the Lot 10 church. Each in turn lead. This means of grace has promise of grand fruitage in the near nuture. We are blanning for a winter's campaign, and hope under God to again see souls weeplanting for a winter's campaign, and hope under God to again see souls weeplanting for a winter's and thus finding that peace that passeth human understanding. We are praying that the incoming year may be one of great blessing to our denomination on this island.

P. S.—A pie social recently held at Lot 10 realized $18.50. Eight dollars to pay balabee due on plantering of the church. So that now there is a comfortable church of good sealing capacity clear of debt. Nine dollars of the above amount was presented to the pastor.

QUARTERLY MESTING.—The Carleton, Victoria and Madawsaka Counties Baptist quarterly meeting was held with the West Floreneeville Baptist church, on Friday evening, 12th Dec. Pracking by Rev. B. H. Thomas, followed by addresses. Conference on Saturday, at 230 p. m. Missionary meeting in the evening; preaching by Rev. J. A. Porter. Papers were read by Miss Annie Fisher, and Mrs. W. S. Saunders, of Woodstock, showing the deplorable condition of the heathen, and also the grand work the W. M. Aid Societies are doing for the spread of the gospel, at home and in foreign lands. These papers were allike creditable to the heads and hearts of these good sisters. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Faber (Treaspierian) at 10 c'clock the quarterly sermon was preached by the writer. At hall past two, the public Sabbath-school service was held, presided over by Rev. J. C. Blakeney, chairman of the executive committee, by whom a very excellent paper was a preached by the writer. At hall past two, the public Sabbath-school service was held, presided over by Rev. J. C.
