RUSSIA IS BRIGHTENED.

Viceroy Alexieff Admits Japan Would Win Now. Says Russia's Fleet Would Be Annihilated in Two Fights—China Will Join Japan.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—A despatch from Tokio to the Daily Mail says a Port Arthur correspondent to the Asahi, one of the best informed of the Japanese newspapers, sends the following: "Viceroy Alexieff addressing his staff, said that if Russia had three docks at Port Arthur and two at Dairen she would not hesitate to fight Japan, but that if things went as they are, it would be impossible to annihilate the Japanese fleet in the first engagement, while a second encounter would mean the certain defeat, if not the annihilation, of the Russian fleet. For this reason the viceroy said war with Japan would not be advisable." The Asahi correspondent adds that many of the principal Russian warships are badly in need of repairs which cannot be accomplished in the present "unsatisfactory condition of affairs. Consequently Viceroy Alexieff said that he was strongly in favor of peace.

The Daily Mail's correspondent says he has information that Russian troops are being transported from Manchuria through the Amur in the direction of Port Arthur at the rate of four hundred daily.

General Ma, the correspondent says he has been instructed by the Chinese government to raise twenty battalions for distribution in Manchuria and Manchuria for the purpose of defense against Russia. General Ma declares that in the event of war he will join his forces with those of the Japanese army.

NOTEPAPER CRISIS DOWDY FOR WOMEN.

It when you get a letter from a so-called society woman you find on her notepaper a crest you may look upon her as dowdy or ordinary.

So says T. P. O'Connor in M. A. P. with reference to some correspondence which has been published on the use of crests on note paper. He quotes an epigrammatist, which says that as with any woman you get a crest, so possibly a woman, but it is not quite quite to use one.

SALVATION ARMY PLANS A "PALACE"

GAVE UP HIS BOOTY.

Thief Arrested in England Returns Stolen Money But the Law Must Take Its Course.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Louis Engelhorn, of New York, who was arrested at Southampton, Nov. 21, on the arrival here of the American liner steamer St. Louis, on the charge of grand larceny, has refunded the money. He applied for the withdrawal of the proceedings against him, saying he had cable despatches to show his prosecutors had now no wish to press the case. An extradition warrant having been issued, however, the U. S. embassy is unable to stay the proceedings and a police officer is now on his way here to conduct Engelhorn to America. Engelhorn will remain prisoner until the papers arrive. It is doubted here if any extradition warrant can be withdrawn by process in the English courts.

MURDERED HIS CONQUEROR

A Beaten Boxer Shoots and Fatally Wounds the Man Who Defeated Him.

STUBENVILLE, Ohio, Dec. 1.—What will prove a murder grows out of a boxing match which followed a boxing contest at Cadis Junction. Jacob Hinds and Jerry Arnold, two young men, engaged in a boxing contest and Hinds was worsted. The crowd broke up and Arnold started home. Hinds followed Arnold and as the latter stepped up to his home door, Hinds called to him. As Arnold turned to face him, Hinds shot him in the breast, the bullet making a wound which is pronounced fatal.

ZOLA'S WIDOW HAPPY

Says Proposed Revision of the Dreyfus Case is the Result of Great Novelist's Struggle.

ROME, Dec. 1.—Madame Zola, widow of the novelist, who is spending the winter in Rome, interviewed today, said: "The announcement of the near prospect of the revision of the Dreyfus trial has brought to me the greatest happiness of my life, but it is also the greatest sorrow, as my husband cannot be brought back to life. My husband would have been of the present triumph, which is the result of the struggle he undertook for truth and justice and in which struggle he sacrificed his money, tranquility, friendship and health. He used to say to me, 'I would willingly give all my work as a novelist, all my fifty volumes, to be able to write one page capable of saving this innocent man and of thus saving the honor of France.'"

CHINA RETALIATES.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—The Morning Post says it has reason to believe that the Chinese government has prohibited the recruiting of laborers for South Africa in any part of China. This decision, says the Morning Post, is due mainly to legislation by the Dominion of Canada, excluding the Chinese from Canadian territory. It is understood that the Chinese provincial government warmly support the decision of the Federal government, and are prepared to prohibit emigration altogether should such action be found necessary.

A DETECTIVE KILLED.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Detective Joseph Driscoll, who was shot in the fight in Indiana with the street car bandits, died at the Mercy Hospital today. The death will be charged to Peter Nieldmeyer. In a confession to the police, Nieldmeyer admitted that he shot Driscoll as the latter sprang upon the railroad tracks near the dug-out.

EMIGRANTS DEPORTED.

Dr. Hills Frequent Disease Foreigners From Settling in Canada. There are now at Sand Point about one hundred immigrants who have been detained for various causes by the Canadian and American officials. Of these, thirty are short of funds, a failing which will be remedied through time, and they will be allowed to continue on their way as soon as their friends send forward the required amount of cash.

The other seventy are in the detention houses and are held by the medical examiners as not being in a sufficiently healthy condition to become citizens of Canada or the United States. Those people there is no variation from the same old round of diseases, trachoma, fever and hernia, but among those detained are quite a number who will not be allowed to go on. About twenty are to be deported, some of them being rejected by the Canadian medical examiner.

These will be sent back to Liverpool on the Lake Erie, the next Liverpool boat to sail from this port. The others are not considered severe cases and will, after proper treatment, be allowed to go on.

REG. C. P. R. BUSINESS.

Yesterday was one of the best days known in the Atlantic division of the C. P. R. Out of Magnetic 190 loaded cars were sent east, from Brownville 143, and from Madam 124. These are all destined to St. John. The division is now well equipped with rolling stock. Quite a large number of engines have been sent down from the west, and among these are a number of new British and German engines recently imported by the C. P. R. They are said to be exceptionally easy running and are known as the eight hundred class.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Drastic provisions for the protection of life from the pistol of the bandit and hold-up man have been submitted by Mayor Carter H. Harrison to the city council. The sale of fire-arms is to be regulated and the buyer must pay a license after giving satisfactory evidence that he ought to be allowed to possess any kind of fire arm.

THREW INKPOT AT KAISER

Berlin Report Says that was the Reason for Prince Bismarck's Sudden Dismissal.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The sun this morning publishes the following cable: Berlin, Dec. 1.—A new and sensational version of the reason for the Emperor's dismissal of the late Prince Bismarck from the chancellery of the empire in March, 1890, is printed here. The story is that when the emperor asked Prince Bismarck to explain why he was negotiating with Dr. Windthorst, the Catholic leader, without consulting his majesty the emperor became so angry that he raised an inkstand against his imperial master.

PRISONER OF WAR HANGED

Americans, Show No Mercy to Surrendered Filipino Leaders.

MANILA, Dec. 1.—Bayardo Toledo, the Ladrona leader, who gave the military authorities considerable trouble by his operations in the province of Albay, had been convicted and sentenced to death. Toledo surrendered with thirty of his men and ten guns in October last. Senior Niles, the fanatic Filipino leader and so-called Pope of the Layafas, has been hanged. He was captured last May and was subsequently convicted of murder and sentenced to death. Twenty seven of his followers were sentenced at the same time to various terms of imprisonment.

WANTED FOR OLD CRIME

Burglar Now in English Jail to be Tried in the States on an Old Charge.

LONDON, Dec. 1.—Charles Allen, the American criminal, terminates several years' imprisonment at Dartmouth December 5th. He will be re-arrested on an extradition warrant charging him with a post office robbery at Springfield, Ill., in 1885. Allen in that year Allen and Killoran looked out of the Ludlow street jail, New York, and escaped to England. It was only after Allen had been convicted here of robbing the Birkbeck bank that his identity was discovered. Allen is ignorant of the reception which awaits him upon his release.

PRINCESS SUES FOR DIVORCE

Says Her Husband Made Shameful Charges Against Her Out of Revenge.

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—The divorce proceedings of Princess Alice of Schoenburg-Waldenburg against her husband, Prince Frederick, began at Dresden. The princess returned from her near Geneva in an aggressive state of mind. She openly declared the prince was responsible for the shameful charges made against her and said her husband was seeking revenge because she refused to continue paying his debts. The princess also threatens to begin proceedings for calumny, claiming that the newspaper reports of her alleged elopement with her coachman are traceable directly to Prince Frederick.

DOWIE FAILS TO CURE

Trusting Disciple of the Zionist Looses His Life in Portland, Ore.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 30.—Clinging to his faith in Dowie as Elijah III, A. C. Brockwell, a traveling salesman, died here after three weeks or more of serious illness. During that time no medicine would he taste, no doctor would be permitted to enter his house, except under the authority of the law, and only the prayer of Zionists who gathered around his bed nightly were opposed between him and death. Dr. Zan, the health officer, has cancelled the death certificate he issued and the case will be investigated by Coroner Fisher.

Brockwell's condition became so serious two weeks ago that his relatives became alarmed and asked Dr. Zan to see him. Dr. Zan said that he called at the home of Brockwell and saw people identified by Brockwell's wife, a believer in "Dovism." Dr. Zan insisted and as an officer of the law obtained admission. He found Brockwell ill from an aggravated biliousness that could have been easily cured by proper medicine.

Brockwell was converted six years ago to Dowie's belief and though a store keeper and large salesman of tobacco he burned his stock, countermanded his orders from wholesale houses and began to send to Dowie at Chicago regular sums of money for the advancement of the work.

His fanaticism resulted in impoverishing his family, and his wife and three children are now practically destitute.

RIDES IN HEARSE ON WEDDING NIGHT.

Syracuse Undertaker Carried Away from Bride and Is Paraded Through Streets.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Handcuffed and shackled, and a prisoner in his own hearse on the night of his wedding, Albert C. Schumacher, one of the most prominent undertakers of the city, spent this evening from nine o'clock until midnight riding about the streets, the centre of an admiring throng of friends.

When taken from the vehicle at last he was almost frozen and so stiff from the long confinement that he could not walk. He was rubbed with alcohol and given hot drinks, and his physician believes no ill effects will come of the experience. His bride of an hour, who was Miss Louisa West, prominent in the north side society, was left to the sympathy of her friends during the entire evening.

Mr. Schumacher and Miss West were married this evening and, with the guests, sat down to a wedding supper after the ceremony, intending to take a late train for New York. A messenger came to the house about nine o'clock and called for the bridegroom. He went to the door and was seized by a crowd of more than twenty friends, who bound him, quickly shoved him into his hearse and shut the doors.

Then, forming a procession, they started on a parade through the city, which attracted more attention than any circus which ever came to Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Schumacher will begin a delayed honeymoon tomorrow morning. The bridegroom says the parade in the hearse was a joke, and that he bears no ill will for it.

TACT.

I went to a party with Janet. And met with an awful mishap. For I awkwardly emptied a cupful of chocolate into her lap. But Janet was cool—though it wasn't for none is so tactful as she. And, smiling with perfect composure, said sweetly: "The drinks are on me!" —Harvard Lampoon.

LEBBE MAJESTY.

The two bearded monarchs met and kissed each other. "Well," observed the dainty quadruped that had witnessed the performance from a safe distance, "I believe I would rather be a cat and have merely my historic privilege of looking at a king." —Chicago Tribune.
