

The happy couple received many valuable and useful presents. The boys of the locality did their share in the way of a rousing chorus, which was much enjoyed by all.

A memorial service for the late Joseph Redeker was held at Shannon on Sunday, May 29. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. Perry, who preached a very impressive sermon.

Miss May and Maud Redstone, of Queenstown, were visiting relatives and friends at this place May 28 and 29.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss E. O'Brien, of St. John, to Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Clark, of Alan T. Logan, of Long Reach, on June 9.

A. P. Craft, of the steamer Elaine, is one on a short vacation. Misses Maggie and Susie Mott were the guests of Miss Georgia Sherwood on June 5.

C. Wetmore had the misfortune to be hit very badly while engaged in fishing.

and Falls, June 2-Mrs. Jane Taylor arrived home on Saturday last after spending several weeks in Houlton (Me.).

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Taylor are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son. Miss Margaret Dixon spent a few days in Pictouburg this week.

Mrs. George Goodwin, Eagle Lake, is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. M. Taylor. Miss Tina Willet, Lowell (Mass.), is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. M. Taylor.

Mr. A. J. Martin and Frank are on a fishing trip to the vicinity of Goodnow. The marriage is announced of Miss Annie Sirois, daughter of J. J. Sirois, and Fred Duro, of Fort Fairfield, Me.

Miss Annie O'Regan spent Sunday with Mrs. J. J. Gallagher. Pettitcodiac, June 3-Miss Mabel McDonald and Miss Helen Fowler arrived here yesterday from Wolfville, where they have been attending the seminary.

Mrs. Emerson, Moncton, spent Wednesday here, the guest of Mrs. Geo. Jones. Mrs. Roberts and Miss Annie Soden, of Westfield, are boarding at the Manard. Miss Keith, of Lynn (Mass.), came home Wednesday to attend her father's funeral, R. F. Keith.

St. Andrews, June 2-June is the month of weddings and there are rumors of many to take place here. Mr. Wheelock, of Boston, has been in St. Andrews supervising the launching of his new yacht, which took place Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

Miss Jean Yerra, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Warren Law, returned to her home in Wolfville, where she is now on a short vacation. Mr. H. P. VanHorn, of Montreal, registered at Kennedy's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O'Dell, accompanied by Master Percy O'Dell, are now enjoying their summer cottage at the lake. Miss Lena Rigby, of Campbellton, paid a flying visit to St. Andrews last week.

The Basket Ball Club, which has been reorganized, met at Miss Chick's. The members are Misses Clinch, Lottie Hart, Elsie Armstrong, Aubrey Street, Jean Allen, Amy Stewart, Bessie Hildart, Lella DeWolf, Bessie Clark, Jean Yerra, Fred Topp, Sunday in St. John.

Miss Joan Allen, who has been visiting at her home, has returned to Boston, where she will take a post graduate course in nursing. Miss Sadie Kendrick has returned from Woodstock, where she has been spending several weeks with her mother.

A convention of the Women's Missionary Society meets in the Methodist church Thursday. Miss Jost, a returned missionary from Japan, will take part in the convention. An interesting game was played last week between the St. Andrews and Red Beach baseball teams. The score was 23 to 7 in favor of St. Andrews.

Hampton, N. B., June 2-Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Evans, of Hampton, are spending a few days with Rev. Dr. Evans. Mr. Weir, of Boston, spent Sunday with his daughter, Miss Blanche Botsford, who has taken rooms for the summer with Mrs. N. M. Barnes, Linden Heights. The many friends of Mrs. W. O. Stewart, Lakeside, will be pleased to hear that she is recovering from her recent severe attack.

Miss Jean Williamson, who has been studying nursing at the P. E. I. Hospital, Charlottetown, is spending her vacation with her mother on Railway avenue. Miss Fraser and Miss Dexter, who are attending Netherwood school at Rothesay, spent Sunday at the Parsonage with Rev. R. G. and Mrs. Fulton. Miss Pannic Langstroth, who has been attending Mt. Allison Academy, returned home today.

Kingston, Kings county, N. B., June 2-Professor Robertson spent Wednesday, June 2, in Kingston, in the interest of the MacDonald school. He was much pleased with the building and grounds, although he has proposed several important changes and has appointed Mr. Edgett, of Hampton, former foreman in the building of the school, as overseer of the work to be done. Professor Robertson will go to P. E. Island from here, but will return in the latter part of next week, when he intends holding a public meeting in the assembly hall of the new building, due notice of which will be given.

The Amateur Dramatic Club of Hampton will play a comedy, entitled Joshua's Courtship, in the hall here Tuesday evening, June 7. Musical selections by the Kingston Cornet band will be rendered between acts. Gaspereaux, York county, June 6-The death occurred at his home in this place on Tuesday, May 31st, of Strangely L. was aged 82 years. He was born in New Brunswick in the year 1822, and was very ill for several months, but his sufferings with patience and resignation to the will of God. He leaves a widow, one daughter and several other relatives to mourn his loss. He was born in Maurer ville, Sunbury county, came here when quite a young man, and has since resided here. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church. Larkin Langin recently returned from Cranford (N. C.), where he has been for some time in the employ of the King Mercantile Company, his many friends are pleased to see him. After spending a few weeks at his home, he expects to return again to the far west. Pearson Austin made a flying visit to his home last week. He is doing well. A large number from Amherst were in the school on Monday, Kings county, and is doing well.

Riverside, June 3-Hon. A. R. McClellan returned from St. John on Saturday. Mr. Leonard Martin, of Alma, was operating on Friday for internal prostatic hypertrophy. Dr. G. W. Brown, of Amherst, is here last week officially. While here he approved of the erection of the new school building for the consolidated district. Mr. O'Brien, inspector of schools, was here last week. He is doing well. Mr. O'Brien, inspector of schools, was here last week. He is doing well. Mr. O'Brien, inspector of schools, was here last week. He is doing well.

Amherst, N. S., June 2-Hon. H. R. Emmerson passed through Amherst on Saturday in his private car, from Ottawa. He was accompanied by a large party of guests, nineteen in all. Among the guests were Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Cameron (Quebec); Rev. J. D. Freeman, and Mrs. Freeman, Toronto; Mrs. Emmerson, mother of the minister, and Mrs. C. B. Record, of Amherst; Misses Edith, Marian, Bernice and Emma Emmerson and Miss Bessie Trice, Moncton; Miss Sayde Calhoun, Calhoun's Mills; and Miss Grace Bowes, of Dorchester. Mrs. W. C. Bates, and Mrs. Reid joined them from here. Mr. Emmerson and party are on their way to Wolfville to attend the closing exercises at Acadia College. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fullerton spent a few days of this week in town, the guests of Mr. and Miss Smith, Havelock street. Mrs. Brundage, Miss Goodwin and Miss Smith have returned from Halifax, where they spent an enjoyable and very profitable time attending convention. Mrs. E. W. Crease, of Halifax, is visiting her son, Mr. A. J. Crease, and Mrs. Crease, Havelock street. Miss Schurman, of Springhill, is the guest of Mrs. John W. Taylor, Acadia street. Mr. B. D. Bent, Mrs. Rufus Bent, and Miss Ethel Bent were in Sackville Monday, attending the Mt. Allison closing. Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Ethel Jean Bent to Mr. John Bunsell Embree, of Amherst, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fouse left on Tuesday on a two weeks' trip to Quebec and Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Black and child, and Mr. C. E. Black, of Montserrat, spent Sunday at Point St. Charles. Miss Dorothy Silver entertained about thirty-five of her young friends on Monday afternoon, from 4 to 7, in honor of her fifth birthday. Games and refreshments were arranged for the little folks. Mrs. Silver was assisted in entertaining by Miss Eva Henderson and Miss Alice Schurman. The happy young guests departed for their respective homes. Mrs. C. H. Brock left Saturday to spend the summer at her former home in the United States. Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell are spending a week in Souris (P. E. I.), visiting their daughter, Mrs. McLean. Miss Lottie A. Haines entertained a number of her little friends at her home, 22 Douglas avenue, on Monday afternoon, in honor of her tenth anniversary of her birthday. The afternoon passed away very pleasantly. After a dainty tea was served, games and music were indulged in until 120 p. m., when the young visitors bade themselves to their many homes, after wishing their little hostess many returns of the day. Mr. John McKean, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, spent a portion of this week in St. John. Mr. and Mrs. George Hewson, of Oxford, are visiting friends in town. Rev. J. T. Dimock, pastor of the Baptist church at River John, will visit June 7, at the home of the Amherst church. Mrs. N. Ayer, wife of Doctor Ayer, formerly of this town but residing in Port Egan, spent a portion of this week in town visiting friends. Mr. Harry J. Berry left on Saturday on a well earned vacation. He will visit June 7, at the home of the Amherst church. Mr. Walter Harper, of St. John, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sunday, C. Harper, Spring street. Invitations are issued for the marriage of Mr. Osborne Moffatt, son of James Moffatt, Esq., to Miss May Butler, on June 7, at the home of the bride at Linden Heights. The young couple will reside in Port Egan, and the couple will be very popular and will be greatly missed. Mrs. C. S. Howard, wife of Captain Howard, of Oxford (N. S.), is the guest of Miss Smith, Havelock street. Miss Trueman, of Truemanville (N. S.), is the guest of Miss Grace Knight, and will leave this week to visit friends in Sackville. Miss Katharine Hickie is visiting friends in Sackville, the guest of Mrs. S. W. Copp. Mrs. Hunt and two little daughters, W. A. Cookson went to St. John on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Cookson left yesterday for that city, where they will reside in future. Rev. W. Y. Chapman, of Buffalo (N. Y.), is in town, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Greenfield. The many friends in Amherst were unexpectedly grieved when the sad news came from Montreal on Monday evening that Mrs. Hewson, wife of Mr. E. E. Hewson, barrister, of this city, had passed away. Mrs. Hewson had lived in Amherst but few years, but was long known to and endeared her into the hearts of a large circle of friends. Her bright disposition, her readiness to aid in good works, combined with her many social qualities had made her a great favorite. Death is always sad, but never so sad as when a young and beautiful woman is called away in the full bloom of life. Mr. Hewson has the heartfelt sympathy of his large number of friends and acquaintances in his sore hour of trial. The funeral will be held on Thursday at 3 o'clock, from her late residence, Victoria street, to the Highland cemetery. Miss Maxwell, of St. Stephen (N. B.), is the guest of Mrs. Garnet L. Chapman, Victoria street. Miss Pearl Peters, of Moncton, is visiting friends in town. Mrs. William Cook and daughter left this week to visit her brother, the Rev. Roland Davidson, P. E. Island. A large number from Amherst were in Sackville this week, to attend the closing at Mt. Allison College. Among the graduates are Arthur Hocken, son of Rev. W. A. Hocken, of this town. During the ceremony the friends of the town, in a large delegation, called at the house to send congratulations and in good style serenaded the newly married couple, of whom the groom was one of their organization. The following large number of presents, including gifts from the firm of William Cummings & Son, the employees, friends, and friends, was presented to the groom's mother. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

At the close of the prayer meeting in St. Stephen's Presbyterian church, last evening a number of the friends of Prof. Max. M. Sterne, who will leave on Saturday to visit his old home in Germany, presented him with a very handsome dress suit, and a pair of shoes. John McKean, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, presided and made the presentation. Prof. Sterne expects to be absent about five months. Rev. W. G. Chapman, of Buffalo (N. Y.), who recently had the degree of D. conferred upon him by Mt. Allison, spent Tuesday with his brother-in-law, W. C. Greenfield. Dr. Chapman is a delegate to the general assembly at St. John.

Truro, June 1-The first of the band concerts for this season was given on Victoria square on Thursday evening. The citizens and their friends were present. Considerable feeling has been generated by the report that Mr. T. B. Kidney, superintendent of manual training in the school, is to have his office taken out of his hands by the council of public instruction. Mr. Kidney, who is a native of England, has made many friends here, and is regretful to have him lose his position. There has been some talk of sending a petition to Halifax to have him kept in office. Doctor McCullum, of Maitland, spent a few days in town last week. Mr. H. Morris, of Westville, spent Tuesday in town. Miss Lena McKenzie, of Pictou county, has returned to her parents' home in a few days. Prof. Daniel Murray has returned to Halifax, after a short visit at his home in Montreal. Mr. G. B. Saunders, of Westville, returned home Wednesday, after a short visit here. Mrs. W. J. Doane is suffering from an attack of pneumonia. Her husband, Mr. J. W. Ross, manager of Victoria Park, has been on a trip to Ottawa. Mr. John Blanchard, of Halifax, has been in town, the guest of Mr. C. M. Blanchard, Queen street. Mrs. Margaret Rich, formerly of Truro, now of Springhill, was in town for a short visit on Tuesday. Mrs. A. Foster, of Bridgetown, is visiting her son, Doctor Foster, here. The Misses Cole, of Halifax, have been spending the week with Truro friends. Dr. C. S. Coleman has returned from the St. Louis fair. Rev. H. F. Edgerkin, of York, former pastor of the Baptist church, spoke to his old congregation on Wednesday evening, on Africa. Miss Catherine Rankin, of Woodstock, has returned home. Miss Josie Woodworth is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Samuel Blades, Brunswick street. Miss Mary McCully left last week for New York, to join her father, Capt. J. W. McCully, who has returned to Australia. The voyage will probably be of two or three years' duration. Mr. J. M. McDonnell, one of Truro's singers, who has been in the far west, is home, and sang Sunday evening in the First Presbyterian church. Mr. G. S. Coleman, of Pennsylvania, is visiting his father, Mr. William Cummings, Elm street. Mrs. J. E. Edgerkin, of Westmouth, is in town, the guest of Mrs. E. A. Smith, King street. Miss Hattie Hill, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Mathe, has returned to her home in Economy. Mr. and Mrs. J. Cunningham, of Guysboro, were in town Friday. Mr. and Mrs. J. Pennington and infant son, have returned from a short visit at Amherst with Mrs. Bieden. Mr. G. O. Fulton was in Halifax last week. Mrs. S. Canfield, of Westville (Mass.), spent a short time with Mrs. G. O. Fulton this week, on a visit to Newfoundland. Mr. J. D. Spidel, of Wolfville, spent part of Friday in town. Miss Kathleen Davison, of Moncton, was in town last week. Miss Davidson is a nice singer, and on Sunday she sang in St. Andrew's church and the First Baptist church. Mr. J. S. McArthur has been visiting Captain and Mrs. Nurdy in Parrboro. Mr. Hartley Holmes, who is home from his military college at Kingston, won a prize in the sports of a "W" battery, Royal Canadian Artillery. The pupils of Miss Whidden, violin teacher, and Mr. Stewart, piano teacher, intend giving a recital in the conservatory hall. Miss Pines, of Sheffield Mills, who has been visiting Mrs. Geo. Leaman, has returned home. Prof. J. W. Robertson, of Ottawa, was in town Saturday. Mrs. Geo. McKenzie, of Elmssdale, who has been visiting Mrs. James Layton, River street, has returned home. Mr. H. L. Doane, who is home from the Holy Land. Mrs. Rodman, of New Glasgow, and Mrs. Henry Malman, of Sydney, were in town Friday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dunlop, en route to his home in St. John. An wedding of unusual interest took place in the home of Mrs. John D. Chisholm, last evening, when her daughter, Miss Annie Maud Chisholm, was united in marriage to Mr. Daniel Forbes, an employe of the wholesale firm of William Gunning & Sons. The parlors were decorated by Messrs. Sackling & Chase, florists, and amid the profusion of flowers Mrs. Forbes, who is the newly wedded minister of the St. Andrew's church, tied the nuptial knot, this being Mr. McLeod's first marriage since his ordination. The bride was unattended and wore an elaborate gown of white organdie and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Little Miss Julia Tracey, of New Glasgow, acted as flower girl. The traveling suit was of navy blue material. During the ceremony the friends of the town, in a large delegation, called at the house to send congratulations and in good style serenaded the newly married couple, of whom the groom was one of their organization. The following large number of presents, including gifts from the firm of William Cummings & Son, the employees, friends, and friends, was presented to the groom's mother. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

Windsor, June 3-The afternoon tea given by the Misses "Harris" and "Horne", on Thursday last was as usual a most delightful affair. Mrs. Clarence H. Dimock, who went to New York about two months ago to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. D. W. Dimock, returned home last Saturday. Mrs. Dimock will also be in town for a few days. Mrs. Dimock is accompanied by a large number of friends attending tea today. Miss Annie Pratt arrived here from New York on Saturday evening after an absence of several months in that city. She is accompanied by her sister, Mrs. George Wilcox. The marriage of H. W. Sangster, one of our best barristers and son of Capt. Sangster, Sackville, to Miss Nigle, sister of Capt. Sangster, will take place in the Methodist Church on Wednesday next week. Mrs. Angling, of "Harris House", president of the Central Rawdon Consolidated Gold Mining Company, Ltd., of Nova Scotia, is in town for a few days. The students of King's College for their annual examinations have been out by the students of King's College for their annual examinations. The examinations will be held on June 23rd. The chaplains will be Messrs. J. H. Hamilton, secretary, D. W. Wilson, field secretary, executive committee, and J. E. Russell, R. T. Christie, secretary. Mrs. E. E. Barabam and Mrs. Bosanac have returned to Halifax. Mr. J. H. Hamilton, secretary, D. W. Wilson, field secretary, executive committee, and J. E. Russell, R. T. Christie, secretary. Mrs. E. E. Barabam and Mrs. Bosanac have returned to Halifax. Mr. J. H. Hamilton, secretary, D. W. Wilson, field secretary, executive committee, and J. E. Russell, R. T. Christie, secretary. Mrs. E. E. Barabam and Mrs. Bosanac have returned to Halifax.

Mr. Ernest Fairweather is home from Acadia College, Arlington (Mass.), is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fenwick. Mrs. George Thomson, of Wolfville, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jenner. Miss Annie Nye is back from a pleasant trip to Moncton and other points in New Brunswick. Mrs. Marion Forrest, of Halifax, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. L. Dennison. Miss Mary Churchill returned Saturday from a short but very pleasant visit to Boston. Mrs. Louisa Morse has been visiting in St. John. Rev. Louis S. Osborne and family arrive here next Saturday from Newmarket (N. B.), and will occupy their summer residence at the south end. Mrs. Waters has arrived from Boston for the summer. Mr. E. H. Turnbull returned Saturday from Boston. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

position by some men belonging to Grandville Ferry. An accident occurred here at an early hour last evening through a horse which wagon attached backing over Acadia pier, coming with him the owner, Thomas, and three boys. Mr. Cain received severe injuries by falling on some rocks in the mud flats and his medical attendants fear he is hurt internally. Two of the boys received slight injuries while the other escaped unhurt. The horse broke its neck with the fall and died shortly after.

Sydney, June 2-Mr. A. C. Ross returned last week from visiting Upper Canada and the United States. Rev. Mr. McKinnon and Rev. Mr. Grestess are spending the week in St. John. Mrs. Edwin Moore and Miss Wilmie Gilvin, North Sydney, spent Tuesday with friends. Miss Ida Burns, Crescent street, of Acadia College, is in town for a few days. Miss Prada McMillan, of Sydney, was in town for a few days. Mr. Winslow Staples, who has been in town for a few days, will be in Halifax on Wednesday. Dr. and Mrs. Walter Black, Park street, returned from a few days in Toronto on Thursday evening.

Digby, June 2-Mr. Frank W. Nichols attended the closing exercises at Acadia College. Mrs. Cornwall, Arlington (Mass.), is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fenwick. Mrs. George Thomson, of Wolfville, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jenner. Miss Annie Nye is back from a pleasant trip to Moncton and other points in New Brunswick. Mrs. Marion Forrest, of Halifax, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. L. Dennison. Miss Mary Churchill returned Saturday from a short but very pleasant visit to Boston. Mrs. Louisa Morse has been visiting in St. John. Rev. Louis S. Osborne and family arrive here next Saturday from Newmarket (N. B.), and will occupy their summer residence at the south end. Mrs. Waters has arrived from Boston for the summer. Mr. E. H. Turnbull returned Saturday from Boston. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney towed to sea today with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. James Welch, a restaurant keeper on Water street, shipping and fell on his own step last night, breaking one of his legs below the knee. A. J. S. Copp, M. P., arrived here from Ottawa today. Digby, June 3-The citizens of Digby are planning on a big celebration Dominion day. Committees have been appointed, tables subscribed and the advertising will be issued in a few days. Capt. Joseph Snow, who recently returned from the Magdalen Islands, is availing a large smoke house erected on his property in the Racquetts. Everything points towards a successful season in Digby. Tourists are arriving on every boat and train. The leading hotels are crowded with tourists. The grounds and the little rooms have been engaged for the season. Ralph Welch, of Westport, has purchased a new automobile, a Buick, and is driving it to sea today. Several of the fishing fleet have been in port this week discharging good cargoes of fish. Tern schooner Helen E. Kenney is off Digby with lumber from Annapolis for Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, of Boston, will spend the summer at the south end, occupying their former suite of rooms at the Trebley house—this month. Mr. George H. Peters attended the Popo-Camp annual at Moncton. The bride and groom have since been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Peters. Miss Mary Bryant and her brother, Mr. Warren Bryant, arrived from Buffalo (N. Y.), yesterday, and are occupying their summer cottage at the south end. Digby, June 4-Tern schooner Helen Kenney