SHEDIAC

Shediak, Aug. 25.—The seaside visitors are gradually leaving this popular resort, and returning to their homes.

Mr. Garfield White's family, Mrs.
McFadden, Mrs. Harley White, and daughter, Hazel, have left Sydney and returned to Sussex.

Mrs. C. T. White and family, and their guest, Mrs. G. Mills, have closed their Cape cottage, and are among the Sussex people to return home.

Mr. W. G. R. Humphrey of Halifax, is at the Weldon.

Numerous motor parties from different parts arrived in town on Sunday.

Mr. D. W. Harper of St. John, accompanied by Sheriff McLeod and Messrs. McKenna, Gould and Ried of Sussex, motored to Shediak for Sunday and were guests at Mr. Harper's old home here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Wilbur of Sussex, who are summering at Shediak Cape, recently entertained a number of friends at a very enjoyable outing, on their motor boat, the "Unity."

One of the very pleasant social functions of the season, was the recent lawn party at which Mrs. A. J. Tait was hostess, at her residence Brookside. The grounds looked very beautiful on this occasion, with their abundant flowers and golden glow. Mrs.
Tait had as aides Miss Margaret Evans, who presided over the pouring of tea, which was served from the summer house on the lawn. Others to assist were the Misses Hilda, Minnie and Eleanor Tait, Miss B. Harper, Miss Doris Pickup, and Kathleen, the little daughter of the hostess.

Another pleasant social event took place on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. Claude Brown of Liverpool, N. S., gave a verandah tea to a number of lady friends at her cottage on Pleasant street. Miss B. Harper assisted the hostess in serving her guests.

Mrs. Brown was also hostess at a party given to a number of the little folk, in honor of her little son and daughter, Hartley and Janet.

Mr. Humphrey, Halifax, Mrs. C. P.
Wilbur, and Miss Culbert, Sussex, and Miss M. Harper motored to Moncton on Wednesday. Miss Culbert remained in Moncton to spend a few days, previous to her return to Sussex.

Fred, spent part of the week on P. E. Island.

Miss G. Harper, Moncton, was in town on Wednesday.

During his recent visit to Mon-ton, Shediak was honored by a short visit from St. Frederick Williams Taylor of Moncton, who motored over from Moncton to call on friends here.

Mrs. Hewson and Miss Hewson, recent guests at the Weldon, have returned to Amherst.

Shediak friends of Rev. Gilbert Earle, were pleased to see him in town last week. Mr. Earle was enroute from P. E. Island to Fairville.

Mr. J. W. Wortman and Miss E.
Wortman are in St. John this week.

Mrs. Roy Sumner and little daughter, Peggy, of Moncton, are at the Weldon.

Miss M. Macdonnell, Moncton, is among guests at the Weldon home.

Miss Minnie Howie, came home recently from Boston, and is the guest of her mother, Mrs. I. Howie, Calden street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nickerson, Boston, who have been on a visit to friends in Moncton, were guests this week of Mrs. J. C. Bray.

home to a number of friends, Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Hart. Dr. Hart has recently returned from Egypt, where he spent the past year, on the staff of the British Army Medical Corps. A great deal of interest was aroused by Dr.
Hart's collection of Egyptian antiquities, and curios to which his stories of the ancient land of the Pharaohs gave an added degree of interest.

About forty-five guests were presented during the afternoon. In the tea room Mrs. Fred Turner presided over the daintily appointed table, which was centred with a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas, and had as assistant, Miss Alice Hart, Miss Lillian Hart, and Miss Clementine Pickard.

Mrs. Henry Nichols, who has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs.
Sprague, left last week for her home in New Bedford, Mass., accompanied by her daughter, Edith. Two other daughters, Grace and Marjorie, will remain in town for a while longer.

Dr. and Mrs. B. C. Borden, who have been spending several weeks in Avon-port, N. S., have returned home.

of New York, arrived home last week, being called by the death of her mother, Mrs. C. Willard Barnes, Wood Point.

The Summer School of Sunday School Workers has been open at the Ladies' College now for several days.
About forty visitors are registered at the school and some local workers are also attending the classes. The school has been fortunate in having very good weather since its opening and all the visitors speak in highest terms of their reception and life at the Ladies' College.

ing a few days in Halifax.

ROTHESAY

Rothsay, Aug. 24.—On Tuesday afternoon the usual Red Cross tea was largely attended. The hostesses were Miss Fletcher, Miss Ganong, Mrs. W.
J. Davidson and Misses Davidson.

This afternoon Mrs. James F. Robertson entertained at a large Rothesay tea, for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Pill-bury of Boston. Many were prevented from attending because of a severe thunder storm which lasted some time.

"Karsalls" functions are always delightful and this was no exception.
Mrs. Robertson received her guests, introducing Mrs. Pillsbury to those who had not already met her. Among those who braved the storm or arrived before it came on, were Mrs. Bell, Mrs. Harry Robinson, Mrs. Fred Sayer, Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. Richard Hooper, Mrs. Payson, Miss Russell, Mrs. D. A. Pugsley, Miss W. E.
Pitchee, (Ottawa), Mrs. W. E. Foster, Mrs. Rothwell, Miss Purdy, Mrs. A. W.
Daniel, Miss Daniel, Mrs. H. W. Sche-field, Mrs. Will McAvity, Mrs. Harry Gilbert, Mrs. W. K. McKean, Mrs.
Kendall, Miss Kendall and Miss Garsed, (Boston). Mrs. John Sayer, Misses Gilbert, Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Mrs. Puddington, Mrs. Hilbert and Trueman, Miss Thomson, Mrs. Blanche Blair, Mrs. Andrew Blair, Miss Cameron, (Boston), Mrs. John McIntyre, Miss Donville, Mrs. J. H. Chipman, (Toronto), Miss Clements, Mrs. Fred Sayer, Mrs. J. R. Miller, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Miss Little West, Miss Gan-ong, Mrs. Ganong, (Boston), Misses Ballentine, Mrs. Hevenor, Mrs. James Sealey, Mrs. John Mitchell, Mrs. Kenneth Forbes, Mrs. Walter Leonard, Mrs. L. Currie, Mrs. Hilbert and others. Quantities of beautiful sweet peas were about the rooms and on the tea table. Tea and coffee were poured by Miss Hooper and Mrs. Harry Puddington, and were assisted by Mrs. F.
E. G. Armstrong, Misses Pillsbury, Dorothy Trueman, (Winnipeg), Doris Sayer, Annie and Mary Armstrong.

This week's tennis tea will be presided over by Mrs. J. R. Miller, Mrs.
Kenneth Forbes, Mrs. Walter Leonard, Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Harry Gilbert.

Miss Gertrude Davidson of Boston, is here spending a vacation with her mother, Mrs. William, and Miss Alice Davidson.

Guests of Mrs. Rothwell on Saturday, were Mrs. Ralph Robinson and Mrs. Richard Hooper, St. John.

Two of our most earnest Red Cross workers left on Monday evening for Aldershot, N. S., from where they expect to go overseas, to assist in caring for the wounded soldiers at the front.

They are Misses Anna and Dorothea MacKean, who have been preparing for this work, and offered their services. Receiving orders on Saturday, they left on Monday, and will be greatly missed here in many ways. Many prayers were said for the train to say farewell and extend good wishes. At least two others of our prominent young women are ready when the call comes, to gladly respond. Classes conducted by the Red Cross are most valuable in training those who wish to serve the Empire in "first aid" work. Mrs.
W. S. Allison addressed the class on Monday evening.

Mrs. J. H. Chipman of Toronto, is visiting among her friends in Moncton and St. John.

Today, Mrs. Walter Gilbert gave a luncheon for Mrs. Harrison, who leaves soon with her children, for England. Covers were laid for nine, being Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Royce, Mrs. W. S. Allison, Mrs. W. S. Allison, (Winnipeg), Mrs. William Allison, Mrs. Heber Vroom, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. James Sealey and Mrs. Gilbert.
A feature of the occasion was the presentation to Mrs. Harrison of small gifts, each accompanied by an original verse or verses. The prize given for the best "poetry" was won by Mrs. Allison. When Mrs. Harrison goes she will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Hodgins and daughter Betty, of Ottawa, also Miss McLaughlin, are guests of Mrs. D. D. Robertson and Misses Robertson, who on Wednesday entertained informally for them.

who have been the guests for two weeks of Mrs. J. T. Hawker, have returned to their home in Moncton.

Mrs. Wm. Arthur and children of St. John, are spending a few weeks with Mrs. C. H. Hayer.

Mrs. George Roy and son of Kentville, N. S., are visitors at the home of Mrs. G. L. Warwick.

Lieutenant R. Macaulay spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Macaulay, Hillsdale.

EDUCATIONAL

At Gondola Point, last Saturday, the Red Cross tea was in charge of Mrs.
Walter Saunders and Jackson.

Mrs. Wardlaw Taylor and little daughter of Toronto, who have been here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hamilton, left this week for home. On Friday afternoon, Mrs.
James F. Robertson had a little sev-ing for Mrs. Taylor, at which Mrs.
Hamilton, Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Mrs.
W. J. Davidson, Miss Hooper, Mrs. A.
W. Daniel, Mrs. John Magee, Mrs. A.
W. Worden of Ottawa, are guests of ent.

Mrs. Dr. Malcolm at her summer home, Fair Vale, on Saturday evening gave a masquerade party, in honor of St. Harold Pinsky, one of the last Canadian Continent who is home on leave for a while; dancing was enjoyed and a jolly gathering it was, about forty friends being present.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown of St. John, and Miss Worden of Ottawa, are guests of Mrs. William Pugsley.

On Wednesday afternoon several little friends of Miss Helen Allison were invited to her home, and help celebrate her birthday anniversary. Elizabeth and Rachel Armstrong, Ruth Har-
