the friends at Clifton and in St. John as well as Fredericton, who have cheered and comforted me by their kind, thoughtful and sympathetic words. I am depressed by not casting the desire of mine eyes has departed, but I am not alone, for the Lord stands by me and sustains me.
Blessed be His holy name.

Mrs. Bernard Rice, writing from Boston to the Sun says: "The statement of the St. John Sun about Annie Kempton picking May flowers with Tilly Kempton and Peter Wheeler. Annie Kempton never sold May flowers.
The mortgage on the place was false and as for keeping company with Tilly Kempton's daughter she never did. Her daughter was hired to stay nights, the same as the public hires her."

CITY NEWS.

The Chief Events of the Week in St. John,

Together With Country Items
from Correspondents and
Exchanges

When ordering the address of your
WEEKLY SUN to be changed, send
the NAME of the POST OFFICE to
which the paper is going as well as
that of the office to which you wish
it sent.

Remember! The NAME of the Post Office must be sent in all cases to
ensure prompt compliance with your request.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.
News correspondence must be
mailed in time to reach this office
not later than Saturday afternoon
to ensure insertion in THE WEEKLY
SUN of the following week.

The Fossil Flour works at Bass River,
N. S., will resume work in a few
days.

The well known horses Allie Clay
and Ajaion were sold in Windsor last
week for $400 and $145.50 respectively.
—Kentville Chronicle.

J. Morris Robinson has decided to
accept the position, which was offered
him, of assistant manager of the Bank of New Brunswick—Globe.

Archibald Tapley underwent a successful operation at the General Public
Hospital on Saturday. Mr. Tapley
was resting easy Sunday evening.

A plate glass front has been put in
the new carpet warerooms of Manchester Robertson & Allison on Ger-
main street. The glass was supplied
by W. H. Thorne & Co.

Dr. de Bertram and Mr. Jaudon of
New York and Mr. Garfield of Port-
land, Me., who have been up looking
over the New Brunswick coal fields, returned to the city yesterday.

The death is announced at the par-
sonage Millstream, Kings county, of
Charles Osmund, son of Rev. Thomas
Pierce, after three days' illness of inflammation of the brain.

I. C. R. Conductor Jas. Card left
Monro Tuesday, 11th, to attend the funeral of his stepfather, James E.
Nowlin of Berwick, N. S., who died on Monday night, aged 93 years.

The twentieth annual meeting of the
Church of England Institute was held
Thursday evening, Ven. Archdeacon
Brigstocke presiding. The reports of
the council were read and adopted and
officers elected.

Rev. Alban Robichaud of St. John
was in town Wednesday en route home
from Buctouche, where yesterday he
attended at the wedding of his cousin,
Miss Marie Lege, and Francis Gir-
ouard—Moncton Transcript.

United church of New Glasgow, of
which Rev. A. Rogers is pastor, has
agreed to support a home missionary
to the extent of $400, if necessary. The
congregation has selected the Tobique
region, New Brunswick, as the place
where the missionary is to be placed.
—Truro News.

The causes of death reported at the
board of health office for the week
ending February 15, 1896, were: Tuberculosis meningitis, 3; bronchitis, 2; old
age, 1; nephritis, 1; pneumonia, 1; consumption, 2; septicaemia, 1; heart disease, 1; diphtheritic croup, 1; progressive debility of nervous system, 1; total, 14.

S. T. Lamb of Perry's Point, Kings
Co., got three pounds of prize money
from the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, which he sowed broadcast last
May, and when threshed and cleaned
had 238 pounds, or 7 bushels
and 30 pounds. He also raised 60
bushels of rough buckwheat from 15
quarts.

At a meeting of the St. John County
Board of Health, held at the Orange hall,
Main street, the following officers
were elected and in stated for the en-
suing year: D. McArthur, W. C. in
C. Joseph Johnston, E. C. Robert
Wills, Chap. John Kenny, Jr., scriber
Robert Goodrich, Treas. Jos. Wolfe,
Sir H. A. G. A. Blair, I. H.

Everything points to an early open-
ing of navigation. The Rockville Press
says the river near Rockland station (Dorchester) is as clear as a bell, and
the water is running as if in summer,
only a few cakes of ice here and there
on the banks. The ice is very thin in
Summerside harbor and is covered
with snow, so that it is unsafe for driving—Times.

News was received of the death at
Ottawa Saturday of Mrs. S. J. Jen-
kins, wife of the private secretary of
Hon. G. E. Foster. Mrs. Jenkins was
Miss Mary Amanda McLeod, sister of
H. D. McLeod of this city. She had
many friends, not only in this
province, but in Ottawa, who will regret her death. Mrs. Jenkins was ill
for some time with consumption. She leaves three children.

Rev. J. B. Fiewelling, writing from Centreville, says: I desire to thank
the friends at Clifton and in St. John
as well as Fredericton, who have
cheered and comforted me by their
kind, thoughtful and sympathetic
words. I am depressed by not cast-
ing the desire of mine eyes has
departed, but I am not alone, for the Lord stands by me and sustains me.
Blessed be His holy name.

Mrs. Bernard Rice, writing from Boston to the Sun says: "The statement of the St. John Sun about Annie Kempton picking May flowers with Tilly Kempton and Peter Wheeler. An-
nie Kempton never sold May flowers.
The mortgage on the place was false
and as for keeping company with Tilly Kempton's daughter she never did. Her
daughter was hired to stay nights,
the same as the public hires her."

A Bass River, N. S., furniture concern has recently sold 1,600 chairs in northern New Brunswick.

A car load of factory cotton, from Windsor, went through Truro last week by C. P. R. en route for China.

Wm. H. Whitaker, one of Boston's oldest business men, died very suddenly Thursday of heart trouble. Decased married a Miss Rogers of Princess street and was very well known in this city.

According to the Berwick Register, Kings county, N. S., had a surplus at the end of the year of $13,881 to its credit after all bills are paid. The county council was able to transact all the business of the county in one day, one evening and one hour on the second day.

The subscription for the Annie Kempton memorial is being very favorably received. Papers have been sent to Annapolis, Yarmouth and Digby, and will no doubt meet with a good response. It is proposed to erect a neat but inexpensive shaft in the Bass River cemetery—Digby Courier.

A. A. Benson of the Waterville Engine Works Co., who is at the Victoria show at Oak Bay today to put in a band saw for Mr. Outen in place of his gang mill, Mr. Benson will there supply Mr. Campbell of Weymouth Bridge, N. S., with a band mill.

The annual service of the Kingston deaconry union was held at the Hampton on the 13th. In the absence of the conductor, Rev. G. E. Lloyd, his place was ably filled by Rev. C. P.
Hainington. The sermon was preached by Rev. O. S. Newnam. The music was of a particularly fine character, Harrison's orchestra rendering very material assistance, besides playing a number of voluntaries in very fine style. Mr. L. Harrison also played a solo. The Last Choir with fine effect. The visitors were entertained at dinner at Smith's hall by the ladies.

An Elgin, A. S., correspondent writes: The most enjoyable driving party for some time was that given last Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. J. D.
Steeves from their residence, Elgin Highway, to the camp. The party started about 9 o'clock in the morning, and after a merry drive of ten miles arrived at Moss camp, where a delicious dinner was served, after which the party proceeded to the camp. The party was very much enjoyed, and the conductor, Mr. J. D. Steeves, was highly complimented for his excellent management of the party.

A cable received by Court Brothers, Friday morning, brought the sad news that Henry Court had died at Hamilton, Bermuda. Mr. Court had been in poor health for some time, and a few months ago, in company with his brother William, he sought a more genial climate in Bermuda. After being there a short time his health began to improve, and he was expecting to return home in a few days. He was very much loved by his family, and his death is a great loss to them.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took place at the residence of the bride's father on Mecklenburg street, Wednesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and valuable, and were received from a large circle of friends. The gift from the wedding took place at an early hour, and the bride was dressed in some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY, issuing weekly 8,000 copies of THE WEEKLY SUN, challenges the circulation of all papers published in the Maritime Provinces. Advertisers, please make a note of this.

Several cargoes of lumber have been sold at Bass River, N. S., for spring shipment to Boston.

The advices from Fredericton are that it is likely the assistance which the government will give to the establishment of a cold storage warehouse in John and some other central points in the province, will be in the nature of a guarantee of interest for a period of years, the government having a supervision over the rates to be charged for storage.

Trinity church was the scene on Wednesday, the 12th, of a wedding.
The bride was Edith M. Clarke, daughter of Charles P. Clarke of this city, and the groom Allan Schofield of Schofield Bros. The wedding took place at 2.30. The only guests were the bride and groom, and a large number were present to witness the nuptials. The bride was becomingly attired in a brown travelling dress with hat to match and carried a large bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Annie Puddington and Miss Gertrude Schofield.
Herbert Schofield assisted the groom.
The ushers were Walter and Percy Clarke and Fred Schofield. Rev.
George Schofield, grandfather of the groom, performed the ceremony, assisted by Venerable Archdeacon Brigstocke. Mr. and Mrs. Schofield left in the afternoon for Montreal and Ottawa on a honeymoon trip. They received many beautiful presents, including a handsome silver service, a gold watch, and a large number of valuable gifts from the Young Women's association and the members of the church. The wedding was a very impressive affair, and the church was filled with guests. The bride and groom were both very happy, and the ceremony was a great success.

At St. James' church at 7.30 o'clock this evening Rev. A. D. Dewdney united in marriage Miss Daisy Florence Hamann, daughter of James Hamann, editor of the Telegraph, to C. H. Climo, youngest son of J. S.
Climo. The ceremony was a quiet one, the guests consisting only of relatives of the contracting parties. The bride wore a beautiful cream brocade dress, the gift of a sister in England.
The groom was in a dark suit. The wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

The marriage of Jas. L. Hayden, the
general and popular manager of the
Murphy Gold Cure Institute here, to
Miss Lizzie Looman, youngest daughter of the late Daniel Looman, took
place at the residence of the bride's
father on Mecklenburg street, Wed-
nesday evening, 17th inst. The ceremony was very simple, and the presents were very numerous and val-
uable, and were received from a
large circle of friends. The gift from
the wedding took place at an early
hour, and the bride was dressed in
some gold brooch, set with pearls, and
to the bridesmaid an elegant ring.
Mr. and Mrs. Climo will reside in
Carleton.

THE C. P. R. ENGINEERS.

A committee representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has been in the city for several days with H. P. Timmerman, general superintendent of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., in regard to a new schedule of rates upon the basis of the one agreed upon between the company and the men about three years ago and now about expiring. The former agreement appears to have been to the satisfaction of both the company and the engineers. The object of the visit of the delegation was to, if pos